OMAHA THIEF IS HELD AT COUNCIL BLUFFS

Lester Maines, Omaha, who confessed to Police Chief E. N. Catterlin of Council Bluffs that he robbed the home of Mrs. Minnie Parish, 2910 West Broadway, when confronted by the chief at the Omaha police station following his arrest in Omaha, has been lodged in the Council Bluffs jail and will face a burglary charge, authorities said.

Police detectives who obtained the name of an Omaha merchant to whom Maines is alleged to have sold a quantity of clothing stolen here, recovered a pair of trousers Thursday at the Omaha store. Other loot, it was said, has been disposed of.

Chief Catterlin in questioning Maines identified him as a man ordered out of the railroad yards at Burlington Junction, Mo., when the chief was in railroad service. The man admitted the incident when it was called by Catterlin.

BELLEVUE BALL TOURNEY TO OPEN THIS WEEK

The Bellevue baseball tournament opened today. The games between the Julien Chevrolets and Sunblad Insurance teams, and the Bellevue Athletic Club and Omaha Printing Co. were postponed on account of rain.

THREE ARE INJURED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Three people were injured, one seriously, in an automobile accident at Twentieth and Grace streets at 4:30 Thursday afternoon.

The injured are Mrs. Verda Churchill, who suffered a fractured left arm; her 3-year-old son, Robert, whose face was lacerated and Mrs. H. D. Winscot, whose forehead was cut.

All three live at 3314 Sahlor street. Mrs. Churchill was driving east on Grace street, and another car driven by Andrew Dodd, 406 1/2 North Sixteenth street, was approaching the intersection on Twentieth street. The cars met at the intersection.

Passing motorists took those injured to the Swedish Mission hospital, where their wounds were attended. They were later removed to their home. No arrests were made.

YOUTH STABBED IN ROW OVER RIGHT TO BED

In an altercation as to which would use the only bed in the room, Arthur Duffy, 608 North Seventeenth street, won over G. Lewis, his roommate. Lewis cut a severe gash in Duffy's abdomen with a knife, and police surgeons who arrived at the house in answer to a call, gave Duffy first call to the bed until he recovers.

The roommates are under 20 years of age.
