BEEBE'S CONVERSION

The Rev. J. L. Beebe who was a spellbinder for the Civic Alliance during the primary campaign, has been expelled from or resigned from membership in the Omaha Klavern of the Ku Klux Klan. There is some doubt as to just how there came a parting of the ways between the reverend gentleman and the hooded hoodlums, except "Imperial Knights of the Invisible Empire." One version is that he resigned, hot with indignation; because the Kaliptr Kook, or Secretary Cook, had, contrary to the sacred traditions of the order, disclosed Mr. Beebe's membership therein. Another version, and this comes from the opposition, is that the Rev. Mr. Beebe, "violated his oath as a klansman" and, therefore, was figuratively speaking, thrown through the "imperial" transom, or in more vulgar parlance, was "fired." Be it as you will, there are now "oaths" sotto voce, and denunciations from both sides. Beebe is out with the klan and vice versa.

Mr. Beebe has discovered that the klan is "despotic," "un-democratic, un-American and un-Christian," and cannot maintain his self-respect and longer remain a member, we beg your pardon, a subject—of the Invisible Empire.

Of course, the klan is all that Beebe says it is and much more. This he knew or must have known when he swore allegiance to the Invisible Empire. He knew then, if he had a thimbleful of brains, that it is ignorant, intolerant and hypocritical and sacrilegious. It is contrary to the Christian religion. The foundation stones of which are love and good will for all men, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the forward. Christianity proclaims that all men are brethren. The klan teaches that all men are brethren, provided that they are white. Protestant, Gentiles.

Negro, Roman Catholic or Jew is arbitrarily excluded from the pale of brotherhood by the klansman's code. How, therefore, any man, who calls himself a Christian can be a member of this hate-breeding, soul-blinding order passes our understanding.

We hope that the Rev. Mr.

Beebe is truly and sincerely converted and that other Protestant ministers, who are subjects of the Imperial Wizard may all so turn from the evil of their ways.

Mr. Beebe's renunciation and denunciation of the klan throws a brilliant illumination upon the Civic Alliance, which has been charged, and we believe, truthfully charged, with being only a camouflage for the klan. It is rather significant, in this connection, that in the three sections of the city where the klan membership is strongest there the candidates endorsed by the Civic Alliance polled a heavy vote. Put two and two together in the light of "Brother" Beebe's conversion, which we hope is genuine and sincere, and your conclusion ought not to wrong.
