ELECT BARNETT AND SINGLETON

This year we have an excellent chance to elect two of our group to the State Legislature. Let us get unitedly behind Singleton in the Ninth district and Barnett in the Tenth district and elect them. Open the door by electing these candidates. Lay aside all petty egotisms and help elect Singleton and Barnett.

DON'T VOTE FOR MEYERS

Frank Meyers, present member of the Board of Education, is a candidate for reelection. It has been reported to us from reliable sources that he is one of the members of the Board who opposed the appointment of colored teachers. Don't vote for him. He will tell of his friendliness towards waiters and porters, which is alright, but he is not favorable to the appointment of colored teachers.

The present county clerk, Miss Berger, has, since her appointment, retained one of the race in her office.

It is known she is fair and pleasant with all whom she meets, it is also her desire that all of her employees be kind and considerate to all regardless of race, color or creed. These two facts alone should be of interest to our race, notwithstanding she has had twenty years of experience in the County Clerk's office and has filled every position therein.

Miss Berger is a candidate for County Clerk at the election, November 2, 1926.

BIG DEMOCRATIC RALLY HELD BY COLORED VOTERS

Democrats had an inning at 1418 North 24th Street last Friday night, October 22, when the Negro democratic club presented the candidates of the democratic party.

Among the speakers were Grenville P. North, candidate for congress; Harland L. Mossman, candidate for County Attorney; H. K. Easton, candidate for County Clerk; John J. Barry, for State Representative, Ninth District; Charles Peklo, for register of deeds, and A. W. Elsasser, Edward E. Howell and H. P. Caldwell, for county commissioners, and John Hopkins, candidate for sheriff. All the candidates pledged a square deal for the Negro.

Mr. Harry Leland, president of the club, in a very full statement, gave the history of the work of the democrats toward the Negro. He told them of William Lloyd Garrison, the founder of the New England Abolition Society and the editor of the Liberator, who was a democrat; of Wendell Phillips, the anti-slavery orator, who was a democrat, who was generous enough to train Douglas to do the wonderful things he did.

Coming to our own time, Mr. Leland called attention to the situation in New York, and said: "The Negroes in New York work and vote for democrats, and the democrats appoint Negroes to lucrative positions in city and state. Nor do we need to go to New York to find this condition. It exists right here in this city. The first colored man to be appointed Inspector of Weights and Measures in Omaha, was Abraham Parker, who was placed by Mayor Cushing, a democrat. A democratic Tax Assessor here appointed Silas Robbins chief clerk in his office. The name of the man was Harry Seroggins. It was through the influence of Mr. Cris Hartman that we got the colored Fire Department. The first daylight colored clerk was appointed in the Treasurer's office by Otto Bauman, a democrat. The republican, Ure, had one who worked nights for a time. M. F. Singleton, bailiff in the municipal court, was appointed by the voters of the four democrats on that bench. The simple truth is that all that the Negro has gained locally has been vrs gained through the democrats, shown by the record I have presented."

"All of the democratic candidates pledged themselves to give fair treatment to the Negro in every way. And if we are to judge by past performances, they will do all they pledge themselves to do."

"Read the record, then vote for the party and the men who will best serve the interests of all."

to show her highly developed technique and exceptional richness of her touch. The excellent art of this young pianist has rare qualities of purity and fineness of tone. Miss Mason, too, was cheered with warm applause.

It is certain that there is not one who heard them who does not hope for their appearance in many more recitals in this city.

The recital was under the management of Mrs. John Albert Williams. FLORENCE PINKSTON.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES OF INSTITUTION AT ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH

Bishop Shaylor Formally Institutes Pastor Who Has Served Same Congregation for 35 Years.

A large congregation was present last Sunday morning at 11 o'clock when the Rt. Rev. Ernest Vincent Shaylor, Bishop of Nebraska, formally instituted the Rev. John Albert Williams, as rector of the parish of St. Philip the Deacon. From its organization until last January, St. Philip's had been a mission, when it incorporated as a parish, and elected the Rev. John Albert Williams, who for thirty-five years had served the congregation as vicar, rector. Bishop Shaylor arranged for his institution as provided by the canons of the Church in connection with the thirty-fifth anniversary of Father Williams' ordination to the priesthood. The ceremony of institution consisted of the reading of the letter of institution by the bishop, the delivery of the keys of the church to the rector by the Senior Warden of the parish, Sergt. Isaac Bailey, as the recognition by the parish of the incumbent as priest and rector; the acceptance of the keys by the rector with the promise to serve as a faithful pastor of the flock, a prayer for guidance and benediction by the bishop.

Following this was the sermon by Bishop Shaylor in which this eloquent prelate clearly defined the difference in status between a mission and a parish, congratulated priest and people upon the progress made and drew a striking parallel between the thirty-five years of the pastor to the church and community to that of Moses' forty years' leadership of the children of Israel. The speaker stressed among other things that it is only the sure knowledge of the presence and grace of God that enables leaders, priests and prophets to carry on. He pleaded for continual cooperation between pastor and people to render greater service for Christ in keeping with the Apostolic traditions and character of the Holy Catholic Church.

Why MacMillan Took
to the Frozen Arctic

WHEN MacMILLAN sailed for the unexplored Arctic his boat was equipped with a Frigidaire Electric Refrigerator. Regardless of temperatures, far above or far below zero, the crew of the Bowdoin will have fresh foods as long as the supply holds out. Nothing will spoil or freeze.

$170 up is the price of the Frigidaire mechanism for converting ice-boxes. Frigidaire cabinet models are priced as low as $245. All prices f. o. b. Dayton.

Winter as well as summer your home needs Frigidaire. It will make you independent of an outside ice supply. It is entirely automatic. It costs very little to operate—and it prevents all the losses now due to food spoilage.

The new Frigidaire, complete with cabinet, costs only $245 f. o. b. Dayton. It can be delivered promptly. Or, if you have a good ice-box now, it can be converted into a Frigidaire for as little as $190, plus freight and installation.
