THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The choice of seven members of the Board of Education, out of a list of 35 is a most important matter. There are very few persons who have filed for this important position who are well known or whose qualifications are known. Some few, in our opinion, have no qualifications whatever for the office they seek. We have been asked for advice by several of our readers. In addition to their educational and business qualifications, we want men and women whom we are at least reasonably sure will have the courage to see to it that we are given some qualified teachers of our race on the teaching corps and some janitors and other employees. Unfortunately, The Monitor has been unable to get in personal touch with many of the candidates. From two or three we have gotten assurance that they will be fair in this matter.

One of the men who we will now recommend is one whom we once helped to defeat for another office, but whose attitude on the Board of Public Welfare and our knowledge of him in the past leads us to believe that we can now count on him to be fair in this, and that is Harry A. Foster. An exceptionally well-qualified and capable man is Walter N. Halsey. From inquiries we are advised that the following persons are worthy of our commendation. H. B. Berquist, James E. Fitzgerald, Horace M. Higgins, Isaac J. Copenhavre and Ed S. Miller.

The qualifications of the two candidates for State Railway Commissioner are:

F. L. Bollen

- (1) Former Speaker pro-tem of the Nebraska House of Representatives and public leader for many years.
- (2) Well-known lawyer.
- (3) Has defended colored persons and churches in lawsuits.
- (4) Trained for the work.

John H. Miller

- (1) No public service and unknown even in town where he lives.
- (2) Medicine wagon peddler and former switchman.
- (3) Former Ku Klux Klan organizer.
- (4) Untrained for the work and would be helpless if elected.

Mr. Bollen got the Democratic nomination because of his qualifications. Mr. Miller got the Republican nomination by accident. Thousands of persons thought they were voting for John E. Miller, former mayor of Lincoln and head of Lincoln's largest department store. This fact and the fact that he was a radical Ku Klux Klanner explains Miller's nomination.

Be sure to vote for F. L. Bollen for State Railway Commissioner. A man should ordinarily support his party ticket but not in a case like this where there is danger of the election of a political accident.

JUDGE SEARS FOR CONGRESS

Congressman Willis G. Sears is of such value to the Second Nebraska Congressional District that in the interest of the District itself, he should be re-elected to Congress. He is chairman of one committee and near the chairmanship of two other important House Committees. Such recognition is attained only through years of efficient service. He is chairman of the Missouri-Arkansas Valley Congressional Association, made up of representatives of eighteen states of the West and South. Each member is pledged to the forwarding of national legislation beneficial to the great Central West. The work of this association has already been felt in Congress and the West had more recognition through the efforts of this association, during the last session of Congress, than at any previous session. The worth of a man is evidenced by the esteem in which he is held by his fellowmen. Read what Judge Sears's colleagues in the House of Representatives think of him.

"He should continue as chairman of the Missouri-Arkansas Valley Congressional Association as he knows more about the problems of river navigation and flood control than anyone else."
—Hon. Heartsill Ragon, (Dem.) 5th Arkansas District.

"Judge Sears is the best fighter in Congress and should be re-elected."
—Hon. Edgar Howard, (Dem.) 3rd Nebraska District.

"You can count on my active support."
—Hon. Harry B. Hawes, (Dem.) 11th Missouri District.

"If you are not returned to Congress it will mean a mortal blow to our hopes of developing the Missouri river for navigation and obtaining cheaper transportation rates for the West. We have victory within our grasp. With your return to Congress victory is assured."
—Hon. Edgar C. Ellis, (Rep.) 5th Missouri District.
