The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Lena Bratcher, 3110 Corby street, Wednesday afternoon, January 19. Visitors are welcome.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish by this means to express most cordial thanks to the many friends who so graciously assisted us through the sickness, death and burial of our husband and father, and brother.—Mrs. Lizzie Speese and Family, and Charles Speese.

DEATH CALLS JOSEPH SPEESE

Joseph S. Speese, who died at his home, 2314 North 27th avenue, Sunday, came to Omaha in 1923. He was born in Yachet county, North Carolina, January 26, 1876. He emigrated with his parents from that state to Indiana, and thence to Nebraska, where they homesteaded 75 miles from Grand Island. The pioneering spirit of the elder Speese was manifested in his son, as he went further west to Custer county, Nebraska, where he homesteaded, and later to Eastern Wyoming. From his marriage to Miss Lizzie Young in 1894 came a family of six children, all residing in Omaha. In addition to these, he is survived by his wife, a brother, the Rev. Henry Speese of California, and another brother, Charles Speese of Pierre, S. D.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p. m., in the Mt. Moriah Baptist church, Wednesday. In the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Russel Taylor, for years a friend of the family and at one time their pastor, officiated.

LODGE HONORS LODGETT

After two years of faithful service, Past Master A. R. Goodlett of Omaha Lodge No. 9 A. F. and A. M., was agreeably surprised when presented a beautiful Past Master's emblem, which he will wear with credit to himself and honor to the lodge.

Past Master Goodlett was one of the most efficient and energetic men who has held this position. Under his administration the Lodge has increased both numerically and financially.

Mr. Goodlett is active in both religious and fraternal circles. The lodge regretted to lose him as Master, but will continue to be benefited by his wise counsel and energetic spirit.

LINCOLN NEWS NOTES

To Subscribers of Lincoln:

Dear Readers: This is the beginning of a new year—oftentimes persons should check up what they owe, and try to make some satisfactory agreement with creditors. Hence, the Monitor has a large number of persons owing for the paper, far in arrears, and who are not giving it a thought, but reading the paper, and saying nothing. This is not race pride. Pay for your paper, because it is a race enterprise. Now, let us see who will be the first to speak. The Monitor has been very lenient. Yours, W. W. MOSLEY, Lincoln Agent.

Messrs. Willis W. and Andrew B. Mosley were called to Atchison, Kan., last Monday, on account of the sudden death of their brother, Preston Mosley, there. They returned home Thursday.
