"BATHING BEAUTIES"

Modern burlesque can look the whole world in the face and wink at the efforts of others who copy its methods of entertainment; but away down deep in the secret places of amusement construction, lies a formula that cannot be projected over the footlights with any other class of entertainer other than burlesque. Therein rests the popularity of burlesque, when properly presented with novelty of acts and reputability of performers. One of the most successful shows upon the burlesque stage and one that has stood the test of years for entertainment and originality, is the "Bathing Beauties," scheduled here at the Gayety theatre, commencing next Sunday for a full week's engagement, with Jack Hunt as the star comedian, and Ethel Bailey, the featured prima donna. This entertainment is so unique and original that it may go on forever as a funmaker of exquisite fabric and as an exhibition of delicacy and artistry.

ENTERTAIN AT CARDS

Sergeant and Mrs. Isaac Bailey entertained at a very pleasant card party Thursday evening at their attractive residence, 2816 Pratt street, in honor of Mesdames William and David Burns, and Clarence Spears of Battle Creek, Mich., sisters and niece of Mrs. T. P. Mahamitt, who have been her house guests for the holidays. The first prize for ladies and for score and the first guest prize was awarded to Mrs. Clarence Spears. The second guest prize went to Mrs. William Burns and the third to Mrs. David Burns. The first prize for the gentlemen was awarded to Mr. Tony Jackson. The booby prize went to Mrs. Alphonso Wilson. A delicious lunch was served late in the evening. Thirty-five guests were present.

"BATHING BEAUTIES"

Anyone who from any cause finds life dull and unprofitable can rejoice and take up the joy of living, with the announcement that the "Bathing Beauties" are coming here, and that the exhibition of the "female form divine" is said to be even more inviting and attractive than at any time in the history of this favorite presentation. The fascinating offering will be the attraction at the Gayety theatre, commencing Sunday next for a week's engagement with Jack Hunt, as the star comedian and Ethel Bailey as the featured prima donna. The "Bathing Beauties" are said to be more bewitching than last year, that their garments are more diaphanous, their dancing more complicated and their singing more devoted to catchy songs than classic ditties. Bessie Brooks and Anna Trotman are the sou-brettes, who are said to inject lots of speed, spice and snap into the offering, and Jack Sacks, Lew Petel and Phil Howard contribute their share to keeping pace with the girls.

CENTRAL HIGH GRADUATES

Miss Elaine Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Smith, 3027 Manderson street, and Miss Virginia Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Jackson, 3117 Corby street, are among the graduates of Central High school who will receive their diplomas at the commencement exercises next Friday night. Both girls have made excellent records in scholarship during the entire course, Miss Jackson being elected to the honor society for her high standing. They will enter the University of Omaha next semester. Both young ladies intend to prepare themselves for teaching.
