"LAND OF JOY"

Novelty and laughter with a lot of melody and action thrown in, are said to be the leading attributes disclosed in the performance of the "Land of Joy" scheduled for presentation at the Gayety theatre all next week with Sammy Spears, announced as the featured comedian of the organization. Sammy Spears, will be remembered for his life-like portrayal of the sad-faced Ghetto Jew, who was first introduced to the stage by Warfield as the "old hat man"—and whom Spears has presented upon the vaudeville and burlesque stage for over five years. In the "Land of Joy" it is said that he has elaborated this characterization until it has become as indelibly imprinted as the outstanding element in the production. Millie Kennedy, who is entrusted with the leading soubrette role, is said to be a very stunning looking girl who can act, sing and dance and wear becoming gowns. Dona Lee, is another soubrette, who in association with Tom Donnelly, does a singing and dancing specialty that has been referred to as par excellence. This is her first year over this circuit and she is said to have created a most favorable impression everywhere. Dollie Lewis, a dimpled dashing soubrette, just over from England, is said to have caused a regular furore by her magnetic personality and bewitching dancing. Dick Hulse and Jack McSorley, are two comedians who are said to be exceptionally clever singers and dancers. The chorus is composed of pretty, vivacious and shapely girls who work like beavers to make their part of the show conspicuously attractive.
