A very delightful and complete surprise luncheon was tendered Miss Edna M. Stratton by the secretaries of the Central Branch Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday, at which she was presented with a lovely pair of book ends, a book and a beautiful bouquet of flowers as tokens of their esteem and affection for her. Miss Stratton leaves Saturday evening for Trenton, N. J., where she has been called by the national headquarters of the Y. W. C. A. to take charge of a new branch started there.

WE MODERNS CLUB

We Moderns Club met at the home of Mrs. Virgil Shobe, 2930 North Twenty-eighth street, last Thursday night. It was a strictly business meeting. It was decided that every third meeting of the club will be a social meeting, when the members will entertain their husbands. Mesdames Alice Jones and Josephine Goodlett were admitted as new members. Luncheon was served by the hostess. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Goodlett.

RETIRED FROM BUSINESS

Mrs. H. J. Crawford and Sons, who have conducted a ladies' and gent's furnishing store on North Twenty-fourth street, for several years, wish to announce to their many friends and patrons that they have sold out their stock and gone out of business.

THE LAKE THEATRE EMPLOYS MANY NEGROES

If all the North Side merchants and firms, who have a large patronage among our race, employed our people in the same ratio as the new Lake theatre does there would be no just ground for complaint. The Lake theatre has eleven regular employes. Of this number seven, more than half, are colored. Not only this, but ever since the new Lake opened it has carried an average of ten inches a week of advertising in The Monitor and until its suspension it carried weekly space in The New Era. There are Twenty-fourth street merchants who neither employ colored help nor purchase an inch of advertising in race publications. These are the ones for "The Civic League"—whoever he is—to talk about boycotting and not those who are giving our people reasonable recognition in the matter of employment and patronage.

PETERSEN'S BAKERIES

"My! This is what I call good lemon pie. It reminds me of the kind of lemon pie my mother used to make and she was an expert on lemon pies. I can hardly believe that this came from a bakery."

"But it did, my dear, from Petersen's Lake street bakery." This is from an actual conversation which occurred in an Omaha home, after its owner, seeing the ad of the Petersen bakeries in The Monitor had bought one of their lemon pies.

He's a regular customer now not only for lemon pies but the other fine products of the Petersen's bakeries. And you, too, will get the habit if you buy goods from Petersen's.

OLD FOLKS HOME

Sunday services were conducted by the Rev. Messrs. Davis and Steele, and were largely attended. All inmates of the home are very well. Father Henderson is improving nicely.

The Rev. H. W. Botts of Lincoln was a visitor at the home. Donations for the month of February included the following: Mrs. Dodson, one jar of fruit; Mrs. Fox, of Benson, two jars of tomatoes, one jar of fruit; Mr. William Murphy, ham and cakes; Mrs. A. Jackson, two jars of tomatoes and six glass of jelly.

LINCOLN NOTES

Mr. Frank Malone suffered a stroke of paralysis Sunday night after returning home from church. It rendered him speechless. His condition is yet serious.

A. L. Wilson continues to be quite ill at his home at Twenty-first and

M streets.

Rev. H. W. Botts spent last week with his brother, Dr. W. F. Botts, at Omaha.

Covenant and communion services were enjoyed by a goodly number of the members at Mount Zion Baptist church Sunday.

Six young folks from Mount Zion Baptist junior choir sang for Rev. H. A. Wolcott and his congregation at First Baptist church, white, Sunday night. They were highly commended.

Mrs. Mayme Griffin entertained the Utopian Art club at her home last Thursday night. A covered dish luncheon will be given Thursday night, March 17th.

Cornhusker Lodge No. 579 gave a big dance in Rosewild hall last Thursday night, and it is said that about two hundred or more persons were in attendance. Stone's orchestra of Kansas City furnished the music and a big time was had by all.
