MOVEMENT FOR RACE HOSPITAL

There is a movement under way to establish a colored hospital in Omaha. It is prompted by the desire to create a race enterprise where colored girls can obtain nurse training and the physicians a greater latitude for research work. When established it is proposed to have the rates so very reasonable that they will allow all to get the very best of hospital care without appealing to the charities of the community.

GRAND ALL-ARTIST MUSICAL

Miss Cora E. Alexander of Colorado Springs, Colo., sweet soprano of national reputation is appearing in grand recital at St. John's A. M. E. church Friday, April 22nd, 8:30 p. m. It will benefit the St. John's A. M. E. Church Building Fund. Miss Dorothy Allen, accompanist (advanced pupil of Mrs. Florentine Pinkston) assisting on the program. The following are the artists: Mrs. Donna

Perry Thomas, pianist and radio artist; Master Lawrence Burnett, violinist of exceptional ability. OLD FOLKS' HOME

Mrs. Anna Humphrey visited the home Sunday. Visitors are welcome. Sunday services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Steel. Visitors attending the home during the month totaled 15. All inmates of the home are in good health.

HUNTER'S SERENADERS AT DREAMLAND HALL

Hunter's Serenaders, red-hot from a successful winter tour, will make their first appearance here, since the holidays, when they will play a dance at Dreamland hall, Monday, April 11th. They have increased their orchestra and added several new features. Homer C. Beebe, baritone entertainer of Little Club, New Orleans, will appear with them. They are leaving April 17 for their spring tour so this is the last chance to hear these peppy jazz-hounds for several months.

GAYETY THEATRE

Opening Sunday at the Gayety theatre are Carrie Finnell and her red-headed blonde. The chorus of sixteen titian-haired girls with model-esque forms has attracted wide attention.

Miss Finnell is celebrated for her golden tresses, the symmetry of her $100,000 limbs and for her adept interpretation of the shimmy dance, at which she claims to be Gilda Gray's nearest rival.

Three women principals with outstanding physical charms are in the cast. These are Jessie MacDonald, the personality girl; Mickey Reed, peppy soubrette, and Baby Fields, attractive ingenue.

Benny Moore is one of the most popular comedians in burlesque. Nat Fields, I. J. Irving and Eddie Butler are all capable entertainers.

No expense has been spared to supply scenery and costumes to match the exceptional talent of the performers in the show.

OMAHA BRANCH N. A. A. C. P.

The Omaha Branch of the N. A. A. C. P. held its regular monthly meeting Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the North Side Branch of the Y. W. C. A., with M. L. Hunter presiding. Routine business was dispatched and certain important matters were referred to the Executive committee for appropriate action. An adjourned Executive committee was held Tuesday night at the home of the president at which Henry W. Black, chairman, presided. Plans were perfected for the mass meeting to be held next Wednesday night at St. John's A. M. E. Church at which Walter White, one of the national secretaries will be the speaker. Reports from the grievance committee and other committees to which had been referred certain local matters were received.
