SOUTH SIDE DOCTOR BECOMES BENEDICT

Dr. Stephen B. Northcross and Lila Frances Webber were married last Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at 2430 Seward St., by Rev. J. Adams of the Omaha district. The bride was given away by her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Landrum. The bridesmaid was Mrs. Hattie E. Adams. A bridal luncheon was served in the evening to friends of the couple.

Dr. Northcross recently purchased the estate of Mr. Simmons in the Jetter addition, 5310 South Thirtieth street. This was given to the bride as a present.

The couple will be at home to their friends at 5310 South Thirtieth street from now on.

NATIONAL "Y" SECRETARY WILL VISIT OMAHA

Mrs. Cordella Winn, national secretary of the Y. W. C. A. in charge of colored work in cities will visit Omaha this week in the interest of the North Side Branch of the Y. W.

C. A. All day Tuesday she will interview committees and the board of management. Wednesday at 8 p. m. she will receive the public in general. The position of executive secretary of the North Side Branch is now unfilled. Miss Ruth O. Collins, secretary of the Girl's Reserves, in the opinion of several of the persons interested in Y. W. C. A. work, is the logical person for the position. She has lived and worked among us for two years and she has made a record for herself that is creditable. The young people find in her a true friend and Christian adviser. She is a graduate of Coe college and formerly instructor in the English department of the Texas college, Tyler, Texas.

STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN!

The Texas Social club will hold its first meeting at the residence of Mrs. L. C. Clark, 2807 Burdette street, Wednesday, April 20th. All natives of Texas are invited.

ENTERTAIN AT MISSIONARY TEA

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Philip's Church entertained at a beautifully appointed missionary tea at the residence of Mrs. John A. Smith, 2511 North Twenty-fifth street, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. E. V. Shaylor, wife of the bishop of the diocese, delivered a helpful address for Mrs. Brook, diocesan president of the auxiliary, who was to be the speaker, but was detained at home on account of illness. Mrs. Traver, diocesan united thank offering treasurer, gave a very interesting talk explaining the united thank offering of the women of the Church all over the world. A silver offering was taken, which will be given to the Church as the Easter offering of the auxiliary.

EASTER BALL AT DREAMLAND

The annual Easter ball will be given as usual at Dreamland hall, Easter Monday, April 18th.

"PRINCE ALI" AT LAKE

Mystic Who Opens Engagement Sunday Is Expected to Pack House Each Night

"Prince Ali," the great Hindu Prophet, will be the attraction at the Lake theatre for seven days, starting Sunday, April 17.

"Prince Ali" comes here highly recommended as the greatest seer and mind reader that has ever appeared in this country. He has just recently completed successful engagements in the Grand Central theatre in St. Louis and the Garden theatre in Kansas City and Downtown theatre of Omaha.

Prince Ali will answer any question pertaining to the past, present and future. In answering questions there is no hesitancy on his part and he answers them with lightning speed.

Prince Ali is a graduate of the mystic school of India, which is located at Simla.

Prince Ali is assisted in his work by K. M. Shah Barbar, of Persia. Mr. Barbar, is a graduate of Columbia University, New York, and also the Mystic school in India.

Prince Ali's company is entirely different than the usual mind reading acts, besides answering questions, he carries entertainers with his company to diversify the entertainment. Lon Voy, formerly of the Rose Marie company that played in Chicago, will sing the "Song of India," and an excellent dancer is also carried with the company.

Prince Ali will appear and answer questions at both afternoon and evening performances Sunday.

A special matinee for ladies only will be held Thursday at 3 p. m. at which women can ask any question that they desire.

The usual picture program will be shown in conjunction with Prince Ali.

GAYETY THEATER

Gladys Clark, a blonde ingenue with appealing dark eyes, is one of the star performers of the "Round the Town" show which opens a week's engagement at the Gayety theater Sunday. Miss Clark sings capably, dances cleverly and wears stunning costumes with an original style.

Another burlesque favorite, Fred Falls Binder, is the principal comedian with the show. He is well known as the little Hebrew with the nervous hands and feet, and his work is characterized by its individuality.

Thelma Hane, saucy brunette with a boyish bob, and Ruby DeMilo, dashing soubrette with a charm all her own, are other features of the show, while the Smith sisters, Pearl and Gladys, dainty entertainers, and a group of pretty, shapely chorus girls, complete the cast of women.

A quartet of singers, dancers and comedians, Billy Kelly, Jack LeDuc, Pat McCarthy and Jean Houston, do their share to make the production one of the speediest and most enjoyable to visit Omaha this season.

Novel and scenic settings and unusual lighting effects make the eighteen scenes in the show a veritable kaleidoscope of color and charm, while costuming has been done also upon an elaborate scale. Clever lines and a series of humorous situations add to the quality of the attraction. The Generous Model will appear every night, and there will be a special midnight show Saturday night.
