WAITERS ENTERTAIN WIVES' CLUB

The Waiters' Wives' Art and Social club was delightfully entertained at a formal party by their husbands, last Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Lones, 3234 Evans street. The early evening was spent with cards and dancing. After this a lovely buffet supper was served. The table decorations were fresh flowers and a basket of Easter lilies made of candy.

"Come, therefore, and I will advertise thee what these people shall do."—Num. 24:14.

HELPING A HOMELESS BOY

Readers of The Monitor will recall reading in the issue of February 4th the story of the homeless little boy who was saved from the streets. On November 24th, by the kindness of friends, he was placed in Father Flanagan's home for boys. We are indeed glad to inform the readers of The Monitor that the good work is steadily going on. The fourth month's tuition has been paid by the same means. Here is a list of the generous-hearted people who so willingly helped in giving one little lad a chance:

Mrs. Herbert Wiggins, Mrs. W. S. Metcalf, Mrs. E. Jenkins, Mrs. Marie Lecoque, Mrs. Lucille Henderson, Mrs. F. L. Barnett, Mrs. Alice M. Smith, Mrs. Edith Reese, Mrs. M. D. Scott, Mrs. Russel Taylor, Mrs. F. S. Perkins, Mrs. Louise Scott, Mrs. S. B. Canty, Mrs. Isaac Bailey, Mrs. Dumas James, Mrs. Jasper Brown, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Dixon, Mrs. Young, Mrs. Lula Lewis, Mrs. Y. Logan, Mr. Allen Jones.

An excellent report has been received. He is studying to be in the band.

THE MEDICAL AUXILIARY

The Medical Auxiliary met April 12th, with Mrs. D. W. Gooden, 2211 Cuming street. The president, Mrs. L. E. Britt, called the report from the Easter group. Mrs. J. H. Hutten reported a basket was being prepared for the Old Folk's Home, and flowers would be sent to the hospitals. Mrs. A. A. Foster being indisposed Mrs. C. H. Singleton offered to assist Mrs. Hutten and Mrs. Williamson with the baskets. The auxiliary was pleasantly surprised with a gift of 12 tiny garments for the "Dorcas Box" from Mrs. Alice Smith, with a letter stating she had read of their plans to do some wonderful and much needed work among our group and she was sending a small gift for the "Dorcas Box," asking that they accept it with her very best wishes for great success. The auxiliary accepted the gift in the spirit it was sent and the president asked the secretary to write Mrs. Smith a note of appreciation. The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. J. H. Hutten on May 10th.

ADAMS' ORCHESTRA IS BUSY WITH ENGAGEMENTS

Adams' orchestra is in great demand these days and is kept busy filling engagements in and out of the city. The orchestra has a regular engagement certain nights at Keep's dancing academy. Saturday night they filled an engagement at Norfolk, Neb., returning home Sunday noon to play at Keep's Sunday night. Monday and Tuesday night they filled engagements at Marysville, Kansas, returning to Omaha on Wednesday morning to play at the Bohemian hall Wednesday night. They left Thursday to fill two engagements at Norfolk.

ST. PHILIP'S MEN'S CLUB HOLDS MEETING

A largely attended meeting of St. Philip's Men's club was held last Thursday night at the residence of Mr. George Watson, 2714 North Twenty-eighth avenue. Dr. W. W. Peebles presided. A scholarly and instructive paper on "The History of the Church from Apostolic Times" was read by Dr. Craig Morris, in which he showed the equality of the Apostles, and disproved the supremacy of St. Peter. He maintained the thesis that the subsequent claim to supremacy of the See of Rome, which was a late development, was based upon a primacy of honor, but not of inherent right or divine appointment. The paper showed wide reading and careful preparation. The next regular meeting will be held May 11th, at the residence of Mr. William G. Haynes.

"SQUARE SEVEN" IS HIGHLY ENDORSED

The "Square Seven" ticket in the city election, composed of Mayor Dahlman, Dunn, Hopkins, Marcell, Noyes, Koutsky, and Hummel are being highly endorsed in every section of the city, by representatives of business and union labor and by practically every sect and creed.

Frank Howell, prominent Omaha attorney, recently said that the "Square Seven" should be elected because "they are progressive; stand for sound and good government; efficiency in handling the city's business; and because they believe in a square deal for every citizen."

Mr. Howell in his statement, endorsing the "Square Seven" said that Omaha has one of the finest police departments in the country and that there is little crime in Omaha in comparison with other cities.

Irving Baxter also highly endorsed the "Square Seven." He said as a result of the work of the six present commissioners on the "Square Seven" ticket, taxes have been cut in Omaha, saving the people of Omaha hundreds of thousands of dollars.

"Everyone of these seven men are experienced in running the city," said Mr. Baxter, "so why change them. Omaha is a well-governed city; we have clean streets; good pavement; good parks and drives; a good police department and low taxes. There is no need for a change and I hope the whole seven are elected. That is the way to reward men for good services rendered in administering the affairs of the city."

The election is May 3rd. Every man and woman should go to the polls and aid in returning these men to office.

GAYETY THEATRE

Diversity of entertainment characterizes the "Good Little Devils" show, which comes to the Gayety theater Sunday for a week's engagement.

Features of the show are two distance classes of comedy, many varieties of dancing, from soft shoe to buck and wing; both vocal and instrumental musical specialties, including a male quartet, and an unusual pleasing array of feminine beauty in a setting quite attractive from a scenic and costuming standpoint.

Bobby Wilson, eccentric comedian, and Pauline Russell, the siren of burlesque, are the featured players. Miss Russell is a beauty with a vivid personality and a performer of marked ability.

Reggie White, a nifty acrobatic dancer; Loretta Lee, alluring sourette, and Dolly LaSalle, dainty, dimpled, dancing ingenue, complete the cast of women principals, while Fred Wilson, master of several musical instruments; Jack Harrington, buck and wing hooper, and Ed Griffin, ballad singer, are in the male support.

The chorus is composed of pretty and shapely girls who have been thoroughly schooled in a number of intricate dancing routines and who provide an interesting background for the display of the extraordinary talent which is part of the "Good Little Devils."

Sam Reider, manager, promises Gayety patrons another midnight show and frolic on Saturday, following success of the two which have been staged previously. An extra added feature will be "The Girl in the Fan."
