NOTICE

To My Many Friends: I want to thank you for $710 clear profit from my benefit dance given at Roseland Gardens, July 11. I also wish to apologize for the necessary substitute in orchestras, which was forced upon me by the Tracy Brown Oklahomans after they had promised to play for me. Again, I thank you for your support. Respectfully, CLARENCE DESDUNES.

FREMONT PASTOR HONORED

St. James A. M. E. church at Fremont, Nebraska, as to our group, occupies a strategic position. It is the only Negro church institution accommodating our people living at and in the environs of Waterloo, Valley, Schuyler and Fremont. The Rev. W. S. Metcalf, Collector of Weights and Measures at Omaha, is pastor. Because of distinguished services rendered the congregation at Fremont, the colored population there, last Tuesday night, paid their pastor a very unique and exceptional "service of appreciation." They organized a pilgrimage at Fremont and came by auto to Omaha as a surprise party to Rev. Mr. Metcalf. They arranged a literary program which was rendered at the pastor's residence on arrival. They brought from Fremont an exceptionally prepared menu, including ices and sweetmeats, which was served at the conclusion of the program. They also presented to their pastor and wife a considerable purse. Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Metcalf have been in the pastorate at Fremont one year, and are now arranging to report their labors at the annual conference which convenes at Kansas City, Mo., September 7th. It was a fine bit of encouragement on the part of the church to thus inspire their pastor at this time. Fremont holds among its membership quite a few Nebraska pioneers. Of this number, perhaps Mr. Thomas Watts, 96 years of age, is the best known.

N. A. A. C. P. NOTES

The Omaha branch of the N. A. A. C. P. launched, on Sunday, July 17, a campaign for members, this being the first campaign for membership held under the 1927 executive committee.

The attendance was very small, though interested. Mrs. Anna Banks, of 924 North Twenty-fifth street, became a member and pledged her support in the present campaign. Mr. S. M. Yancy, local musician and member in Zion church choir, furnished a cornet solo, and Miss Idelia Yancy, his niece, accompanied him on the piano. Rev. Russel Taylor, to whom the task had been given of making the principal address, was late, and Mr. H. W. Black, chairman of the executive committee, was substituted.

Adjourned at 5:45 p. m., to meet in Y. W. C. A. August 7, 1927.

AN ARTISTIC SIGN WRITER

It is not generally known that many of the artistic advertising cards and window signs seen in Omaha are the work of an enterprising young colored man, William Harvey. Mr. Harvey, who is 22 years of age, is a native of Ohio, but has been a resident of Omaha for the past nine years. He has been engaged in sign writing for the past three years. Young Harvey studied at Tuskegee. He is anxious to take a course in the Chicago Art Institute in order that he may be fully prepared for commercial art. Harvey is a nephew of S. E. Montgomery.

GREAT ELKS' PICTURE COMING SOON TO THE LAKE THEATRE

For more than a year, a picture, dedicated to American Elksdom, was in making at the F. B. O. studio in Hollywood. Most of the time was spent in preparing and about three months in filming. But at last this great picture was completed.

The title of the picture is "Moulders of Men," and it is coming to the Lake Theatre July 30. It is preceded by the most glowing reports from every town in which it has already shown. It is a picture that will thrill you to the tips of your fingers, a picture that no real American should fail to see.

John Chapman Hilder, nationally known as the managing editor of the Elks' Magazine, wrote the original story, and Dorothy Yost adapted it for the screen.

Ralph Ince, one of the most brilliant directors in filmdom, considers this picture his best effort to date. This is high praise from a man of his experience and ability. The central figure, a wealthy Elk, who is typical of the finest principles of the famous organization, is played by Conway Tearle, an ideal selection for the part.

Margaret Morris, gorgeously beautiful feminine star, plays opposite Tearle as a newspaper writer. Frankie Darro has the part of a crippled boy whose health and shattered limb are restored through the kindly efforts of Tearle and his organization.

ELK NEWS

The Elks wish to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Lee Washington on the birth of a fine baby girl.

Mrs. Rebecca Price has returned from a short visit in Denver, Colo.

Mrs. Nettie McDonald, daughter and mother, left for Minneapolis, Minn., Tuesday, where they expect to remain in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. William Woods celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Sunday, July 17, by giving an open house to their friends from 3 to 10 p. m., and was accorded by many, who came and went at intervals. Mr. and Mrs. Woods were graciously congratulated by their friends. Many valuable presents were received. Light refreshments were served by Mrs. O. Ferguson and Miss Ferguson. Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. J. D. Lewis and daughter, Lorraine, of Omaha, Neb.; Mrs. Lillian Coleman of St. Paul, Minn.; Mrs. Elmira Conley of Chicago, Ill., who is an aunt of the couple. A program was rendered at intervals for the amusement of guests by Miss Ferguson and Mrs. O. W. Ferguson, and others. Mr. and Mrs. Woods, may you live long.

Remit for The Monitor.

C. F. Walker was instantly killed in an automobile accident on the Beatrice road about 11 miles south of the city, Friday night, while enroute to the Elks' picnic at Beatrice. Mrs. Frank Swaingan was severely cut and bruised and is now confined in the hospital. Mrs. McClanahan, Mrs. Osborne and a boy escaped with minor injuries.

Several minor automobile accidents were reported as happening to and from the picnic at Beatrice last Friday night.

Mrs. Susie Trent of Omaha was in the city last Sunday.

The funeral of C. F. Walker was held in Castle, Roper and Matthews funeral parlor, Sunday at 2:30 p. m. Rev. I. B. Smith preached. The Elks turned out in full force. The body was taken to Topeka, Kan., for burial.

Mrs. J. D. Lewis and daughter, Lorraine, of Omaha, and Mrs. Lillian Coleman of St. Paul, Minn., were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Woods and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Johnson several days.

Mrs. Elmira Conley of Chicago is visiting her nieces, Mrs. Lizzie Woods, Mrs. Maud Johnson, Mrs. Vashti Mosby and Mrs. Cora Thomas. Mrs. Conley is quite aged, but very active.

Mother Margaret Brown is on the sick list.

Services were held in all churches as usual last Sunday, though slightly attended by their members.

Rev. H. W. Botts and his members of Mount Zion are arranging for a 4th of August celebration in Electric Park. Bills are out giving special features of the affair.

W. W. MOSLEY.

The Altar Guild of St. Philip's Episcopal Church will give a lawn social Monday night at the residence of its president, Mrs. Augustus Hicks, 3012 Miami street.

Mr. A. L. Anderson is quite ill at the University Hospital.
