ENTERTAINS AT DELIGHTFUL SURPRISE PARTY

The Misses Louise and Lavina Scott and Catharine A. Williams were the promoters of a complete and delightful surprise party in honor of Miss Sarah Brown, daughter of Mr. Josiah Brown, 1514 Burdette street, on Tuesday evening. Sarah has been so willing and gracious about playing for the "Gang," as a group of our younger folks call themselves, that they took this means of expressing their appreciation. A very pretty necklace was presented to the guest of honor. Several out-of-town guests were present. About fifty young folks attended.

BECOMES ATTACHE OF GOVERNMENT HOSPITAL

Boston, Mass.—Dr. J. W. Watkins has been appointed as an attache of the government hospital in New England.

Dr. Watkins, a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh Medical School, class of 1926, and a native of that city, was sent here to the Chelsea Naval Hospital, following a competitive examination for the position.

CULTURAL CENTER NOTES

Boy Scout Troop 86 of the Cultural Center made a record at Camp Gifford of which the troop and the Center are equally proud. Of the four boys who went down to Camp Gifford for the ten-day camping period, one, David Biddles, brought away the second highest honors which the Camp has to award, the Athletic medal. His scout belt records 18 honors, which total 86 points. These were awarded for swimming, for improvement in swimming, for table manners, cleanliness, obedience, cheerfulness, clean athletics, athletic prowess, amateur night, for the best stunt on amateur night, and for the best team of dishwashers.

It is of added interest that this was young Biddles' first year at the Camp, whereas first honors went to a boy who was there for the fifth consecutive year. Scout Headquarters are recommending Biddles for assistant scoutmaster.

Parents and friends who visited the boys last Sunday included Mrs. Alice Coyle, Mrs. Manie Johnson, Mrs. L. Moore and daughter, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Dodson, Miss Gazena Love and Miss Annie Elleby.

Daniel L. Corke is scoutmaster of this troop and Martin Thomas is assistant scoutmaster.

Mrs. M. L. Rhone, director of the Center, takes September for her vacation, after a busy summer.

Mrs. Rhone and her baby son will be joined by Rev. Mr. Rhone a week later, and will then go together to Kansas City, to attend the Nebraska Annual Conference of the African Methodist church.

During September, both playgrounds of the Center will continue active, under Mrs. Lovetta Busch and Mr. C. A. Stewart, and in October the fall schedule of indoor activities will be resumed.

ENTERTAINS FOR VISITORS

Mrs. James Griffin, proprietress of the La France Cafe, entertained at a banquet Friday night, August 19th, in honor of Mrs. L. Black of Los Angeles, Mrs. D. J. Howard of Seattle, Wash., Misses Haines and E. Hunt, teachers of Kansas City, Kan. Covers were laid for sixteen. The decorations were old rose and green.

The menu consisted of fruit cocktails, fried spring chicken, potato baskets, creamed peas, stuffed tomato salad Parker House rolls and relish, chocolate ice cream and a novelty ice cream of roses, lilies and carnations. Rosebuds were given for souvenirs. Two waiters were in attendance.

ENTERTAINS CALIFORNIANS

Mrs. Mary Ann Knox and daughter, Bitha, of Los Angeles, who have been house guests of Mrs. B. Phoenix, 2415 Hamilton street, for the weekend, left for their home Tuesday night. Mrs. Phoenix entertained at a dinner party Sunday evening. Covers were placed for fifteen. A very pleasant evening was spent talking over old times, Mrs. Knox being a life-long friend of her hostess. Mrs. Knox was delighted with Omaha and would liked to have remained longer.

BARS RACE CHILDREN

St. Louis, Mo.—More than 75,000 children of all ages were entertained at a picnic given by Mayor Victor J. Miller at Forrest Park Highlands. The picnic was given supposedly for the "city children," but every Negro boy and girl who sought to indulge in the outing was turned away, with the only reason given that "Negroes could not attend."

NEW DIAMOND RUSH IN SOUTH AFRICA

London.—Only about 5,000 people are participating in the rush to the new diamond fields at Wolwedind, Transvaal, as compared with 25,000 in the recent rush to Grasfontein.
