WOMEN'S MISSIONARY CONVENTION IS HELD AT KANSAS CITY

The seventh annual convention of the Conference Branch Women's Mite Missionary Society of the Nebraska Conference over which Bishop Carey presides, and of which Rev. W. T. Osborne and Rev. John Adams are Presiding Elders, was held September 21-25, at Kansas City, Kan. While the ministers of the annual conference were in session at the First Church, the women were having enthusiastic meetings at the Christian Church.

The meeting was opened with Mrs. R. E. Knight, the president, in the chair.

The reports of all local societies showed marked improvement over previous years. The reports were neatly made out on report blanks furnished by the executive board of the parent Women's Mite Missionary Society. All reports showed increase in soul saving and in finance.

Much praise is due the women for adhering to that part of the law which says: "All dues and penny collections are sacred and must not be used for any other purpose." This money belongs to the missionary treasurer, all of which must be reported at the district and annual conferences.

The program was instructive throughout. One outstanding feature of the convention was the delegation of young people. This is the first time that department has been represented.

The Branch raised this year for missionary work $1,015.33, $507.66 to foreign work, $507.66 to remain in the district for home work.

The Omaha district received the banner for the largest amount raised and for the greatest number of converts.

St. John, Omaha, Mrs. M. Metcalf, reported $207, an increase of $107 over last year's report. First Church, Kansas City, Kan., Mrs. J. B. Isaacs, president, reported $200 missionary money.

Among the prominent visitors was Mrs. E. Wilson, president of the Colorado Branch Missionary Society, who delivered an encouraging address. Mrs. Osborne, editor of the Missionary Recorder, spoke on the necessity and importance of this paper, encouraging conference-wide subscription because of the need of each woman to know what is going on at different points of work.

The delegates elected to the Quadrennial Convention at Columbus, O., were: Mrs. Rosa E. Knight, Lincoln; Mrs. Hattie E. Adams, Omaha; Mrs. Ella Whiteside, Atchison, Kan.; Mrs. Mattie Morton, Leavenworth; Mrs. Horsey, Kansas, and Mrs. Lossie Saunders of Kansas City, Kan. The president and all officers were unanimously re-elected to serve another year.

The slogan this year is: "Every woman an intercessor; a family altar in every home; every woman a soul winner."

MRS. H. E. ADAMS, Corresponding Secretary.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Mrs. Ada Smith has been appointed publicity chairman of the publicity committee of the North Side Branch Young Women's Christian Association, in place of Mrs. Evelyn Singleton, who has declined that position on account of having to leave the city in a short time to be away for an indefinite period. A campaign of systematic advertising will be begun at once, and many new plans will be carried to a close before the first of the year.

The regular night school, which is being conducted at the Branch on Monday and Wednesday evenings, is progressing as well as can be expected. Many old students have registered and are anxious to get into the regular system of study once more. High school subjects are also being offered to those who wish to further that type of work.

Each committee has held its regular monthly meeting and have their reports prepared for the board of management meeting, which will be held Saturday evening, October 15, at the Branch.

The art classes are convening for the first time this week. The ladies are very happy to have Mrs. A. Jeffers as their instructor again this fall. The other classes have all held their first meetings and the prospects for the coming season are very promising.

Choral Club
A call is being made to all the young people of the city who are desirous of becoming a member of the Choral Club to be organized at the North Side Branch. It is the desire of the Branch officials to make this group a magnetic drawing card of this season and seasons to come. Very excellent instruction is to be given and satisfaction guaranteed. Will all young people interested please call in person or telephone the North Side Branch at 2306 North Twenty-second street, Web. 1539?
