AN IMPORTANT WORD TO SUBSCRIBERS.

The postal regulations require that for newspapers to be sent through the mails subscriptions must be paid in advance. A reasonable time, thirty days, is allowed for renewals. At the expiration of this period, where subscriptions are not renewed, the paper must be stopped. If this is not done, postal privileges are denied the publication. Those, therefore, who desire to continue receiving The Monitor must see to it that their subscriptions are paid, as the law requires, in advance. Statements are being sent to all those who owe, or our collector will call—and unless your subscription is paid we will be compelled to cut off your paper which, of course, we do not want to do.

We, as publishers, MUST comply with the law or pay the penalty.

TRANSPARENT GLASS

Senator Glass of Virginia, with the consistent inconsistency of southerners, is insistent upon the enforcement of the Eighteenth amendment, and wants federal agents sent into the different states to enforce it, but is equally insistent that the Fourteenth and Fifteenth amendments shall not be enforced in the southern states. His line of argument by which he justifies, or attempts to justify, his inconsistent position, of which he seems sublimely unconscious, is far from illuminating or convincing and one wonders how a learned southern senator could seriously submit such speciousness and delude himself into thinking it an argument. Southern myopia on the race question explains it.

Senator Glass overlooks the fact that the Fourteenth and Fifteenth amendments are equally as much a part of the Constitution of the United States as is the Eighteenth, and as such should be enforced. Of course, they have been nullified, but this nullification is wrong and indefensible. Loyal Americans should stand for the enforcement of the Constitution. Senator Glass is a nullificationist of the same kidney as those who in other sections oppose the enforcement of the Eighteenth amendment.

The Virginia senator's attitude, though inconsistent, is quite transparent. Some glass is opaque, and some glass is transparent.

NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN

The genial and efficient Charles A. McCloud, of York, Nebraska, is desirous of succeeding himself as Republican National Committeeman, and we see no reason why this laudable ambition should not be gratified. The Monitor knows of no better choice that could be made and wishes Mr. McCloud success. Petitions for his candidacy are being circulated by his friends and ardent supporters.

STILL OUR CHOICE

We have not said anything about it lately, but Walter W. Head of Nebraska is still our choice for the republican nomination for president in 1928. As we have said before, he is not a politician and the politicians may not want him, but he is an astute, level-headed, broad-minded business man, closely in touch with the financial east and the agricultural west. Nebraska is believed to be rather rich in democrats of presidential caliber, why not let the country know that Nebraska has republicans of large presidential dimensions and that Walter W. Head is one of them. Let republican leaders in this state get busy and the next republican president may be Head of Nebraska. Let aside your modesty, gentlemen, go to it and put Nebraska on the map in national republican political circles. It can be done.

LINCOLN NEWS

One of the striking events of the season was a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Copeland, 2400 Holdrege street, in honor of Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Botts, Friday, November 25. Covers were laid for twenty-two persons. The color scheme of pink and gold was carried throughout. One of the unique features of entertainment was the re-echo of the bridal march, which was unexpected by the bride and groom. Seven solos were rendered. After hours of inexpressible joy, everyone departed, assuring their most charming host and hostess of the pleasant evening spent.

Mrs. Carrie Pullen is reported failing in strength at their home, 2000 S street.

Mrs. Mary Layer is reported some better at this time.

Mrs. Rosa Adair was indisposed the past week.

Mrs. Myrtle Jones and Mr. Frank Stepney were married at Council Bluffs, Ia., last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alice Cowens met with a serious accident last Friday night when she was struck by an automobile at 16th and Vine streets, fracturing her right leg and bruising her body considerably. She was crossing the intersection, and seeing an auto coming became confused and got in the path of it. The driver was unable to stop before striking her. Mrs. Cowens is confined at St. Elizabeth's hospital doing as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Jennie Johnson, wife of the late Jack Johnson, passed away at their home, 1900 Vine street, at 10 a. m. Tuesday. Mrs. Johnson had suffered a stroke some weeks ago, and had been failing ever since. Funeral arrangements later.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Thomas of Omaha spent Thanksgiving in the city.

Union services of the three churches were held in Mount Zion church Thanksgiving morning. The three pastors, Rev. S. H. Johnson of Newman M. E., Rev. M. C. Knight of Quinn Chapel, and Rev. H. W. Botts of Mount Zion. Rev. S. H. Johnson was preacher of the hour and delivered a fine sermon. Unfortunately, only a scattering representation of the churches were present.

Cornhusker Lodge No. 579, I. B. P. O. E. of W. gave their annual ball on last Thursday night in the hall at 1133 M street, which was said to have been well attended and a big success. W. W. MOSELEY.

BACHELOR BENEDICT CLUB GIVES DELIGHTFUL PARTY

One of the prettiest parties of the season was that given Saturday evening by the Bachelor Benedict club, at their beautiful club rooms, 2425 1/2 North Twenty-fourth street. Dancing and cards were the attractions of the evening. At midnight a dainty luncheon was served. The rooms were decorated with the club colors, which added much to the pleasure of the guests.

The outstanding feature of the evening was the drawing for a $5.00 gold piece, which was won by Miss Clara Westbrook. Dr. C. H. Singleton, director of activities, reports that the affair was a financial as well as a social success.

The executive committee of the club is working out the details for the whist tournament, to determine the best whist players in the city. The details will be published within the near future. All persons desiring to take part are requested to register at either the Peoples' Drug Store, Killingsworth and Price barber shop, or with Dr. Clarence H. Singleton.

A Ladies' Auxiliary of the club will be organized within the near future to assist the men in their social activities.
