HONORS BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Miss Alma Smith (University of Omaha student) gave a delightful dinner party Saturday evening, November 26, honoring the birthday anniversary of Jose Galusana, Filipino student at the University of Nebraska Medical college. The guests, who were Filipino and Japanese medical students, were David Katsuki, senior; Sanford Katsuki, junior; Kyuro Okazaki, sophomore, and Serapion Lestema, freshman. Mrs. Margaret B. Shotwell (white) generously contributed her attractive dining room, best silver and table linen for the occasion. She also assisted Miss Smith in choosing a real oriental dinner for her guests. The favors were folders of French stationery in blue, lavender and tan. Following the dinner, the guests were entertained at a theatre party at the World theatre.

DETROIT RECTOR IS WELCOME OMAHA VISITOR

The Rev. Fr. Everard W. Daniel, rector of St. Matthew's church, Detroit, Mich., was celebrant at the 7:30 a. m. eucharist at the Church of St. Philip the Deacon, Sunday morning, and preacher at the sung eucharist at 11 o'clock, when Father Williams, rector of the parish, was celebrant. Father Daniel also addressed the Church school.

His sermon, which was based upon the miracle of the feeding of the five thousand as recorded in the Gospel according to St. John, was scholarly, thought-compelling and inspiring and made a deep impression upon the large congregation present.

The speaker stressed the inclusiveness of the Gospel, and therefore by its nature the incompatibility of any spirit of nationalism with the Christian religion. The same two classes who confronted our Lord, narrow nationalists and those under economic pressure who are chiefly concerned with material things, are with us today, with their various gradations, misinterpreting, misinterpreting, and misapplying the religion of Jesus Christ, which emphasizes brotherhood and the motivating power of love. Christianity has given new value to human life, banished slavery and raised the status of womanhood. As a people none owe more to Christianity than do our people and none would suffer more if its power and influence wane. The salvation and the hope of humanity depend wholly upon the Cross of Christ, which stands for love, joy, peace and goodwill for all God's children everywhere.

Sunday evening, at the request of Fr. Williams, Fr. Daniel baptized Henrietta Ellen, infant daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John A. Singleton, whose marriage he had solemnized in St. Philip's church, New York, ten years ago. Mrs. Singleton, nee Daisy Goring, having been one of his Sunday school children. Another interesting feature of this service was the fact that the godmother, Mrs. Charles T. Smith, formerly of Brooklyn, N. Y., was at one time a parishioner of Fr. Daniel's.

Among other interesting features and surprises of Fr. Daniel's visit to Omaha was his meeting here of Mr. J. Frank Smith, formerly of Brooklyn, N. Y., now senior warden of St. Philip's, Omaha, and whom he had not seen for twenty-one years.

The Detroit rector left for his home Monday, after an all too brief visit here, where he made a most favorable and delightful impression upon all who had the privilege of meeting him.

METHODISTS HOLDING QUARTERLY CONFERENCES

The Rev. John Adams, presiding elder of the Omaha district, who has been attending conferences in the South, is expected home Saturday to conduct quarterly conference in St. John's A. M. E. church, Twenty-second and Willis avenue, the Rev. John H. Grant, D. D., pastor. Services will be held throughout the day, with the administration of the Lord's Supper at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. All churches of the connection and friends are invited and expected to attend the services.

Adams Chapel, a mission at 1205 South Thirteenth street, which was formerly in charge of the Rev. Robert Ewing, was reopened in October in charge of Jesse Glover, a licentiate and candidate for the ministry from St. John's. This work is making encouraging progress. The Sunday School has an enrollment of 60. Fifteen persons have been added to the membership of the church. Among the active workers are Mrs. Mimms, who teaches in the Sunday School; Miss Lucile Moore, who gives her services as organist; and Mrs. O'Neal, who has a choir of fifteen girls. In a recent contest between the blues and the reds for Sunday School members, the blues won, the score standing 32 to 27. The blues were treated to ice cream and cake and the reds to beans and cornbread.

The Rev. B. R. Monroe of Atchison, Kan., reports a most enthusiastic quarterly conference held by the Rev. J. W. Johnson of Hiawatha in his church, November 20.

The Rev. B. D. Monroe held quarterly conference at Horton, Kan., Nov. 27, and the Rev. I. B. Smith on the same date at Lincoln for the Rev. M. C. Knight.

HANNIBAL DENTIST VISITS IN THE CITY

Dr. W. C. Conway, dentist of Hannibal, Mo., a former resident of Omaha, paid us a visit and reports that since going to the "Show Me" state he has acquired a wife and has two children. He told of the death of Dr. O. C. Queen, a practicing physician of Hannibal for 35 years. Dr. Conway takes care of Hannibal and Moberly, and states that there are only seven Negro dentists in the entire state, exclusive of St. Louis and Kansas City.
