CULTURAL CENTER ACTIVITIES

Interesting figures are brought out in Mrs. M. L. Rhone's Cultural Center's activities during November, at 2915 R street, South Omaha.

Individuals belonging to clubs or classes at the Center totalled 404, of whom 91 are boys, 135 are girls, and 178 are adults. Of the adults, 70 belong to the Home Improvement club and 40 to the Parent-Teachers association.

Boys' groups include five clubs and five classes, with 76 in clubs and 41 in classes.

Girls' groups include four clubs and nine classes, with 56 girls in clubs and 101 in classes.

A "Be Square" club, recently organized by some of the senior boys and girls, has a four-fold purpose: mental, physical, moral, and social development. The club plans to meet each Tuesday at 7:30. Each meeting will be different, with a social meeting held at the end of the month.

Another interesting group organized during the month under Mr. C. A. Stewart, is the Boys' Brotherhood, which will include groups following different lines of activity. Thirty-five boys between 11 and 16 years are now enrolled. The Brotherhood has a home improvement and religious committees, as well as a drill team, a basket ball team, and a quartet.

CULTURAL CENTER CHRISTMAS PARTIES
