THE TRI-ARTS SOCIETY HOLDS ITS MEETING

The Tri-Arts Society held its usual meeting last Sunday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A.

Discussion of the probable dispensation of disorderly members was the only important business.

Then came the program. Miss Margaret Dallas, chairman of the literary committee, gave the "Ten Commandments for Success. Next, Roy Gustin gave a reading, "My Little Chocolate Soldier Son." Miss Sara Brown played "The Song Is Ended," and as an encore played "Just Once Again." The Misses Ollie Mattison, and Margaret Dallas gave a delightful little skit, entitled "A Musical Romance." Gaitha Pegg gave an interesting talk on Bennett J. Doty in the Foreign Legion. Miss Willa Hays played a piano solo, "The Juba Dance" by N. Dett. Then Miss Catherine Williams, chairman of the musical committee, gave a vocal solo entitled "Just a Memory," and as an encore sang "The Song Is Ended." Willa Hays was her accompanist. Next on the program was John Jackson, who played a ukelele solo entitled "Katinka," and as an encore he played "Me and My Shadow" and "So Tired." This concluded the delightful program, which was fully appreciated by the club body.

SIXTEEN PERSONS GET HARMON AWARDS

ary in Luebo, Congo, West Africa. "Anthony Overton, 62, Chicago, Ill., was given first award in business for his success in organizing and developing the Douglass National bank of Chicago, the Overton Hygienic Manufacturing company, and the Victory Life Insurance company. He is president of all three companies. The second award in business goes to William G. Pearson, 68, of Durham, N. C., for his success in organizing the only fire insurance company and the only bonding company operated by Negroes. He is president of the Bankers' Fire Insurance company, the Southern Fidelity and Surety company, and the Peoples Building and Loan association. Honorable mention was made of Maggie L. Walker, Richmond, Va.; Louis C. Bulloch of Cranford, N. J.; Orlando S. Watts, Palmyra, N. J., and P. B. Young, Norfolk, Va.

James Weldon Johnson, 56, of New York, was granted first award in literature for his book of poems, "God's Trombones," based upon the imaginative creations of the old-time Negro preachers. Second award to Eric Walrond, 29, New York, for his "Tropic Death."

"These awards," stated Dr. George E. Haynes, secretary of the commission, "are designed to give stimulus to creative work through recognition of achievement of national significance."

RE-ELECTED TO STANDING COMMITTEE

At the 61st annual council of the Diocese of Nebraska, held in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Lincoln, Wednesday and Thursday of this week, the Rev. John Albert Williams, rector of the Church of St. Philip the Deacon, was re-elected as a member of the standing committee of the diocese. The standing committee acts as an advisory board to the bishop of the diocese and in case of a vacancy in the episcopate acts as the ecclesiastical authority. It passes upon the election of all bishops. The standing committee consists of three clerical and three lay members. The other members of the committee are Dean McGinley, of Trinity Cathedral; the Rev. William A. Mulligan, rector of Christ church, Beatrice; Messrs. John S. Hedelund and Arthur C. Hancock of Omaha, and Mr. Paul Good of Lincoln.

BIG ROAD SHOW AT THE LAKE STARTING NEXT SUNDAY

Grant and Wilson, famous Paramount record artists in person, will present The Rock Dinah Company, which has been playing over the T. O. B. A. Circuit for the past year. The show has a cast of twenty-three people and among the featured players are Babe Hines, the girl with the golden voice; Johnny Bragg, tap dance artist; also Lackaria White and the famous Creole Chorus from the Cotton Pickers Club of New York City. The company will be here one week and then leave for California, where they are booked solid for several months. This show will be in keeping with the Lake Theatre's policy to present worth while entertainment at all times.
