ENTERTAINS AT DANCING PARTY

Mrs. William Birch Brown, entertained Mrs. John Albert Smith and Mrs. Clarence Harrison Singleton, at a dancing party Friday evening, January 20.

Mrs. Brown's party was the last of a series of entertainments given for Mrs. Singleton before her departure to Michigan where she will visit her daughter, Ernestine, who is attending college there. It also served as a welcome home to Mrs. Smith, who spent the holidays in Kansas City, together with Mr. Smith and their daughter Celestine.

This formal dancing party was a brilliant affair, held at the Bachelor Benedict club rooms. About 100 guests were present. Delicious refreshments were served and many beautiful gowns were worn by the ladies present.

A VETERAN OF THE SERVICE

Police Officer Noah Thomas is the veteran of the department. Appointed on the force in 1895 he has served continuously for 32 years without a mark against his record and therefore outranks all on the force in point of service. He has to his credit many important arrests and bears the reputation of being one of the most efficient and capable men on the force. He is highly esteemed by his superiors and fellow officers. His record is one of which he is justly proud.

MONITOR ADVERTISERS

That enterprising and wide awake firms who appreciate the patronage of our people recognize The Monitor as the medium through which to reach this desirable class of buyers is demonstrated by the growing number and class of our advertisers. Live merchants recognize live newspapers. The Monitor numbers among its advertisers well known and dependable firms which have used our advertising columns for nearly thirteen years. We bespeak the continued patronage of our readers for all the firms who use our columns. Our courteous advertising solicitor, Mr. Dudley Wright, will promptly call on firms and individuals who desire to purchase advertising space.
