Collins and others, was first located on Twenty-eighth and Leavenworth streets. Subsequently it was removed to Thirtieth and Spaulding, then virtually on the outskirts of the city, which has now grown into quite a populous section.

JESSE STONE AND DIXIE RAMBLERS TO BATTLE AT DREAMLAND HALL

A most unique contest will be staged Monday evening, March 5, at Dreamland hall, when the two most popular jazz bands in the middle west, Jesse Stone and his Blue Serenaders, and those Red Hot Dixie Ramblers will meet in a championship battle to decide which is the best.

This promises to be one of the greatest events of the season. Opinions vary—but all concede that both orchestras "can go". Many are betting on the home boys. Come out and root for your favorite band—continuous dancing—no advance in price. Monday evening, March 5 at the Dreamland.

IMPORTANT NEWS ABOUT THE BOY SCOUTS

Each Wednesday evening beginning with February 22nd, the Omaha Scout council will conduct a training class for men who are interested in becoming boy leaders. Any men, readers of this paper, are cordially invited to join that troop if interested in boy work of any kind. The sessions are held from 7:30 to 9:30 in the Medical Arts building, on the second floor and the only expense is 50 cents for a Boy Scout handbook.

On Monday evening, March 5th, every organization and church of the Negro race is invited to send a delegate to Boy Scout headquarters, 209 Neville block at 8:00 p. m. The object of this is to arrange for a meeting to take place some time in the first half of April to meet and listen to Stanley A. Harris, director of interracial work for the national council, Boy Scouts of America.

On Wednesday evening, March 28th, the scoutmasters, assistant scoutmasters and junior assistant scoutmasters are invited to the Medical Arts building auditorium where the training course for that evening will be in charge of Mr. Thomas Keane, director of sea scouting, Boy Scouts of America.

Any man interested in these various meetings please get in touch with Dr. Craig Morris or the local Scout headquarters.

FIRST APPEARANCE IN OMAHA!

Coming! Just back from Europe—Jessie Andrews Zackery of New York City, soprano, in song recital Monday evening, March 19th, at Zion Baptist church at 8 o'clock, presented by St. John A. M. E. and Zion Baptist churches. Rev. A. Wayman Ward, pastor of Shorter church, Denver, says: "Madame Zackery is one of our three greatest singers, I stake my reputation on it and give my unqualified endorsement to her as an artist of first rank." Sponsors for the event are the Trustee Helpers' club of St. John A. M. E. and Zion Baptist churches of which Mrs. Hiram Greenfield and Mrs. W. D. Taylor are the presidents, respectively. Do not fail to attend this concert. No one will be disappointed in the real class of Madame Zackery's program and voice.

The Trustee Helpers' club of St. John A. M. E. church is indeed grateful for the excellent support given their Martha Washington waffle and sausage breakfast, Monday, February 20, at the residence of Mrs. Louisa Strawthers, who was the chairman. They realized over fifteen dollars clear profit and were enabled to pay in full the note of one hundred dollars for the cold water painting of St. John's interior, which the club contracted for Thanksgiving. To all you who helped in any way we extend our sincere thanks. May God bless you.

MRS. HIRAM GREENFIELD, President
MRS. MARTHA T. SMITH, Secretary.

N. A. A. C. P. ITEMS

It seems extremely difficult to get it into the minds of the public that the Omaha branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People meets regularly the first Sunday in each month at the Y. W. C. A., and the third Sunday in each month at some one of the churches. Though these meetings are always announced in our papers time after time, still the time-worn complaint is heard, "I didn't know where the meeting was." This, too, in the face of the fact that for more than three years the association has held the above stated meetings.

The question naturally arises, "Is the Negro of Omaha really concerned about the one organization in all the world that is fighting his battles all over the world?"

Let's get out of this lethargy. Let's make 1928 a banner year in Omaha for the N. A. A. C. P.

The local branch has for its executive committee a most excellent group of men. They have intelligence, experience and stamina. They have decided that so far as lieth within them, Omaha shall no longer be a tail-ender among the cities of its size in Negro population.

Through the awakening of its newly elected chairman of the membership committee, the Rev. P. M. Harris of the South Side, more than 30 have been added since the beginning of the year.

Are you perfectly satisfied with conditions locally? Nationally? Do you have no interest in the betterment of the economic, social, educational and political conditions of our brethren in the South?

If you do, then align yourself with the one organization that is so relentlessly striving against enormous odds for these things. Come to the Y. W. C. A., Twenty-second and Grant streets, Sunday, 4 p. m. and help put over the national program by putting over the part assigned to the local branch. Will you come?

PLEASANT GREEN SUNDAY SCHOOL

Omaha, Neb.—To The Monitor Pub. Co.—Allow me space to speak about the Pleasant Green Sunday school and its activity.

Supt. A. Hamler called the school to order promptly at 9:30 a. m. and each teacher was in his place, and after the regular order of service was observed, the teachers took their places and the lesson from Mark 5: was taught. Text—"Thy faith hath made thee whole."

You should see Mr. S. S. Whitelow and his class, they think they stand at the head of the school as they are the high school boys and girls. Mrs. Smith has one of the best set of boys in church and she feels proud of them.

Mr. C. H. Wilson is one of our new teachers, he has one of the junior classes, and they have great respect for their teacher. Miss Bernice Abernathy teaches the beginners, she loves children. Mrs. Davis is one of the teachers but was sick and, oh, how we did miss her. The class seemed to be at a loss.

Messrs. Nelson and Richie are also teachers that we feel proud of. No task seems to worry them. Mr. Pruett was late, but we forgive him.

Now, I think we have one of the best Sunday schools in the west, we had 159 in school Sunday morning, and still growing. Mr. A. Hamler is one of the best superintendents in the state, and if you don't believe this a visit to our school will convince you. Miss Beatrice Lewis, Reporter.

Miss Lewis is authorized to receive subscriptions for The Monitor in Pleasant Green church.

Ends Your Battery Troubles

The World's Most Powerful Battery Terminal

The J. B. Terminal is better because it makes tighter contacts which prevents burning out globes; makes starting easier and quicker. It works automatically, opens and closes by simply turning the nut. The J. B. Terminal is as far ahead of the old-style terminal as the present day motor car from the "one-lung" horseless buggy, the J. B. Terminal is what you've been waiting for. Though exceptionally low in price, the J. B. Terminal is invaluable for complete battery service and satisfaction.
