MRS. JOSEPH D. LEWIS VISITS LINCOLN

The members of the Order of the Eastern Star were honored by the presence of the worthy grand lecturer, Mrs. Hazel Terry Lewis of Omaha, Neb., Thursday night at a joint meeting of Princess Hatipha and Amaranth chapters.

In the inspirational lecture given the order, the loyal stand for right, the earnest effort and search to illustrate the grandeur of truth and love, was indelibly stamped upon the minds of those present.

Much study and deep interest in the ritualistic work was clearly demonstrated by the absence of notes or books. The worthy grand lecturer proves a valuable acquisition in this capacity to the order, not only because of unerring judgment in intricate problems, but in the fact that there is abiding faith in the principles offered others.

FORMER OMAHANS CELEBRATE THEIR SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Sheridan, Wyo., May 1—(Special to The Monitor by C. J. Powell)—Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Chenault celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Sunday evening, April 29, at their beautiful home in Sheridan Gardens. Both Mr. and Mrs. Chenault are former Omahans, and were married in 1903. Mrs. Chenault, who was Miss Eva Watson, was raised and educated in that city. Mr. Chenault is a native of Kentucky, a fact which is borne out, as his friends say, by his good judgment of Kentucky products. Immediately after their marriage the happy couple established their home in Sheridan, being among the first of our group to settle in this section of the state. An interview with Mrs. Chenault by the writer revealed the fact that she was a maid of honor at the wedding of the Rev. John Albert Williams, editor of The Monitor, and Mrs. Williams, which she recalls as a very brilliant occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Chenault have one son, John Watson, who this year finishes his sophomore medic year at the medical school of the University of Minnesota. The couple were the recipients of many beautiful silver gifts. Among the friends who spent a pleasant evening at their home were Mr. and Mrs. Al Shute, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Newsome, Mr. and Mrs. Al Bell, Miss Virginia Bell, and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Powell.

AVERAGE WEEKLY DEATHS

Washington, D. C.—In many ways the colored population of the city of

New York occupy first rank, when compared with other centers in which there is a considerable Negro population. This even applies to the number of deaths and funerals per week, which accounts for the large number of colored undertakers in "The Mecca." Government statistics show that there is an average of 84 deaths per week among the colored inhabitants of New York City. Chicago and Philadelphia follow with an average of 70 each; New Orleans has a weekly average of 63; Baltimore, 56; Washington, 53; Atlanta, Birmingham, Memphis and St. Louis, 35 each; Detroit, 28; and Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Richmond and Savannah, 21 each.
