CHICAGO SINGER PLEASURES AUDIENCE

Madame Rosalie Tyler, of Chicago, gave a pleasing song recital before an appreciative audience at Pilgrim Baptist church, Monday night. Her program embraced classical numbers and spirituals. She has a good voice, under excellent control, which shows best in the middle register. She graciously responded to several encores. The program was as follows:

- I.
- (a) "Carissima," by Arthur Penn.
- (b) Love Laid His Sleepless Head, by Victor Herbert.
- (c) The Rose You Gave Back To Me, by Raskin.
- II.
- (a) "Song of the Soul," by Joseph Briel.
- (b) "The Kiss," Arditi.
- (c) "Swanee River."
- III.
- (a) "Deep River," H. T. Burleigh.
- (b) "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen."
- (c) "Were You There?"

OMAHA TO HEAR ROLAND HAYES NEXT YEAR

Omaha is to have the long-desired privilege of hearing Roland Hayes early next year. Mrs. Gentry Waldo, president of the Wellesly club and active in the Y. W. C. A. and musical circles, has made definite arrangements for the appearance of this great artist here February 20th, 1929.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

There was a large, enthusiastic and appreciative audience of 90 persons who enjoyed the first Mothers Day program at the North Side Y. W. C. A. vespers, Sunday, May 13, at 4 p. m. All participants on the program acquitted themselves with a decided mark of credit and showed much ability. The youngest participant, Willie Bell of South Side Cultural Center, took the vast audience by storm and was forced to respond by an encore, in the splendid reading of "Mother's Hairpin." Miss Ollie Mattison of the Girl Reserves department, gave a piano solo, which was encored. She demonstrated fine technique and remarkable ease of execution. Mrs. Rosalie Tyler, prima donna of Chicago, was among the distinguished visitors. Fourteen mothers and fourteen daughters were present. They were as follows: Mrs. Anthem A. Foster and daughter Westlene; Mrs. R. K. Laurie and daughter, Mrs. Theresa Mitchell; Mrs. Ludie Scott, Mrs. Yancy; Mrs. V. Brooks and Viola Brooks; Mrs. Herbert Wiggins and Mary Heddy; Mrs. O. D. Frazer and Helen Hunigan; Mrs. H. L. Anderson and Vonceil; Mrs. Lambert and daughter; Mrs. Anderson and Agnes and Estanola; Mrs. Lena Dallas and Margaret; Mrs. Bernice Riggs and Doris; Mrs. Olive Richardson and Ellen; Mrs. A. B. Matthews and Vassie; Mrs. Lewis Artison and June.

The Religious and General Education committee will have charge of the next Vespers, which will be Sunday, May 27, at 4 p. m. This will mark the close of the Vesper services for the summer vacation period. The public is urged to attend and enjoy the wonderful, thrilling and interesting travelogue and convention report given by our acting secretary, Miss Ruth O. Collins, who was the delegate from North Side Branch Y. W. C. A. to the national bi-annual convention held in Sacramento, Cal., on April 14-20, which promises to be brimful of interest. Pack the "Y" building to the porch. Plan now to attend on May 27th.
