THIRTY-FIVE DAYS FOR BOOTLEGGING

Deputy Sheriff C. C. McDonald, while looking for a man named Wolfskill, alleged to have forsaken his family, Saturday night, stumbled unexpectedly on a bootlegging joint at 1207 North Twenty-first street. Accompanying Mrs. Wolfskill and another woman to the house where Mrs. Wolfskill said her husband was hanging out, the deputy sheriff rapped on the door and was admitted. Walter Harmon, tenant, was pouring a liquid out of a bottle into a glass for a man who was evidently thirsty. McDonald asked what it was. Walter evidently thinking McDonald was a prospective customer said, "It's whiskey."

"You are under arrest," said the deputy sheriff, flashing his badge before the eyes of the astonished dispenser of booze, while one of the men ran out the back door.

Monday morning Judge Crawford sentenced Walter to thirty-five days in the county jail.

PLEASANT GREEN SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Pleasant Green Sunday school opened at 9:30 a. m. Sunday with the superintendent and all the teachers and pupils present. The lesson was from Psalm 1:6, "The Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish." The attendance was 206.

MRS. MAUDE H. JOHNSON VISITS OMAHA

Mrs. Maude H. Johnson, worthy grand matron of Order of Eastern Star in the state of Nebraska and its jurisdiction, left Tuesday night, May 29, at 11 p. m., after having made her official visit to each chapter. Omaha grand officers were present and were greatly benefitted. The worthy grand matron's address made a lasting impression on all who sat under the sound of her voice. It was right to the point for the good of the jurisdiction. She received many beautiful presents and flowers from the members. For the past week she was the guest of the grand lecturer, Mrs. Joseph D. Lewis.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

Central High school graduates in the June class ten colored students, the largest number in the history of the school. This will make the total number of our graduates from Central High this year fourteen, four having graduated in January.

COHEN WILL CONTINUE AS CUSTOMS INSPECTOR

Washington, D. C. — President Coolidge will continue Walter L. Cohen, comptroller of customs at New Orleans, La., in office without a re-appointment, it was learned recently. Mr. Cohen's original appointment expired April 15.

The action of the president in permitting Mr. Cohen to hold over will prevent a recurrence of the bitter fight that he faced in the senate when his name was presented for confirmation four years ago. The Louisiana senators, Joseph E. Ransdell and Edwin Broussard, democrats, opposed him because he is a Negro. They had always indicated their opposition to his reappointment.

Y. W. C. A. NEWS

The religious and general education committee closed their vesper services for the summer vacation period, Sunday afternoon, May 27. There was an excellent representative group, composed of the business and profession men and women of the city, of both races. The reports of the various welfare workers were enthusiastically received. High commendation was given the report of our acting secretary, Miss Ruth O. Collins, who was the delegate from the North Side Branch, to the national Y. W. C. A. convention held in Sacramento, California. The work of the religious and general education committee is due great praise because of its far reaching helpfulness. Especially should credit be given to Mrs. Hiram Greenfield, chairman, who has carried on so faithfully.

The Blue Ribbon club of the branch is sponsoring a vesper service scheduled for June 17. All of the participants on this day will be Girl Reserves. It is rather an unusual happening for the girls to take entire charge of such a meeting, so therefore, we feel that the girls should be given your heartiest support. Watch for further announcements.

The outdoor activities for the "Y" girls have begun. If your girl is not a member, send her to the "Y" building, and let her enjoy the outdoor life. Hikes, tennis, baseball, etc.

BISHOP JONES PRESIDES AT A. M. E. CONVENTION

Kansas City, Mo.—Bishop Robert E. Jones of New Orleans, presided at the quadrennial general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church here last Thursday. It was the first time in church history that a Negro has governed the assembly.

A resolution adopted by the conference reads:

"Whereas, Bishop Robert E. Jones presided at the session of the general conference this morning, it being the first time in the history of our church when a Negro has presided in our supreme legislative body, and whereas his presidency was characterized by courtesy, impartiality and skill, resolved that we express to him and to all his race our pleasure in this relationship, which we recognize as welcome evidence of a new and better day."

TOTTEN PUTS PORTERS' CASE BEFORE METHODIST BODY

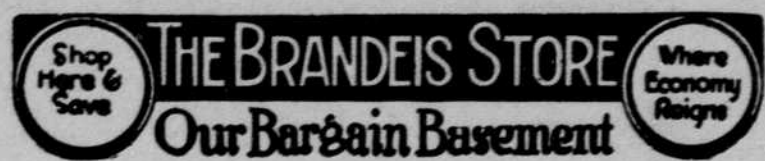

Kansas City, Mo.—Ashley L. Totten, assistant general organizer of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters addressed a committee on resolutions of the Methodist Episcopal conference recently at the Hotel President. His explanation of the case of the Pullman porters and maids was well received. Totten also said that a meeting of the strike committee is to be held in Chicago soon to arrange a date when a strike on Pullman cars will be declared.

APPOINTED PROBATION OFFICER IN SOUTHERN CITY

Atlanta, Ga., June 1—The first colored probation officer in the history of Atlanta has just been appointed to work under Judge Garland Watkins, of the juvenile court, through an appropriation made by the county commissioners. Mrs. Mamie R. Hamilton, the recipient of the appointment, is a member of this year's graduating class of the Atlanta School of Social Work and a graduate of Atlanta university.

This appointment is looked upon as a forward step in race relations in this city, indicating that Atlanta is beginning to recognize not only its duty toward Negro children, but also the need for trained social workers. The appointment is a source of general satisfaction to the colored people. Mrs. Hamilton has not only an excellent cultural background and specialized training for social work, but also possesses personality, dignity, poise, force of character and other qualities which will reflect credit on the race.
