A CORRECTION

Our attention has been called to an error in the report of the Anita Patti Brown recital at the Pilgrim Baptist church published in our last issue. Miss Hazel Roulette and not Miss Willa Hayes was Mme Brown's accompanist on that occasion. Miss Hayes was her accompanist at the recital given in Fremont. We gladly make this correction.

DELIGHTFUL GARDEN PARTY AT LENNOX HOME

Society was agog with the elegance of the smart "garden party" given Monday night from 7 to 10 o'clock, by Omaha's social leaders, Mesdames William Murphy and Earl Oliver, at the palatial home of Dr. George A. Lennox, 2527 Patrick avenue, honoring Mrs. Harrington of Austin, Tex., who is the guest of her brother, Dr. Lennox, at his home. The Lennox gardens were beautiful, a typical Parisian reproduction with the green foliage entwined with a mass of tiny electric lights and garden flowers, which lent a most artistic setting for the gorgeous and exquisitely perfect forest background of trees forming the many unique and artistic effects carried out by the profusion of the wonderful garden scene, with flowers growing everywhere. The two huge pillows of ice arranged in the garden with flowers, ferns and foliage gracefully encircling each pillow was the most unique ever seen in Omaha. The marble bird bath was electrically lighted and was so fittingly arranged in the garden that the guests were charmed with its grandeur. The table was delicately decorated with flowers and a magnificent combination color electric wrought iron lamp formed the center that blended with the garden surroundings perfectly as if an artist had painted the elaborate scene. The driveway, with growing flowers, furnished a delightful retreat for groups who were merrily chatting throughout the evening. The punch table was in a cozy nook in the garden. The smartly gowned guests added much to the ideal summer evening. Miss Minor of St. Louis, Mo., sang a group of classics, with Mrs. Cordelia Armstrong at the piano. The announcement was made that there would be a treasure hunt for the young smart set of the college and school group present, and the young folks scamped to get their clues and after great glee and much enjoyment, near the garage, Mr. Burns Scott found the hidden treasure, which was (a pot of gold) a two and one-half dollar gold piece.

Those out-of-town guests sharing honors with the distinguished guest of honor were: Miss Jones of Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. Bates of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Henderson of New York City; Miss Minor of St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Willette Embry of Wilberforce, and Miss Lucy Stevens, Girl Reserve "Y" secretary of Denver. Assisting the hostesses during the happy event were Mesdames Augustus Hicks, Florentine Pinkston, Ted Adams, C. A. Burnett, Isaac Bailey, George Watson, Earl Waldron, W. D. Taylor, A. L. Hawkins and Miss Gertrude Lucas. A delicious menu was served. Society young and matured of Omaha's exclusive set commended the hostesses, Mesdames Murphy and Oliver, on having given society a thrill and elevated the social world as never before known.

OUSTING OF PERRY HOWARD

(Continued from Page One) nouncing and condemning the punishment and humiliation of Howard with deep and bitter acerbity. The effect upon the alignment in the campaign cannot now be definitely ascertained. It seems certain, however, that the republican party will find additional difficulty in holding the race in its accustomed allegiance by reason of the crucifixion of the Mississippi leader.

Clearly Sees the Trend

The Negro's eyes are wide open. He is keenly sensitive of these sinister political maneuvers. Step follows step with logical coherence. The obvious purpose seems to be the elimination of the Negro from directive voice in the high councils of the party out of deference to the lily white sentiment. The gospel, according to the lily whites, is that the Negro in the south should be allowed to vote, but should have no controlling say as to management or manipulation of political organizations. In this wise they hope, vaguely, perhaps vainly, to build up a functioning republican organization in the southern states. The dominant spirit of the party is veering to this view. Recent actions of the party are easily interpreted in the light of this purpose.

Sidesteps Amendments

First came the refusal of Kansas City to lay equal stress upon the enforcement of the 14th and 15th as upon the 18th amendment. This puts the country on notice that the republican party has weaned its own children conceived in the civil strife and born amidst political revolution. The southern states, therefore, need no longer fear the enforcement of the part of the constitution to which they have objected bitterly for a generation.

Elimination of Negro

The second step is seen in the elimination of the Negro as a co-ordinate advisor in the high councils of the party. And so on one pretext or another Ben Davis, Walter Cohen and Perry Howard must relinquish their hold upon the republican machinery in Georgia, Louisiana and Mississippi. This hold must be broken not with the blunt honesty of political necessity, but under the plausible guise of purity and righteousness.

Slemp Enlisted and Exalted

The third step follows with carefully planned consecutiveness. Bascom Slemp, the erstwhile secretary of President Coolidge, is chosen to bring the southern democratic vote and the lily white republican into the fold. Mr. Slemp is the arch lily white who knows the wiles and guiles of the game. If laying office holders under tribute be the great political crime, then Perry Howard's transgression, if we are to believe documented charges, compared with Slemp's would be as a mole hill to a mountain. And yet, Slemp is exalted and Howard is debased. So great is the affliction and sacrifice that the Negro is forced to undergo in order that the G. O. P. may build up effective strength in the southern states. To the white voter, the marginal issue between the two parties is a rapidly narrowing one. If the civil war amendments are to be eliminated from the issue of political controversy and if the Negro is to be deprived of political equality in the councils of the republican party, then to him party differences are wholly obliterated.

The Real Issue

There remains but one dominant issue of a moral nature which is determined, not by the platform of the parties which are indistinguishable, but by the personal attitude of the contending standard bearers. The real issue after all is not so much republican or democratic, Hoover or Smith, but wet or dry.

A BIG EMANCIPATION CELEBRATION

to be held at

KRUG PARK—September 11

We are hereby calling the public's attention to this big event. We have heretofore, no doubt, witnessed this day of celebration in Omaha, but never before have we had it in this wise.

There is a big effort being made by the Committee to reach every organized group of race people in and around Omaha, in order that they may share in, or have a chance to share in this affair. We are hoping to have every church group, every fraternal society and the business and professional men to participate in this celebration.

We have heard from many sources, much criticism about a date for this celebration. To that we have only this to say: In the Slave States, the dates differ; in Nebraska, there is no fixed date for this occasion, for this was not a slave state. So, we use a date on which we can secure a place that furnishes such recreation and amusements as this day calls for, hence, the day and place this year is September 11th, at Krug Park!

Another objection has been that it has been a single-handed effort. That objection this year is removed by reason of the fact that all groups are being approached to take part.

Still another objection has been because some have thought that the churches and pastors should not have the dance pavilion operating under church management. That objection this time is removed, for the Krug Park Amusement Co. had contracted with Mr. John Smith for the dance pavilion last March, so the churches will have no hand in the management of the hall.

Now let us all get together and have a big day of co-mingling one with another and at the same time celebrate in a large way our Race Freedom.

The following named brethren have been approached and have agreed to co-operate with the plan. From Fraternities:

- A. M. HARROLD
- C. G. M. of U. K. T.'s
- REV. D. McQUEEN
- State G. M. of M. T. of A's
- DR. GOODEN
- G. M. of U. B. F.'s

Churches approached through pastors:

- REV. E. H. HILSON
- Salem Baptist
- REV. WM. HALL
- Morning Star Baptist
- REV. MR. STEVENSON
- Galilee M. B.
- REV. JNO. ADAMS
- Presiding Elder, Omaha District, A. M. E.
- REV. J. H. JACKSON
- Bethel M. B., So. Side
- REV. A. H. HIGGS
- Clare Chapel M. E.
- REV. E. D. JOHNSON
- St. John's M. B., No. Side
- REV. Z. E. MCGEE
- Pleasant Green M. B.
- REV. J. W. GARNER
- Bethel A. M. E.
- L. E. HAMLETT
- Cleaves Temple, C. M. E.
- REV. JNO. H. GRANT
- St. John's A. M. E.

Dr. Grant is in hearty accord with the present plan of operation, but because of so much unjust criticism growing out of last year's celebration, he does not care to have any hand in the affair this year. I think his attitude in that respect is about the same as ours would be, hence we would have the public to know that there is no hard feeling between Dr. Grant and the Committee on account of this celebration.

We hope this announcement will be clearly read and understood so that everyone will know that all groups can be benefited by plans offered if they will take part. At this writing the Committee has not been able to see all of the churches and pastors, neither have we had time to see all of the Fraternal Societies, but we will see them before the next issue comes out, so as to let the public know those participating in this grand affair. Watch for newspaper and circular announcements later. Anyone wishing to take part or to get further information call
