ALABAMANS ATTACK AL'S ATTITUDE ANENT NEGRO AND LIQUOR

Birmingham, Ala.—Governor Al Smith, democratic presidential nominee, was attacked for his stand on the "race question" by anti-Smith democrats at a meeting Monday.

Resolutions asking that the democrats of Alabama vote against Smith, to preserve white supremacy in the South, were adopted by democrats here Monday night.

The resolution said newspapers are trying to "mislead the democrats of Alabama to vote for one whose record is or stands for racial equality. No man believing as Smith does regarding the liquor laws and the Negro need expect the vote of Alabama." They declared also that the purpose of the Alabama conference of anti-Smith democrats is the "eternal elimination of Al Smith."

Miss Inez Battles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Battles of 3122 Burdette street, who has been attending summer school at the State University, returned home Friday for a short visit with her parents before resuming her studies this fall. Her sister, Miss Evelyn Battles, will return with her.

Mrs. Hiram Greenfield left Tuesday night for Leavenworth, Kan., to attend the annual conference of the A. M. E. Church, which meets there from September 12 to 17, 1928.

FLORIDA NEGRO MAY RUN FOR CONGRESS

New York, N. Y.—W. W. Sullivan, president of the Congressional Life Insurance Company of Gainesville, Fla., and one of the leading Negro business men of the state, has been attending the National Negro Business League. He is keenly interested in the political situation as it relates to the race and feels that the Negro should have a larger representation in the affairs of government. When interviewed here, Mr. Sullivan said:

"I am seriously considering the importance of the nomination for congress from the Second Congressional district of Florida. The Negroes and their loyal white supporters of this district are not pleased at the lily-white methods, instituted by the Skipper faction, nor the attitude of the national party towards them."

SOUTHERN NEGROES SEEK TO RUN FOR CONGRESS

Washington, D. C.—Southern Negroes are manifesting a keen interest in the 1928 campaign. A delegation of Virginia Negroes is organizing a movement to nominate three Negro leaders for congress, in the Second, Sixth and Tenth districts of their state.

W. B. Crowell of Roanoke, Grand

Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias; Joseph N. Pollard of Richmond; Thomas H. Reid of Portsmouth, and P. B. Young of Norfolk came here last week to confer with C. Bascom Slemple and other Virginia republican leaders with a view to outlining a definite plan. Menalucus Lankford is a candidate for the nomination in the Second, or Norfolk, district, and W. B. Crowell is being urged to run in the Roanoke district.

INDICT WHITE MORON FOR RAPING NEGRO GIRL

New Orleans, La.—John C. Carey, a white night watchman, who is alleged to have raped on August 7, a young colored girl, aged 12, was indicted for rape by the Orleans parish grand jury.

The same grand jury returned an indictment of murder against Sam Zion, a young white man, who on July 17, is alleged to have shot and killed Miss Ada Ellen Jones, a young colored girl, aged 17, when, it is claimed, that just for the fun of the thing, Zion fired into a group returning from a party.

Ask a Football Coach What he thinks of Milk

"Every boy and girl who would like to develop the best they have in them should drink a great deal of milk."

(This statement by Coach Stagg, Director of Athletics at the University of Chicago, and for thirty-two years football coach, is an unpaid-for testimony to the food value of milk and is gratuitously given to all milk dealers.)
