AN IMPORTANT WORD TO SUBSCRIBERS

The postal regulations require that for newspapers to be sent through the mails subscriptions must be paid in advance. A reasonable time, thirty days, is allowed for renewals. At the expiration of this period, where subscriptions are not renewed, the paper must be stopped. If this is not done, postal privileges are denied the publication. Those, therefore, who desire to continue receiving The Monitor must see to it that their subscriptions are paid, as the law requires, in advance. Statements are being sent to all those who owe, or our collector will call—and unless your subscription is paid we will be compelled to cut off your paper which, of course, we do not want to do.
 We, as publishers, MUST comply with the law or pay the penalty.

CURTIS' SPEECH

The speech delivered by Senator Curtis, vice-presidential nominee, at the Auditorium, Tuesday night, was a well prepared defense of the Republican party on farm relief, the protective tariff and compensation for war veterans. While he answered the charge made by Governor Smith from the same platform a week before that the Republican party had failed to do anything for the relief of the farmers, save to feed them with promises which were still unfulfilled, the senator's speech was entirely free from offensive personalities. He presented an array of facts from reports on the operation of the tariff which radically reduced the importation of farm products which unquestionably benefit the American farmer. He defended the protective tariff which he claims is the real issue of this campaign and not subsidiary issues which have been injected. He punctured the democratic nominee's States Rights' proposal of leaving the control of the liquor question to the police power of the respective states by calling attention to the fact that 46 of the 48 states placed the power to control the manufacture, sale and transportation of liquors in the hands of the federal government, which authority can only be changed by an amendment to the constitution. The speech was one of sound argument, appealing rather to the head than to what an old fellow rather aptly called the "risibilities."

SNOWED UNDER

The voters of Omaha turned down the bond issue for Natural Gas in Tuesday's special election by an unprecedented majority. The result was about 5 to 1 against the measure. Fortunately, a good number voted, which makes the answer vociferously loud. About 40,000 went to the polls and expressed their will. We are gratified to know that our people considered the measure of sufficient importance to them to vote. This is as it should be. Personally we regret that the proposal was defeated. We believed, and still believe, that the securing of Natural Gas would have been a great advantage to Omaha. The majority of the people see it differently and have registered their choice. So be it.

A SHAMEFUL SITUATION

We have several students taking normal courses at the University of Omaha. The curriculum requires that such students be given opportunity to have practice work two days a week for a given length of time. White girls taking this course are permitted to have this practice work in the public schools of Omaha. Colored girls are denied this opportunity. And yet we pay taxes to support these schools. The University authorities say they are helpless in the matter because the "Board of Education" will not permit it. How about this, ladies and gentlemen of the Board of Education? Don't you think this is a damnable state of affairs? Do you stand for this policy? Do you want to know the names of some of the students who have been denied this privilege? Here they are: Miss Grace Dorsey, whose father, S. H. Dorsey, has been a substantial citizen and taxpayer here for forty years; Miss Ruth Jones, daughter of Alfred Jones, the well known caterer; Miss Thelma Norris; Miss Cecelia Stark; Miss Virginia Jackson, daughter of Tony Jackson, well known to the business public; Miss Elaine Smith, the daughter of J. F. Smith, and Miss Consuelo Cross.

St. Benedict's Roman Catholic parochial school has given opportunity to three of these girls for practice work, otherwise they could not have gotten it, and yet it is supposed that we are living in a broad-minded Christian community, with a sincere Christian man as superintendent of schools, and earnest Christian men and women as members of the Board of Education!

When will the shame of such a situation as this be banished from our city?
