

NEWS FROM DULUTH, MINN.

By Mrs. Jennie Murdock Williams
Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Soles entertained the Interstate Literary Club on a recent Thursday evening at their regular social monthly meeting. Owing to the inclement weather, the participants on the program were unable to be present, and the subjects, "The New South" and "Biographical Sketches and Poems of Countee Cullen," were most cleverly handled by Mr. Harry S. Merry and other members of the club. Remarks were made by Mrs. M. J. Robinson of Cleveland, Ohio, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. Colby. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Coles, Mrs. R. B. Newsome and Mrs. Sarah Waters gave some most interesting facts of their vacation trips. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess. The club was more than pleased to have one of their oldest and honorary members present, Mrs. Cordelia Johnson, who had been ill for more than six months.

Mrs. Anna Williams, 329 East Superior street, is steadily improving from a serious and prolonged illness and double operation. Mrs. Williams is a former resident of Omaha.

Mr. R. B. Newsome has been called to serve on jury in Virginia, Minn. Mr. Frank Winfield and Mrs. Emma Watts both are serving in Duluth.

Mrs. Walter Covington finished a series of social events on Monday, September 25, complimenting Mrs. M. J. Robinson of Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Covington gave a five hundred card party and guessing game, which was most interesting. Prizes were won by Mrs. R. B. Newsome, Mrs. H. S. Merry, Mrs. Victor Towles, Mrs. Charles Colby, Mrs. J. D. Mobley and Mrs. Fred Hyatt, Mrs. M. J. Robinson receiving guest prizes for both games. A very dainty lunch was served by the charming hostess. Mrs. Covington, which all enjoyed.

Mrs. M. J. Robinson left on Tuesday for her home in Cleveland, after a four weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Charles Colby of 616 East 4th street, enroute from the Elks convention which was held in Chicago in August.

Mr. William Johnson of St. Paul, Minn., was the week end guest of his sister, Mrs. Wallace Rodney of East 8th street.

Miss Mary Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kelley, has returned to Princess Ann Academy, Maryland, after having spent her vacation with her parents, and Marshall Kelley, the son, left on Saturday to attend the Downingtown, Pa., Industrial School.

Mr. Kenneth Richardson, a recent graduate of Duluth Central High school, and son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Richardson, who has shown unusual talent for art, left on Saturday to attend an art school in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nichols had as their week end guests Mrs. Beatrice Gibbs of Minneapolis, Mrs. Florence Hanley and son, James, of St. Paul, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Merry, accompanied by Mrs. Hanley, Mrs. Beatrice Gibbs of Minneapolis, and Mrs. Edward Nichols, motored to Hubbing and Virginia, Minn., Friday.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and their brother, Mr. Graham, of Hemingford, Neb., arrived in the city last week by auto. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Johnson. Mr. Anderson is styled as the wheat king of the northwest, as he owns something over 2,000 acres of land near Hemingford, and is very wealthy. We understand that he has built homes on his land for a number of his kin. Mr. Anderson purchased one of the latest seven-passenger cars from the Buick Auto company here. After visiting a while here they will return to their ranch. Mr. L. P. Gates left Monday for a visit to Chicago, Ill.

Rev. M. C. Knight was in the city the past week from Denver. After arranging matters concerning his transfer from this district he left with his wife by auto for his new church at Denver, Colo.

Adam Loving is yet confined at his home with illness.

The initial program of the eighth anniversary of Rev. H. W. Botts' pastorate at Mt. Zion Baptist Church was held Monday night and throughout the week, concluding with the anniversary sermon and financial rally Sunday.

Mr. George Young and wife were over from Omaha Monday to visit their mother, Mrs. Boswell, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wiley.

Covenant and communion were enjoyed by members of Mt. Zion Baptist church Sunday. The pastor delivered a fine sermon in the evening. Rev. John Adams is taking hold of his pastorate at Quinn Chapel A. M. E. church, and the people have begun to realize that he is here.

Register before October 27th if you would vote.

Mrs. Ada Hill Smith of Omaha, national organizer of the Women's Republican clubs, was in the city Sunday and Monday and conferred with the women, looking forward for the interest of our group. She seemed quite enthusiastic in her work.

W. W. MOSLEY.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Sunday afternoon, September 30, Dr. Edith Hale Swift of New York lectured to a large group of mothers and daughters at the North Side Branch, on the subject "How a Girl Grows." It was very excellently received by all who attended. Miss Helen Hunnigan contributed an instrumental number to the program; Mrs. Dolores Blackwell gave a vocal solo with Mrs. Pinkston at the piano, and Miss Catherine Williams played the hymns sung.

The popular demand for the North Side Branch, Y. W. C. A. vespers, will be consummated Sunday, October 14, at 4 p. m., when the bi-monthly vespers will have their opening service of the season in charge of the Religious and General Education Committee, of which Mrs. Hiram R. Greenfield is chairman. An unusual program of highest spiritual and literary merit will be rendered. Everybody is urged to be present and enjoy the treat offered at your "Y" vespers. Be sure to join the crowd that always attends and remain after program for the refreshing social hour which follows. Refreshments will be served to all free, while renewing your "Y" friendships. Come prepared to relate some helpful experience during vacation. The subject, "What Spiritual Lesson I Learned During Vacation," will be generally discussed by the entire audience interspersed with the following excellent program:

Devotionals, Mrs. Hiram R. Greenfield.

Piano Selection, Miss Mary Moore. Violin Selection, Miss Helen Wheeler.

Reading, "Keep It Before the People," Mrs. Margaret Hester Porter.

Piano Selection, Miss Elaine Smith. Vocal Solo, "In the Garden of Tomorrow," Mr. William Moore.

Violin Selection, Miss Albertine Johnson.

The reception sponsored by the committee of management in honor of the new Executive Secretary, Miss Margie L. Danley, was a decided success. With the decorations of autumn leaves and floral bouquets of orange marigolds, and the vari-colored gowns of the guests, and the soft lights, made the reception room a beautiful sight to behold. The committee women acted as hostesses, while in the receiving line were Mrs. Lucinda Williams, chairman of the committee of management of North Side Branch; Miss Margie L. Danley, executive secretary of North Side Branch; Mrs. Carrie Ada Campbell, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A.; Mrs. J. H. Vance, chairman of colored work; Mrs. A. C. Kennedy, president of board of directors at Central Association, and Mrs. Minnie Dixon, secretary of the committee of management of North Side Branch. A very large group of Omahans welcomed Miss Danley to Omaha as our new executive secretary. Light refreshments were served. A few piano numbers were rendered voluntarily by Miss Ollie Mattison. And the evening was spent very delightfully by all who attended.

The Girl Reserve Get Together Party, sponsored by the Athletic Gem Club was a huge success from the time it started to the end. All of the girls entered into the spirit of the occasion and carried the effort to a goal very much desired. The games, songs, refreshments were greeted with much applause. The new group of girls show a great possibility for future Girl Reserve clubs.

TO INVESTIGATE THE TORTURE OF OLD MAN

Jennings, La.—District Attorney Robira has announced that the Jefferson Davis parish grand jury will investigate a charge made by Will Parker, that he had been tortured with hot irons and forced to sign away all of his property. The announcement was made after a conference between the district attorney and Sheriff Fonnot at which a number of witnesses were examined. Parker went to the police station in New Orleans with his story of torture. He was accompanied by Edward Ewing, who said he had been hired to kill Parker.

LEGAL NOTICE
To George P. Carley, non-resident defendant:

You are hereby notified that on the 22nd day of September, 1928, Charles Phillips as plaintiff filed his petition in the District Court of Douglas County, Nebraska, Appearance docket 251, page 28, against you, impleaded with others, as defendant, the object of the action so brought being to foreclose a certain mortgage of $1,500.00, dated July 16, 1925, executed by Henry M. Coleman and Mabel O. Coleman, husband and wife, in favor of J. P. Hess Company, and by said J. P. Hess Company assigned to the plaintiff, which mortgage was recorded July 20, 1926, in Book 632 at page 56 of the mortgage records of Douglas County, Nebraska, and covers the following described real estate, to-wit:

Lot Five (5) in Block Fifteen (15), Hitchcock's First Addition to the City of Omaha, as surveyed, platted and recorded in Douglas County, Nebraska, which mortgage was given to secure a promissory note of even date for $1,500.00 and interest.

Plaintiff prays that in default of payment by the defendants, or some of them, of the amount due plaintiff on said note and mortgage, said premises may be sold according to law to satisfy the amount found due, with interest and costs, and that the defendants, and each of them, may be forever barred and foreclosed of any and all right, title, interest or equity of redemption in and to said premises; for the appointment of a receiver, and for such other and further relief in the premises as equity may require.

You and each of you are required to answer said petition on or before the 12th day of November, 1928.

CHARLES PHILLIPS, Plaintiff.
