ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY!

The Council of Social Agencies is planning another course of educational lectures and discussions for the coming winter, similar to the one which was held with such large attendance and good success last year.

This year, however, several of the best authorities and speakers in the various fields of social work from outside Omaha will be brought here to speak. A full announcement and program of the course will be issued within a few days.

The first number of the course will be held next Monday evening, November 12th, in connection with the Nebraska State Conference of Social Work. Eugene Kinckle Jones, executive secretary of the National Urban League of New York City, will speak at the Jewish Community Center at 8:00 p. m.

Mr. Jones is not only one of the nation's leading social service executives, but is an especial authority on race relations. He is a powerful speaker. His address will be a treat and will be a fitting introduction to a remarkably strong lecture course for the coming season.

You are urged to come and to advise others of the opportunity. Cordially yours, Omaha Council of Social Agencies.

"MOONSHINE" FATAL

New Orleans, La.—(By the A. N. P.)—Irish Smith, 40, was taken to Charity hospital in a stupor here Sunday morning, and died Sunday afternoon. Coroner George Roeling stated that the cause of his death was post-alcoholic stupor.

RABBI FREDERICK COHN WILL DELIVER ADDRESS SUNDAY AT NORTH SIDE 'Y'

Interesting Program Planned for Opening Vesper Service of World Fellowship Week.

MANY ACTIVITIES AT BRANCH

The religious and general education committee of the North Side Y. W. C. A. will have charge of the Vespers World Fellowship program, Sunday, November 11, at 4 p. m. sharp. The plans are complete for a solemn, reverent program that will impress everyone who will attend. So let everyone plan to be present. Come early. Rabbi Frederick Cohn will be principal speaker. He is one of the most forceful, broad-minded and outstanding men of great prominence in public life of Omaha. Don't fail to hear him. The program follows:

Processional, Pilgrim Baptist Choir, directed by Miss Minnie Dixon.

Congregational singing: "In the Cross of Christ I Glory," "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

Devotionals, Mrs. John Albert Williams.

Candle Service, "Spirit of the Y. W. C. A." Josephine Martin, president of the Athletic Gem club.

Song, "The Negro National Anthem," Pilgrim Baptist choir.

Address, "The Unity of Man," Rabbi Frederick Cohn.

Song, Pilgrim Baptist choir.

Address, "World Friendship," Miss Margie L. Danley, Executive Secretary.

Music, Russian and Austrian, South Side Settlement Center.

Song, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," Audience.

Four races will be represented on this program.

Social hour follows. Remain and enjoy the dainty service. The committee will serve all free while you enjoy visiting and becoming acquainted. Mrs. Hiram Grenfield, chairman.

The beautiful cantata, "The Story of the Orient," will be rendered by 14 young ladies from Zion Baptist Church, at the vespers, December 9, with Mrs. Lena Dallas directing. This will be instructive and worth while. Plan to attend.

On Sunday afternoon, November 4, the Missionary Federation of Omaha, presented the Branch with a portrait of Booker T. Washington and one of Abraham Lincoln.

Mrs. J. A. Frye, secretary of the Young People's work, presided. Music was furnished by the Cleaves Temple choir. Mrs. C. A. Campbell, general secretary of the Omaha Y. W. C. A. and Mrs. Thompson of the Missionary Federation followed with remarks concerning Washington and Lincoln. The Rev. Robert Wheeler, pastor emeritus of Wheeler Memorial church, gave an address of worth. Misses June Artison and Christine Dixon, of the Girl Reserve department unveiled the portraits.

The radio committee, composed of Mrs. W. C. Ricks, Mrs. Geo. Woods, and Miss Maggie Chiles, has secured a Majestic radio for the Branch. They invite all to come and hear it.

The Y. W. C. A. has been used a great deal by a number of outside organizations for meetings.

Girl Reserve Department

The clubs are planning their fall and winter programs, with the grade school girls having the theme, "Adventuring," and the high school girls' theme, "Open Windows." The Athletic Gems held their Recognition Service, Tuesday, October 3. There were seven girls recognized. They also held their election of officers. The following girls were elected for president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively: Josephine Martin, Ella Mae Mills, Mary Caldwell and Mary Moore. Some great things are being planned by all of the clubs.

Class Announcements

There are still vacancies in all of the classes. There is still a place for those who are engaged in any public work; lodges and clubs; and churches, in the public speaking classes at the North Side Branch. Also the art and deskmaking classes. The opportunity school enrollment is becoming larger, and a splendid work is being mapped out for those who desire to further their education.

The week of prayer begins Sunday, November 11, and lasts until November 17. Every day of the week, at noon.

CANADA DECIDES TO GET RID OF MARCUS GARVEY

Quebec, Canada.—(By the A. N. P.)—Marcus Garvey, itinerant president of the Universal Negro Improvement association, was scheduled to leave here for his home in Jamaica Saturday, November 10, as a result of an order issued by the Canadian government stamping Garvey as an undesirable visitor and decreasing his deportment.

Mr. Garvey had just arrived here from England. It is believed that he had intended to remain in Canada to direct the work of his organization among the Negroes of the United States.
