Ed. F. Morearty, Lawyer, 700 Peters Trust Building, Jackson 3841 or HARney 2156.

Mrs. Belle Pulpres of Pittsburg, Pa., arrived Sunday night and is the house guest of her daughter, Mrs. William G. Haynes and family.

Mrs. Joseph L. Cour returned Sunday night from a pleasant visit with her daughter Margaret, in New York City.

The sermon topic at the church of St. Philip the Deacon Sunday morning at 11 o'clock will be, "Man, The Image of God."

Mrs. R. Hartley, 2638 Caldwell street, has returned home after a delightful four weeks' visit in Evergreen, Ala., with some relatives and friends. En route home she spent four days in Montgomery, Ala., as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Davis, who made it very pleasant for her while there. She visited the state fair in Montgomery and found our group well represented there.

The Intercollegiate club will give a Japanese musicale tea at the North Side branch, Y. W. C. A., on Sunday afternoon, November 18, from 4 to 7 o'clock. Everybody invited. A silver offering will be taken.

"The Gypsy Rover," a romantic operetta comedy in three acts will be given by St. John's A. M. E. church choir, at the church, Twenty-second and Willis avenue, Friday night, November 23. Admission 25 cents.—Adv.

Mrs. Millard Wood, nee Lancaster, left Wednesday to join her husband, Mr. Millard Wood in Temple, Texas, where he is teaching.

Remember the date of the "Parcel Post Sale" at the North Side Y. W. C. A. Thursday evening, November 22. Miss Jennie Robinson, chairman.

The Hard Time Masquerade Dance given at Dreamland hall by the "Ready to Go" group of St. Philip's church, of which Mrs. A. Hicks is captain, was a decidedly social and financial success. It was largely attended. Many of the costumes were very unique. The prizes for the best costumes were awarded to Mrs. H. J. Crawford and Mr. W. L. Meyers.

The Sunshine committee of St. Philip's church, with Mrs. Alice Smith as captain and her team will hold a rummage sale, Monday, November 19 at 2016 North Twenty-fourth street, between Blondo and Patrick avenue. Many useful things will be offered for sale. Come one, come all.—Adv.

Mr. Eugene Kinkel Jones was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, 2211 Ohio street, while in the city.

Some of Omaha's best talent will be heard in the Gypsy Rovers, November 23rd, at St. John's A. M. E. church.—Adv.

Auxiliary Whist Party
The woman's auxiliary of Captain Allen Allensworth camp No. 25, of the Spanish War Veterans, held a whist party, Wednesday evening, October 24th, at St. Benedict's, which was a social and financial success, and for which we thank the public. The hall was decorated with American flags and Halloween novelties. Prizes were won by Mrs. J. E. Dorsey, first; Mrs. Thomas Robinson, second. Men's prizes, Burns Scott, first; Mr. Randall, second. The booby prize was given to Miss Leona Williams. Refreshments were served at a late hour, with Mrs. Lizzie Buford and her delicious coffee, which was enjoyed by all.

You will miss a real treat if you fail to see "The Gypsy Rover," Friday night, November 23rd, at St. John's A. M. E. church.—Adv.

Dr. A. L. Hawkins announces the change of his telephone number from Webster 6580 to Webster 3289.—Adv.

Twenty-eighth avenue, Saturday evening, November 10. Mrs. Watson has been president of the Carter Charity and Benevolent club for the past seven years. November 11th was Mrs. Watson's birthday anniversary and in appreciation of her faithful service 27 members of the club gathered at her home to help her celebrate that event. A dainty luncheon was served and beautiful gifts were presented to Mrs. Watson. A very pleasant evening was spent after which the guests departed, wishing their president many happy returns of the day.

EUREKA ART CLUB MEETS
The Eureka Art club met on November 7th at the home of Mrs. Besie Kirby, Mrs. M. F. Jackson, the president, presiding. The meeting opened with prayer by Mrs. A. M. Harrold. The roll was called and each member was found to be present and responded with miscellaneous quotations. After the regular routine of business, Mrs. McCalester of Atchison, Kansas, was introduced and gave some very helpful remarks. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Pearl Young, 2305 North Twenty-seventh street, Wednesday afternoon, November 21st.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES
The radio dinner, Tuesday, November 6, sponsored by the finance committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Leonora Gray, was very successful. The election returns were broadcast over the new radio installed by the radio committee.

The apron social given by the service committee, Thursday, November 8, with Mrs. Gertrude Ashby as chairman, was also very successful.

The Adult Guidance Council held at the Central Y. W. C. A., November 9 and 10, was attended by Mrs. Hiram Greenfield, Mrs. A. O. McGee, Miss Margie L. Danley and Miss Alice E. Hunter, representing North Side Branch. Some wonderful ideas and plans were received from the Council.

Girl Reserve Department
The Girl Reserve Department is making plans for a beautiful holiday season with participation by the Girl Reserve clubs.

Class Announcements
The Opportunity School enrollment is still growing. There is still room for those who wish to further their education.

The Art Class has a few more vacancies. There is an opportunity to learn how to make your Christmas gifts at a very small cost.

Vesper News
The Vespers last Sunday at the North Side Y. W. C. A. were a great success. An immense crowd of more than 200 persons were in attendance to enjoy the masterful address by Rabbi Frederick Cohn, "The Unity of Man." He held his hearers' rapt attention for an hour with logic, reason and hope. The foreign groups in native costume from Omaha Social Settlement blended admirably with the "World Fellowship" program which Miss Margie L. Danley, executive secretary, so ably gave the true meaning in her address, "World Friendship." Pilgrim Baptist choir, under the direction of Mrs. Minnie L. Dixon, was excellent in their selections, especially their fine interpretation of Negro spirituals. The religious and general education committee are highly appreciative of the co-operation of the public in making the Vespers excellent all previous efforts. The Spirit of Y. W. C. A. in Candlelight by a Girl Reserve was very effective.

News
This week is being observed as week of prayer and world fellowship at North Side Branch, in charge of the religious and general education committee, with Mrs. Hiram Greenfield presiding. Each day at noon (12 to 1 o'clock) friends are invited to this quiet hour. Rev. Wilson, Rev. Martin, Rev. Hamlett, Father Williams, Rev. Higgs and Rev. Burkhardt bring the message each day, respectively. Much benefit is being realized.

The next Vespers will be November 28th, brimful of interest. Program next week, with particulars.

Chairman Entertains Committee
Mrs. Hiram R. Greenfield entertained at a prettily appointed two o'clock luncheon, at the Branch, last Friday, complimentary to the religious and general education committee of the North Side Branch, Y. W. C. A., of which she is chairman, also honoring Mrs. I. S. Wilson, a recent arrival from Denver, and Mrs. J. Harvey Kearns, a recent arrival from Milwaukee, Wis. These distinguished women are the wives of Rev. I. S. Wilson, pastor of St. John's A. M. E. church, and Mr. J. Harvey Kearns, executive secretary of the Omaha Urban League, and are a wonderful asset to the religious and civic and social life of Omaha.

The hostess chose yellow for her color scheme. The table was laid with yellow linen cover and sparkling cut glass and silver and china. The glass centerpiece held a profusion of yellow pom poms, with yellow lighted candles, adding beauty and charm to the setting. The four course luncheon was palatable and delicious to the last taste, prepared by Mrs. William Murphy, noted for her extraordinary natural abilities in her profession. The beautiful table setting was also the work of Mrs. Murphy. Mrs. Greenfield is a charming hostess and all enjoyed the afternoon immensely. Mrs. J. C. Brewer, a member of the committee, left Saturday, November 10, with her husband to permanently reside in St. Louis Mo., and this served as a farewell token of love. Covers were laid for fourteen. Those present, besides the hostess, were Mesdames John Albert Williams, J. D. Thornton, Frank Cole, J. C. Brewer, Alice Smith, Jennie Williams, W. Buffkins, Louisa Scott, R. K. Laurie, Stoval, I. S. Wilson, J. Harvey Kearns and Miss Margie L. Danley.
