The Flapperette club met at the home of Miss Celestine Smith, Friday, November 16th. The afternoon was spent playing whist. Of the two tables the winners were Miss Sara Brown and Miss Vera Walton at one, at the other Miss Catherine Williams and Miss Josephine Martin. A lively and enjoyable time was had by all.—Josephine Martin, Reporter.

Mrs. Rodney Paul Williams of Oakland, Cal., was the house guest of Mrs. W. H. Jackson, 3532 North 29th street, last week. Mrs. Williams is a typist in the court house in Oakland, and is also county deputy for the county of Alameda and seasonal deputy in the offices of the county assessors, auditors and county clerks. She left Saturday for a three months' visit in the east.

Mrs. Stella Thompson returned to Omaha Sunday morning after a four months' stay in Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. Mary Brown is ill at the Wise Memorial Hospital.

Dr. Crump, a physician from St. Paul, Minn., was the guest of Dr. Craig Morris Sunday.

Mrs. Bessie Woods met with a very painful accident, Monday, November 5, when her hands and face were burned by a gas explosion.

Mrs. Leonard Gaines and Mrs. Genevieve Parish entertained twenty-five guests Tuesday evening, honoring the distinguished visitor of Oakland, Cal., a stenographer in the tax assessor's office, and Mrs. Ernestine Woods, who left the city to make her future home in Waco, Texas, where Mr. Woods holds a position in Paul Quinn College.

Miss Thelma Shipman, a student nurse in the Provident-Wheatley hospital of Kansas City, Mo., is spending a few days with her mother and sister here.

Mr. Joseph Robinson of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived in the city Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with his sisters, Mrs. S. H. Dorsey and Miss Jennie Robinson.

Services will be held at the Church of St. Philip the Deacon, Thanksgiving day at 7 a. m. and 10 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey Kerns have moved from 2911 Lake street to 2517 Maple street.

"Our Gang" comedy and Leatrice Joy will be shown at the Lake theater, December 6, for the benefit of St. Philip's church, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Dora Donley, who is captain of one of the companies engaged in raising a repair fund.

MRS. NELSON ADDRESSES HIGH SCHOOL BOYS

Philadelphia, Pa.—(By the A. N. P.)—The American Interracial Peace committee has been co-operating with the Committee on the Interests of the Colored Race of the Friends of Philadelphia, to the extent of lending the services of its executive secretary to address high school assemblies. Mrs. Alice Dunbar-Nelson addressed Kensington High school on October 30, on the subject, "The Contribution of the Negro to American Life." The students were enthusiastic about the new concept of history presented them.

On November 13, Mrs. Nelson spoke to the students of the Lansdowne High school on "Negro Poetry from Phyllis Wheatley to Countee Cullen."

ST. PHILIP'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The services Sunday will be as follows: Holy communion, 7:30 a. m.; Church school, 10:00; matins and sermon at 11:00; evensong at 8:00 o'clock. It is requested that as many families of the parish as possible attend the 11 o'clock service.

MRS. WHITE HONORED BY BENSON TEMPLE

Mrs. Georgia E. White was given a very pleasant surprise Tuesday evening, November 20, at the close of the meeting of Benson Temple, No. 356 S. M. T., when the newly elected worthy princess, Mrs. Roxie Williams, announced to her that the sisters were honoring her with a little surprise in appreciation of her good work and long service as their most worthy princess. At that the sisters began to prepare to serve the refreshments and hidden presents came from every direction. Mrs. White had to resign from the chair a short time ago, after serving the temple for nearly eight years, on account of bad health. She is a national grand officer and also a state grand officer, and we are happy to say at this time that her health is improving. She received some money and many beautiful and useful presents. Mrs. White was made very happy by her sisterhood. Her husband, Mr. P. W. White, the worthy master of D. Windle Gooden lodge, U. B. F., was also present.

LINCOLN NEWS NOTES

Rev. W. C. Simmons of St. Louis, Mo., after conducting a few days' revival meetings here for Rev. H. W. Botts at Mt. Zion Baptist Church, left for his home Tuesday.

Rev. M. C. Knight, former pastor of Quinn Chapel A. M. C. Church for five years, but now of Denver, visited Lincoln last week. He delivered a sermon at Mt. Zion Baptist Church last Thursday night.

Mrs. Anna Reinhardt spent Sunday in St. Joseph, Mo.

Mrs. Pinkie Boswell passed away at 4 p. m., Friday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alma Wiley, 1911 K street, after a lingering illness. Mrs. Boswell had been ailing for some months before coming to Lincoln to live with her daughter in September, but had improved. Her chronic ailment caused her to take to bed again, and from which she was unable to regain. The husband, Mr. Mose Boswell, had remained at the bedside since coming to the city. The body of the deceased was shipped to her home in Plattsburg, Mo., for burial, Saturday, being accompanied by the husband, daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wiley, and a friend, Mrs. E. J. Griffin.

Mr. Knowles is yet confined with illness at his home on 8th street.

Rev. H. W. Botts and choir of Mt. Zion Baptist Church broadcasted a very successful service over the radio at Station WCAJ at Wesleyan University Sunday from 2 to 3 o'clock, p. m. Quite a number of persons listened in and gave out congratulations.

Rev. W. C. Simmons did his best in his closing sermons at Mt. Zion Baptist Church Sunday, and we feel that he has left us some lasting messages of the Christ, in which he seemed so earnest.

Rev. S. H. Johnson has been re-appointed to serve the Newman Methodist Church another year.
W. W. MOSLEY.

WHITES SEEK TO BAR SCHOOL FOR NEGROES

St. Louis, Mo.—(By the A. N. P.)—The taxpayers who are trying to restrain the East St. Louis school board from buying land and building a new $100,000 school for Negro children in the northern part of the city, filed an amended bill recently asking for an injunction to prevent the issuance of bonds for the purpose. A former bill asking the school board be prevented from taking up an option on the property is now under advisement by Judge Silas Cook of the East St. Louis city court. The new bill will be argued next week.

LOVETT DEFEATED AT POLLS

Louisville, Ky.—(By the A. N. P.)—Wilson Lovett, president of the First Standard bank, who was a candidate for a seat in the board of education, was defeated at the polls. The odds seemed against Lovett, workers were stationed at the polls to caution the people that Lovett was a Negro, many of these workers being members of the colored race. Only one paper in the city among the race championed his cause, and that one was The Louisville News.

TOM VERDELL STAKS AS NORTHWESTERN WINS

Evanston, Ill.—(By the A. N. P.)—Northwestern defeated Purdue here Saturday by a toe, the margin of victory being one point due to the fact that Northwestern made the kick after the touchdown and Purdue failed.

While to Homer goes the credit of making the touchdown and kicking the goal, the real star of the game was Tom Verdell, the plucky colored lad who is playing off a quick in the game, Homer got end. Early in the game, Verdell with a burst of speed raced down the field, evaded the Purdue safety man and downed the ball on Purdue's one-yard line. This same Verdell rushed the highly touted "Pest" Welch so that he made a short kick which was received by Northwestern on Purdue's 18-yard line. From this point the touchdown was made.

Not only did Verdell figure in this play, but he was in every play during the game, and time and again smeared Welch and Caraway before they could get going.

THREE NEGROES ELECTED TO MISSOURI LEGISLATURE

St. Louis, Mo.—Waltham M. Moore was elected the fourth time a member of the Missouri legislature to represent the Third district. Attorney G. M. Allen was also elected in the same district. Attorney John A. Davis, the retiring member of the legislature, failed for the nomination at the primary. Attorney Freeman L. Martin, who was nominated at the primary in the Fourth district, failed for election.

According to the latest returns from Kansas City, Attorney L. A. Knox won a seat in the Missouri legislature. He was the regular republican nominee from his district.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Final returns in the election show that Samuel B. Hart of the Seventh ward and William H. Sewell of the Thirtieth ward, were re-elected to the legislature. They both are elected for their third terms.

PEACE COMMITTEE ISSUES PAMPHLET

Philadelphia, Pa.—(By the A. N. P.)—An attractive leaflet called "The Message of Peace and Interracial Good Will," containing suggestions for the Negro church, has been issued by the American Interracial Peace committee and the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom. There is a suggested program of activities for Negro churches, and a number of illuminating quotations from great minds.

"PARCEL POST" PARTY PLEASURES PATRONS

The "Parcel Post" party given at the North Side "Y," Thursday night, under the chairmanship of Miss Jempal nie Robinson for St. Philip's repair fund was a unique and pleasant affair. Much merriment resulted when the parcels, which were auctioned off by Dr. Peebles, were opened by the purchasers. Some wish to know what John G. Pegg is going to do with a pair of ladies' garters. They may be suitable as a Christmas gift. A neat sum was realized from the party.
