OPTION DEALS LEGAL.

FEDERAL COURT SUSTAINS THE BOARD OF TRADE CONTRACTS.

United States Circuit Court of Appeals Hands Down Decision in Case Involving Rules of the Chicago and St. Louis Boards of Trade.

The United States circuit court of appeals handed down a decision Thursday upholding the validity of contracts for the purchase or sale of grain for future delivery as it is practiced by the Chicago board of trade and the Merchants' exchange of St. Louis. The case is that of Thomas Cleage, Jr., appellee, against W. H. Laidley and others.

Cleage dealt in about 14,000,000 bushels of grain, and less than 2 percent was delivered. He testified that he did not intend to deliver or receive any grain under his contracts unless forced to do so in order to keep his contracts from being closed out under the rules of the board or the exchange.

The brokers to whom he became indebted filed a creditors' petition in bankruptcy, upon which Cleage was adjudged to be a bankrupt. The bankruptcy was assailed on the ground that Cleage was not legally indebted to any of the alleged creditors for the reason that their claims against him were grounded upon water agreements and were therefore void.

BLOW TO SOCIALISTS.

Thousands of Poor Russians Are Disfranchised.

The chances of the socialists in the coming election of members of the Russian parliament have been dealt a sweeping blow by the interpretation given by the senate to the new election law, which at one stroke disfranchises thousands of the poorer classes. The operating personnel of the railroads and even the locomotive engineers, the most skilled and highest paid labor in Russia, are affected by the interpretation.

Outside of factory workmen the ranks of the socialist party are recruited chiefly from railroad men. This new interpretation is supplementary to the senate's ruling of Oct. 29, from which it was estimated that over half a million persons who voted in the last election had been cut from the election list.

These two rulings together undo to a great extent the extension of the suffrage proclaimed by Count Witte in December of last year. Their object was today frankly avowed by a member of the cabinet to be to rid the electorate of that class of voters which is too easily swayed by the influence of revolutionary agitators. This official, who is one of the few surviving ministers of the old regime, doubted whether either the restriction of suffrage or the execution of Premier Stolypin's program of agrarian, political and religious reforms would be effective in producing a new parliament less oppositional than the first one. Continuing, this member of the cabinet expressed the conviction that it probably would be found necessary to dismiss the new parliament with a shorter shift than the first one and making a sweeping revision in the election law before summoning a third body.

With her bulwarks just awash and her cargo of 400,000 feet of lumber littering the ocean the barkentine was discovered by the flare of her signals of distress, driving across the steamship track 200 miles east of Nantucket, early Tuesday morning. Capt. Schau, of the Mannheim, at once sent a boat, and after a hard struggle the crew was rescued.

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN A CONDENSED FORM.

FREMONT GIRL MISSING—MISS EMMA BROOKS, FOURTEEN YEARS OLD, BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN ENTERED AWAY—SHERIFF IN PARTIALITY—OTHER NEWS.

Emma Brooks, a 14-year-old girl, is missing from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Brooks, of Fremont, and it is believed she has been enticed away by a strange man, with whom she was seen chatting in the city park at 9:30 Saturday night.

Rooming houses of Fremont were searched by the authorities, and Sheriff Bauman went to Omaha in an effort to find the girl.

At 8:30 o'clock Saturday night the Brooks girl, accompanied by Goldie Pollock and Mollie Schneider, left the home of Mr. and Mrs. Schneider to walk to the residence of H. P. Tracy, where Miss Pollock is employed as a domestic. Miss Schneider returned in about half an hour by a strange man, with whom she was seen some time later. Miss Pollock reached the home of Mr. Tracy. Miss Brooks has not been seen since.

According to Miss Schneider the trio were accosted by a young man near the Congregational church, who forced her to get into a car with him, while the other girls walked on. She claims to have returned home alone a few minutes later. Miss Pollock says she and Miss Brooks were accosted by two strangers opposite the Methodist church, and that they were detained there a half hour or more. When she went home, Miss Pollock says, Miss Brooks and one of the strangers were seated on one of the benches at the park.

Late Monday night an officer passing through the Fremont park discovered Furt Wright and the Brooks girl sitting on a bench, and arrested them. The man said that they were out so late Sunday night that Emma was afraid to go home, so they stayed over night with "a friend." When first arrested he was anxious to get away, but by carrying the girl, fully realizing the predicament he was in, Wright was jailed.
