A H Brinkman and S A Hicks each had a shipment of hogs from here last Friday. John Kent was down to the city Tuesday.

Dress shirts in endless styles at Carl Anderson's. Mrs Mary Nordyke arrived here Wednesday for a visit at the home of her son, Art Nordyke.

Ladies slippers in all styles at Carl Anderson's. Henry Rooney is able to be out again, and will take a trip to Colorado after Easter for the benefit of his health.

Herman Renze received a brand new piano Wednesday. The Yeomen lodge will give an Easter ball on Wednesday, April 3rd.

Word was received here this week of the arrival of a 9 pound girl at the home of E W Wilson and wife of Coleridge, on Sunday. Mr Wilson was station agent here for several years and just recently removed to Coleridge.

We have a fine stock of light underwear for the spring trade. Carl Anderson. Gertrude Fair is here from Schuyler on a visit at the B B Gribble home.

Hats for men and boys. All styles and prices, at Carl Anderson's. Mrs M Maloney and two daughters were passengers to the city Wednesday.

We are overstocked with embroideries and are offering them at 50 cents on the dollar, to reduce our stock. Carl Anderson. Dan Hartnett now thinks he has a clue to the discovery of little Horace Marvin, but for fear the guilty party will escape he refuses to divulge any particulars.

WA Caywood is the new depot agent to succeed E W Wilson. Just received, a new supply of glassware. Bring in your discount checks and get your choice of glassware. Carl Anderson.

Henry Cain and George Timlin were passengers to Sioux City Wednesday. George J Boucher, county superintendent, was in this locality Wednesday visiting the schools.

Following is the ticket to be voted on at the village election next Tuesday: Carl Anderson, John Green, T F McGee, Joe Hagan, James Hartnett, T B Long, H F Cain, D C Heffernan, Frank Heener, sr. There are five trustees to be elected—take your choice.

Nordyke always has fresh oysters in bulk. WE McAfee and the Anchor Grain company each had a shipment of stock from here Wednesday. SOUTH HUBBARD HAPPENINGS.

Telephone or no telephone? That is the question. J P Rockwell was a Homer visitor Sunday evening. We have another school ma'am in place of Nellie Hogan who resigned on account of her mother's sickness.

services morning and evening with sermon. A number of priests from outside parishes will be present. M Boler, sr, who has water in his knee joint, had it placed in a cast and is getting along nicely.

M J Beacom, agent for the Atlas elevator company, spent Sunday with his parents at Hubbard. W T Bartlett spent Monday in Ponce.

George Teller returned Monday evening from Rapid City, S D, where he visited his daughter Lizzie, who has a claim near there. H D Thompson and son Lewis left Tuesday for Lea, S D, where they will farm one of A C Carroll's farms this year.

John Siverson, of Pender, was in town Monday night. J M Millen returned from Norfolk, where he was called by the illness and death of his mother. Mrs Dennis, of Ponce, was visiting her daughter, Columbia, here this week.

HOMER. SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE. Small pox still inhabits Blyburg. Jim King received a shipment of eggs from Ohio last week.

Joe Davis returned from Sioux City Wednesday. Mrs Chas Davis and son Francis accompanied him. Mrs Winnie Purdy returned to her home in Minnesota Thursday.

Till Mansfield is on the sick list. Rose Johnson is staying at the T D Curtis home and attending high school. At the last town meeting the saloon license was raised from $1,050 to $2,500.

Geo Wilcox, a former Homer resident but now of Winnebago, was in town Wednesday. Joe Davis is behind the counter in Ashford's store.

Fred Brasfield and wife left for Salem, Oregon, last Thursday expecting to make that their permanent home. The rest of the Brasfield family were there some time ago and are well pleased with the country. Ray Mansfield accompanied them. He has lots of relatives in that neck of the woods.

Sam Brown came in from the ranch Friday and returned Monday. Maurice Larson is on the sick list. Fred Wallup has rented a blacksmith shop at Naocora and took possession last week. He will move his family there soon.

Grace Lake came home from Missouri Tuesday and will go to Rock Rapids Friday to teach school. Born, to Ed Houts and wife, a daughter. Gertrude McKinley and Eva Kinner will become pupils in the National business college in Sioux City next week.

Jimmie Alloway is now located at Primrose, Neb, having accepted a position as second man with the Edwards & Bradford Lumber company. Clair Brown was up from the agency Friday.

Geo Midkiff, who was called to Cass county on account of the serious illness of his father, returned the 20th. His father had a foot taken off and did not recover from the amputation. Now, it seems to me, is the time for the Commercial Club to be up and doing. If the Foyes are going to build cottages at Crystal Lake the Commercial Club should invite Mr Foye to drop the name of Homer in his cars or build to Homer at once so we can have our summer outing resort of our own.

Tilden Harris arrived Saturday from North Dakota. Frank Buckwalter and Dr Stidworthy are rusticated for a while in Denver and Salt Lake. We haven't heard whether they are pleased enough with the Mormons to join them or not. N L Dierup died Thursday last and funeral services were held in the English Lutheran church Saturday. Rev Combs officiating, interment being in the Omaha valley cemetery.

Mrs James Foltz is quite ill with inflammation of the bowels. Her daughter Mollie went home last week on account of her mother's illness. Bennie Holzworth traded guns with a business man of Homer not long ago and as is often the case the business man got the best end of the bargain and Bennie got a bulky gun. Before he found that out he let a friend try it with a view to selling it to him but the friend got a swat in the face that spoiled the sale of the gun. Then Bennie tried it and got a swat in the eye which almost put that member out of commission. Now it's Bennie's turn to get after the business man.

The union temperance meeting in the Assembly church last Sunday afternoon was a failure as far as numbers were concerned. The church people were conspicuous by their absence. We were sorry to see so few, but glad that we went and heard three fine talks on that important question that is so soon to be decided. We surely don't have to bring foreign lecturers to Homer to make us see the evils we have to deal with.

Mrs Audrey Alloway and Mrs Mart Mansfield were passengers north on Monday evening's train. NACORA. SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE. J J McAllister of Dakota City was in this vicinity Monday.

Luey and Tracy Anderson and Peter Romfeld came down from Emerson Sunday afternoon. The farmers around Naocora are busy this week sowing their wheat. Mat Assenmacher was a passenger to the city Tuesday.

Mary Hartly spent Sunday with friends in Emerson. Mrs James Heaney and daughter Laura, were Sioux City passengers Tuesday. W Nugent returned to Jackson Tuesday. He had been in Naocora for the past four months doing blacksmithing.

SALEM. SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE. The majority of the farmers are busily engaged in sowing their wheat. A few from here are planning on attending Queen Esther, to be given by the Homer Choral Union at Jackson, April 5. Raymond Hoch and Jacob Sides are enthusiastic members of the union and take special part in the operas.

Souvenir postals from Milton Foresloe are arriving thick and fast in these parts, all of which show Mr Foresloe is having a howling good time. Mrs Fred Beerman had the misfortune of falling and breaking an arm Sunday.

Revival meetings are being held here the present week, Reva Oberholzer and Eckhart conducting the meetings. The little son of Albert Ramsey and wife has been quite sick but is now on the road to recovery. Fred Culbertson this week disposed of twenty-seven stands of his bees to R A Campbell, of Emerson. He still has enough to supply his family with honey and his children with bee stings.

Grandma Lapsley is quite ill with the grip, and her recovery is doubtful. HOW TO REMAIN YOUNG. To continue young in health and strength, do as Mrs N F Rowan, McDonough, Ga, did. She says: "Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured me of chronic liver and stomach trouble, complicated with such unhealthy condition of the blood that my skin turned red as flame. I am now practically 20 years younger than before I took Electric Bitters. I can now do all my work with ease and assist in my husband's store." Guaranteed at Leslie's drug store. Price 50c.
