

Respect YOUR Stomach

GIVE it food that will not irritate or retard the performance of its natural functions, and it will reciprocate in a way agreeable and comforting.

No single ingredient contributes so largely toward wholesome, nourishing, agreeable food as Royal Baking Powder.

Royal Baking Powder's active ingredient, Grape Cream of Tartar, is the most healthful of the fruit products.

This is why Royal Baking Powder makes the food finer, lighter, more appetizing and anti-dyspeptic, a friend to the stomach and good health.

Imitation Baking Powders Contain Alum

"The use of alum and salts of alumina in food should be PROHIBITED. The constant use of alum compounds exerts a deleterious effect upon the digestive organs and an irritation of the internal organs after absorption.

"EDWARD S. WOOD, M. D.
"Professor of Chemistry
"Harvard Medical School, Boston."

N L Dierup died at his home at 4 o'clock Thursday, March 21, 1907, of pneumonia. Funeral services will be held at the English Lutheran church Saturday, the Rev E H Combs to officiate. He will be buried in the Omaha Valley cemetery.—Homer Free Press.

Franklyn Dunnell, an old pioneer of this vicinity, died at the home of his son, T L Dunnell, in Sioux City, Sunday, March 17, 1907, of apoplexy. The funeral was held at the home of his son, at 1614, Fourth street. The sermon was preached by the Rev R W Chipperfield, after which the body was brought to Homer, on the train Wednesday, and taken to the Groves cemetery, where the Rev J H Smith, administered the last rites of burial, using the beautiful ritual of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Mr Dunnell was born in Millburg, Mass, March 23, 1827, bringing him almost eighty years old at his death. He was a veteran of the civil war, serving his country in Company F, 51st Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry. He came to Nebraska in 1873, and took a homestead, two and one-half miles south of Homer, now occupied by Jay McEntaffer, and lived in this community up to about seven years ago, when his wife died and he went to live with his son at whose home he died.

He was both well and favorably known, and being himself an old soldier, six of his old comrades acted as pall bearers. They were: S P Barnes, John Welker, Hand Rockwell, S A Combs, W H Clapp, David Waterman and Bert Lake.—Homer Free Press.

Merritt James Tunnelliff was born in the village of Warren, in Herkimer county, New York, August 5, 1846. He departed this life March 21, 1907, at the age of 60 years, 7 months and 16 days, the cause of death being rheumatism and hernia, with which he had been afflicted for years.

Mr Tunnelliff had lived in Dakota county for 18 years, most of that time on Walker's Island. He was a much respected citizen, always about doing what good he could and doing among his neighbors made vacant by his death will be much regretted.

Mr Tunnelliff served in the civil war as a private soldier, a member of Company F, 147th Illinois infantry. His record as a soldier was a good one, never missing a days duty.

He was married in 1868 to Miss Romina S Woodcock at Antwerp, Ohio. Of this union there survive him, the widow and three children: Mrs Eva Waddell, Edward A Tunnelliff, Mrs Hanna Kerum, the latter of West Union, Minn, and all were at his bedside as he passed away.

The funeral will take place from the home at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Interment will be made in the Taylor cemetery near Homer.—South Sioux City Record.

Martin Lockwood, for a number of years a furniture dealer in South Sioux City, and its postmaster up to four years ago, died at his home, 1756 West Thirty-sixth street, Denver, Colorado, early Tuesday morning, March 19, 1907. Word of the sad event was sent to the Record by Mrs Lockwood in the single statement that "he fell Monday night about nine o'clock and never regained consciousness and died at 11:45 Tuesday morning."

No arrangements for the funeral had been made when Mrs Lockwood wrote. Her son, Hillard P Lockwood, who is in San Antonio, Texas, was expected to arrive in Denver Thursday afternoon and until his arrival no arrangements would be made.

Mr Lockwood was a pioneer resident of Northeastern Nebraska. For years he conducted a store in Martinsburg, in Dixon county. He moved to South Sioux City in 1890 and bought the building now owned by The Record and conducted a furniture store in it until eight years ago when he was appointed postmaster, which position he later resigned to move to Denver. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and an ardent and well posted Mason. He possessed a most lovable disposition and every one who knew him was his friend. The news of his death will cause general regret here where he was so well known and the sympathy of the entire community will be extended to the bereaved family.

Deceased leaves a widow and two sons and two daughters, Hillard P and Charles E Lockwood, Mrs George Lamb of San Jose, California, and Miss Nettie Lockwood.—South Sioux City Record.

Absolute Safety This is the key note that pervades every detail of business done here.

We offer our customers every convenience, every favor, EVERYTHING consistent with safe banking, nothing more. Whoever borrows from us, be he friend or foe, friend or relative, the richest or poorest, our largest or smallest depositor, cannot get a single dollar unless we feel absolutely SURE that that dollar and interest will be repaid. In twenty-one years past, loaning some millions of dollars, less than fifty dollars has been lost and we confidently expect to collect even that, in time. So, ask any favor of us we can grant and it is yours, but you cannot get one dollar on a poor note, no matter what your standing or claims.
