Items of Interest from our Exchanges

Thurston Gazette: Mr and Mrs Chas Peterson were down to Nacora Sunday visiting relatives.

Hartington News: Mrs C P Garvey and daughter went to Jackson Wednesday for a visit with relatives.

Albaton items in Sloan, Io, Star: Ed Bakke and De-mas Koon were over from Homer, Neb, the first of the week.

Sergeant Bluff items in Sloan, Io, Star: Bert Hodge, of Jackson, Neb, spent Sunday and Monday with friends here.

Badger Lake items in Sloan, Io, Star: Rev Johnson, of Homer, Neb, and Mr Emmick, from north of Albaton, were at Lossing M E church Sunday.

Sioux City Journal, 26: Melville C Beck, who is an assistant attorney in the office of T F B-vington, has filed a petition for a divorce from Nettie C Beck. He alleges she willfully deserted him over two years ago.

Pender R-public: Mr and Mrs L L Ream visited relatives at Walthill over Sunday. E J Smith of Homer was in Pender on business last Saturday. Mrs Ream of Walthill visited the Ream home in Pender the latter part of last week.

Sloan, Io, Star: Dr Oliver Fisher last week received papers granting a patent on a "universal clamp" recently invented by the doctor. The clamp is designed primarily as a fastener for stove pipe joints, trunks, valises, etc, but may be used for nearly any purpose where a quickly adjusted and absolutely certain fastener is required. The doctor has received a number of flattering offers for his invention but has not yet accepted any of them.

Sioux City Daily Journal, 1st: A remonstrance against the saloon of Sherman Ennis, of South Sioux City, was filed last night by Messrs Woodcock Wolf and others with the town's board of trustees, of which Capt R A Talbot is chairman. The remonstrance was read and placed on file. The decision of the board will be made at the next regular meeting of that body. The Ennis saloon is the only one in the town.

Sioux City Tribune, 26: DIED—In Sioux City, Io, April 26, 1907, Lena Hall daughter of Mr and Mrs J E Hall, who live two miles north of Logan Park cemetery on the Broken Kettle road, aged 13 years, of peritonitis. Deceased was taken ill only a few days ago and was brought to the Samaritan hospital for an operation. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, at the residence Rev S R Beatty, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, officiating. Interment in Logan Park cemetery.

Sioux City Journal, 29th: The South Sioux City Commercial club was unsuccessful in its effort to secure the location of one of the Nebraska junior normal schools at the suburb across the river. State Superintendent McEwen has designated the following locations: Alma, Alliance, Broken Bow, Geneva, McCook, North Platte, O'Neill and Valentine. Alma was selected instead of Holdrege, where a normal met last year. The two new junior normals created by the last legislature were located at Geneva and O'Neill.

Sioux City Daily News let: The members of the Social Doves club took the 9 o'clock train Tuesday morning and enjoyed an all day meeting with Mrs Nell Schmed in Dakota City. The gentleman escorted the party to the home of the hostess, where at 1 o'clock dinner was served. Place cards written backwards caused no little amusement. At roll call, during the business session, each member acted in pantomime, the others to guess his identity. Guessing contests, a musical program and light refreshments during the afternoon closed a pleasant day for the women.

Lyon's Mirror: Monroe McEntaffer, of Emerson, is working on the new school house. John L Nixon, brother of Mrs W G Waite and brother-in-law of Mrs M M Warner, was here on a visit yesterday from Homer. F D Wilson was down from Homer Saturday. He was accompanied by L R Clement, who is clerking in a store at Homer, where one of the partners, Joseph Goram, is a son-in-law of John Buddy of this place. Leon Beam and wife were in Lyon Monday en route home from a visit to Walthill. Mr Beam is the second youngest son of the late Henry Beam who crossed the Missouri river as one of the first white explorers to Dakota county, May 1, 1855. Tim O'Connor was down from Homer Thursday on business out at the J H Wilson farm. Mr O'Connor and the editor were school boys together at old Spring Grove school away back in the dim and misty past. He is a son of Mr and Mrs Captain O'Connor, while Mrs O'Connor still resides on the old farm, east of Homer and will celebrate the 90th anniversary of her arrival in Nebraska, May, 17, 1817.

Omaha Bee, 27: The United States circuit court of appeals has just issued mandate affirming the decision of Judge W H Mueger in the case of Edward H Chapman and others against school district No. 11 of Dakota county, Nebraska, whereby the plaintiff was awarded judgment of $6,924.19 in a school bond controversy. School bonds to the amount of $22,000 were issued by the school district for the purpose of erecting school buildings, but it appears that a normal school was built rather than a public school, to which some of the taxpayers of the district objected. A portion of the bonds were purchased by William Postwick, who died sometime thereafter, and his administrators, Chapman and others brought suit to recover on the bonds after default had been made in payment. The school district resisted the payment of the bonds on the ground that the money resulting from the sale of the bonds had been diverted to other purposes than originally intended, and put up the further defense that the bonds were illegally issued, the election fraudulent and the entire proceedings were otherwise invalid and of no effect. The case finally came to the United States circuit court before Judge Mueger and on August 17, 1904, a judgment was rendered in favor of Chapman for $6,924.19. The school district appealed the case and the mandate just received from the circuit court of appeals affirms the judgment of the lower court and the school district will have to pay up.

Sioux City Journal, 27: Comparison in the rate of taxation on farm land in Dakota county, Neb, and Woodbury county Io, was made yesterday by a prominent real estate and farm land dealer who was compiling statistics on the subject of taxation in Sioux City and Woodbury county. The Orr estate owns a farm of 221 acres in Dakota county, which is located along the river below the Northwestern railroad bridge. It was noted that the taxes on this farm for 1907 amounted to $132.87, or 60 cents an acre. The same estate recently sold to Frank L Hagan a farm of 275 acres south of Morning Side, the taxes upon which for this year amounted to $124.70, or 45 cents an acre. Judgment in the sum of $588.33 was rendered against C G McNeil by a jury in Judge Oliver's division of the district court. The evidence showed that Mrs Mary Ryan Mullally, of Jackson, Neb, had given McNeil money for investment purposes. A letter from McNeil to Mrs Mullally was introduced in evidence. In it he offered to give her his notes for $543.75 in settlement of her claim against him. The plaintiff presented this letter as proof of her claim for that amount. In McNeil's answer to the original petition he set up the gambling defense, holding that the plaintiff could not recover because of the gambling nature of the transaction. On the witness stand, under the cross examination of F E Gill, however, he testified that he had actually bought grain with Mrs Ryan's money, and that the $543.75 mentioned in his letter to her was the proceeds of the sale of that same grain. The title of the case was W T Stafford vs C G McNeil, Mrs Ryan having assigned her title to claim to Mr Stafford. The amount of the verdict is about $30 more than the instructions of the court warranted. The verdict may be set aside, but it is understood that Mr Stafford will accept the amount of his original claim.
