

Not a drop of Alcohol

Doctors prescribe very little, if any, alcohol these days. They prefer strong tonics and alteratives. This is all in keeping with modern medical science. It explains why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is now made entirely free from alcohol. Ask your doctor. Follow his advice.

Ayer's

Unless there is daily action of the bowels, poisonous products are absorbed, causing headache, biliousness, nausea, dyspepsia. We wish you would ask your doctor about correcting your constipation by taking laxative doses of Ayer's Pills.

The Herald for all the news:

Summer Niebuhr has gone to Thurston, Neb. to operate a barber shop.

Mrs J. C. McKernan went to Hawarden, Ia., last Friday to visit her brother.

Don't forget Brenn's coffee—it is still in the lead. For sale at Van de Zedde's.

Geo McBeath and wife, of Homer, were Sunday guests at the Harry H Adair home.

Mrs Georgia Jay and daughter Aileen returned Saturday to their home at Kansas City.

Mrs Ellen Wheeler and son, of Platt, S. D., were guests of Grandpa Leedom and wife the past week.

Georgia Niebuhr and Jennie Tennent left for Peru, Neb., Monday to attend the normal school as students.

Will Phillips has returned from Colorado, where he spent the summer with James Spencer on a claim near Hoyt.

Misses Bess and Perle Stinson returned Monday evening from a three weeks' visit with relatives at Garnett, Kansas.

Gilda Sayer drove over to Lawton, Ia., and spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Bookhart.

Mrs Rasmus Fredrickson and little daughter, of Homer, were guests at the home of Sheriff H. C. Hansen Thursday and Friday.

Thos Sullivan, John Daley, T. J. Hartnett and others were down from Jackson Tuesday on business pertaining to the proposed ditch.

Mrs M. J. Birchell, sister of G. W. Sayer, returned to her home at Belgrade, Neb., this week, having spent a couple of weeks visiting hereabouts.

If you intend to paint give us a call. We handle the Minnesota Linsseed Oil Paint, gold subject to chemical analysis. Guaranteed the best paint made. Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Chas Bates and family went to Bassett, Neb., Monday, where Charley expects to ply his trade as a plasterer. They will also visit Mrs Bates' relatives, the Smiths, who reside in that locality.

Geo Linsfelter, of St. John's precinct, was here Monday in attendance at district court. He expects to move to South Dakota about the first of next year, where he has purchased a farm near Alpena.

Louis Larson and wife went over to Lawton, Ia., to visit at the Gas Bartels home over Sunday. They report Mr Bartels as having one of the finest farms in that locality, well stocked with cattle, hogs and sheep.

O. M. Gray, who is operating his threshing machine in this vicinity, reports the yield of small grain not up to the average. While some fields are turning out a fair yield many are falling considerably below the normal.

Wash Leedom and wife of Dixon, S. D., visited at the old home here a few days the past week. Wash had been to Lincoln to accompany the remains of R. H. Kuhn, who died at Chamberlain, S. D., last Tuesday, and which were shipped to Lincoln for interment.

What is the use to experiment when you can get the purest, cleanest and best of bread made in Sioux City, and baked to order for Van de Zedde, who has handled it for the past thirty years in this town and knows what good bread is, as he is an old baker himself, and knows when he has a good article. Fresh every day, except Sunday.

The regular fall term of district court convened in this place Monday. Judge A. A. Welab, of Wayne, occupied the bench for Judge Guy T. Graves. Nothing of particular importance was done during the short session, which lasted only part of the day. The McNamara divorce case was postponed until the adjourned term, owing to the absence of Judge R. E. Evans, attorney for Mrs. McNamara, who is in Pennsylvania on a visit. The Homer saloon case came on for hearing, but owing to a deficiency in the transcript the case was held over and as soon as the attorneys get the matter arranged Judge Welsh will return and hear the case.

What is the use to experiment when you can get the purest, cleanest and best of bread made in Sioux City, and baked to order for Van de Zedde, who has handled it for the past thirty years in this town and knows what good bread is, as he is an old baker himself, and knows when he has a good article. Fresh every day, except Sunday.

The regular fall term of district court convened in this place Monday. Judge A. A. Welab, of Wayne, occupied the bench for Judge Guy T. Graves. Nothing of particular importance was done during the short session, which lasted only part of the day. The McNamara divorce case was postponed until the adjourned term, owing to the absence of Judge R. E. Evans, attorney for Mrs. McNamara, who is in Pennsylvania on a visit. The Homer saloon case came on for hearing, but owing to a deficiency in the transcript the case was held over and as soon as the attorneys get the matter arranged Judge Welsh will return and hear the case.
