

Coughs of Children

Especially night coughs. Nature needs a little help to quiet the irritation, control the inflammation, check the progress of the disease. Our advice is—give the children Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask your doctor if this is his advice also. He knows best. Do as he says.

If you think constipation is of trifling consequence, just ask your doctor. He will disabuse you of that notion in short order. "Correct it, at once!" he will say. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. A mild liver pill, all vegetable.

Sleep

Sleep is nature's rebuilding period, when the energy used by the brain, muscles and organs is renewed. If you lose sleep, your system is robbed of the strength sleep should give. Continued loss of sleep multiplies this loss until you become a physical wreck. Dr. Miles' Nervine quiets the irritated nerves and brings refreshing, invigorating sleep. Nervine contains no opiates, and therefore leaves no bad after-effects.

"For over two years I suffered untold agonies; my friends thought I was going crazy. I could not sleep nor rest at all. I tried different doctors, but failed to find relief. My head would ache all the time; I was like one drunk; could not concentrate my mind, and was so restless and worried that sleep was out of the question. After taking one bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine I felt wonderfully changed. I am now on my third bottle and am gaining all the time. I can lie down and sleep like a child, and am able to do my work."
MRS. MAX SCOTT, English, Ind.
Your druggist sells Dr. Miles' Nervine, and we authorize him to return price of first bottle (only) if it fails to benefit you.

Two Lives Lost in Fire.

A disastrous fire occurred at South Sioux City last Friday night about midnight when the old Gramenz saloon building in the block west of the livery stable burned to the ground. The horrible part of the affair was the burning of two people, who were unable to escape their way to liberty through the smoke and fire. The two who lost their lives were Ed Streeter, proprietor of the place, which was run as a boarding and rooming house, and Albert Albertson, a boarder, who was employed by the Consumers Ice company. Both men were awakened, seemingly in time to make their escape, but for some reason failed to find an exit and were burned to death. The Streeter family lived in the second story of the building, the lower story being vacant. When the fire was first noticed by the conductor and motorman of the Sioux City Traction company's car the flames were just starting in the south end of the building where the stairway enters the building, but before the people in the vicinity could be aroused and get to the scene of the fire the stairway was cut off by the flames and it was impossible for the eleven roomers who occupied the upper story of the building to escape by the stairway. The sleepers were aroused by throwing bricks through the windows, and those who escaped did so by jumping from the second story windows. Nearly all who leaped from the windows were badly bruised and maimed, but were lucky even at that to escape with their lives. Saturday morning after the ashes became cool enough a search was made for the missing men and their charred bodies were soon found in the cellar and were removed to the city hall. Coroner B F Sawyer took charge of the remains, but deemed an inquest unnecessary, and on Monday afternoon they were interred in the Dakota City cemetery.

Speculation is rife as to the cause of the fire. Mrs John Barnett, who resided in the building with her parents, asserted as did also Mrs Streeter, that John Barnett set the building on fire out of spite toward his wife, with whom he has had no end of trouble. The case is being investigated by County Attorney F S Berry and Sheriff J P Rockwell, and if a clue can be found that will substantiate a case, arrests will follow in short order.

Some Girls We Have Known.

We knew a girl once who turned up her nose every time a farmer was mentioned and declared she never would marry a farmer. She was a farmer's daughter and is still unmarried, though past forty. The last we heard of her she was sneering a renting farmer, a widower with four children, for breach of promise.

Another girl of our early acquaintance declared that she would never associate with a "hired girl." Last time we saw her she was doing a washing and scrubbing for a neighbor woman, a former "hired girl," while her husband was in another town attending a circus with one of his lady friends.

Then we knew a girl who vowed that "the lips that touch liquor should never touch her's," and she married a man who took the Keeley cure twice, spent six months in an inebriate hospital and finally went to jail for bootlegging, while she eloped with his bartender.

One time a girl told us that she "just hated kids" and would never even think of bringing one into the world. She married a healthy German and is now a contented mother of twelve.

And we knew a real live girl once who said she would never marry unless she got a rich man and could love him truly. She married a wealthy banker and seems to be the happiest woman in the world.
