At Jamestown.

A newly married couple was taking in the Jamestown Exposition.

"There's our biggest man-of-war, dear," said the husband, pointing to one of the vessels in the harbor.

Just then a little tug was seen puffing around the big ship.

"And is the little one a tug-of-war, Tom?" asked the wife.—Success Magazine.

"There was a children's hospital in New York which a society lady visited regularly, taking fruit and flowers to the little patients, and in a certain ward a boy was pointed out to her one day as a bad customer.

"Oh, he is incorrigible," sighed the nurse.

"Miss Society talked a while with the little chap, and when she arose to go she said:

"See here, I have heard bad reports about you. Now, I want you to promise me to be good. If you are good for a whole week, I'll give you a dollar when I come again next Thursday."

"The boy promised to try to be good. This promise, though, he did not keep. On her next visit Miss Society, going to his cot, said:

"I shall not ask the nurses how you have behaved this last week. I want you to tell me yourself. Now, what do you think—do you deserve that dollar I promised you or not?"

"The boy regarded Miss Society with a troubled frown. Then he said in a low voice:

"(Gimme a nickel!"—New York Tribune.

The Land of Paradox.

China is the land of paradox. If it is an absolute, despotic monarchy, it is also a very democratic country, with its self-made men, its powerful public opinion, and a "states' rights" question of its own. It is one of the most corrupt of nations; on the other hand, the standard of personal and commercial honesty is probably higher in China than in any other country in the world. Woman in China, is made to serve; her status is so low that it would be a discourtesy even to ask a man if he has a daughter; yet the ablest ruler China has had in many centuries is a woman. It is a land where the women wear socks and trousers, and the men wear stockings and robes; where a man shakes his own hand, not yours; where white, not black, is a sign of mourning; where the compass points south, not north; where books are read backward, not forward; where names and titles are put in reverse order, as in our directories.—Theodore Roosevelt would be Roosevelt Theodore in China. Uncle Sam would be Sam Uncle; where fractions are written upside down, as 8-5, not 5/8; where a bride wails bitterly at a wedding, and a man laughs when he tells you of his mother's death.—Success Magazine.

He Knew Them.

Once at an important function at Marlborough House, Sir Francis Knollys came up to the Prince of Wales and remarked, "Some gentlemen of the press wish admission, your royal highness."

"Oh," said the prince, "show them in. If they don't come in at the door, they'll come in at the ventilator."

Red seems to be the most popular of national colors, if flags may be used as criterions. Of the twenty-five leading national flags nineteen have red in them. No other color is so much used.

Sermons of the Week

Religion.—Religion is not regulative, it is inspirational.—Rev. Frank Crane, Congregationalist, Worcester, Mass.

Love of God.—The moment a man has in his heart love for God, that moment he has a religion.—Rev. Daniel H. Overton, Presbyterian, Brooklyn.

Home.—Just as Jesus touched the water and turned it into wine, so He touches the domestic life of the world, and home becomes the best word in the English language.—Rev. F. E. Hopkins, Baptist, Chicago.

Clear Opinions.—We believe that one clear opinion which has life in it, made practicable and usable, has more power for God and good to men than columns of speculation.—Rev. T. H. McConnell, Presbyterian, Chicago.

Dancing.—I see no reason why Christian people should not dance, if they dance in proper places, with proper company, at proper times, and in a proper manner.—Rev. J. L. Seudder, Congregationalist, Jersey City.

Activity.—Activity is one of the best antidotes for sorrow. We relieve our suffering hearts by turning the floods of grief upon the wheels of practical and beneficent activity.—Rev. J. L. Hillman, Methodist, Cleveland.

Bible History.—No serious criticism has affected one iota of the Bible's intrinsic value, and those who treat it with flippant scorn only reveal their ignorance of its history.—Rev. A. W. Arundel, Episcopalian, Pittsburg.

The Triumph.—Life has its tragedies, but were it not for the tragedy there could be no triumph. God meant your life to be triumphant, and He will help you make it so.—Rev. J. M. Warkley, Congregationalist, Denver.

The United Press.—If the enormous power tied up in the united press of the country were turned loose upon the evils of our great cities, they would vanish and for a time at least you would virtually live in heaven.—Rev. F. A. Strough, Congregationalist, Pawtucket, R. I.

Religion.—There are those who tell us that interest in religion is on the wane. That is a great mistake. Religion is the supreme concern of man's heart. Men are not tired of God. They will hear you gladly if you have something to tell them about God.—Rev. J. B. White, Baptist, Atlanta.

Public Office.—We need men we can absolutely trust in important official positions. Let a few more craven cowards, flatterer politicians, superficial coxcombs and fawning lackeys be retired and fill positions of trust by men who are known to be noble, brave and holy.—Rev. John Thompson, Methodist, Chicago.

Church Monopoly.—The day has passed when any church can claim to have a monopoly of truth; no church has a right to call itself the true church; no church has the right to call itself "The Church" as one of the smallest of religious bodies in America does.—Rev. R. S. McArthur, Baptist, New York City.

Heavy Burdens.—The burden of the human heart makes all the world akin. No time, no circumstance, can relieve mankind of this. When Jesus cries, "Come unto me all ye weary and heavy laden," He means the whole world. For all the world is heavily laden.—Rev. H. E. Robbins, Episcopalian, Anacosta, Mont.

Obscure Heroes.—While the world little appreciates the heroism of those who serve in obscure places, it is a comfort to reflect that God, who looketh not upon the outward appearance, but upon the heart, says: "He that is faithful in that that is least is faithful also in much."—Rev. T. S. McWilliams, Presbyterian, Cleveland.

Symbols.—Nature is sacramental; it is the outward and visible sign of inward spirituality. Water, food and sleep are great facts in this world, but they are only signs of greater things. Water is symbolic of the washing of the soul; meat, of feeding on Christ, and sleep, of death and the journey to the other world.—Rev. G. F. Seymour, Disciple, Springfield.

God's Love.—The world does have its maxims, human friendships have been glorified, and Hebrew writers have dealt with love, but the world has not dealt with a love like His, for it has never been able to conceive of it. The old code of ethics of the Hebrews was the highest the world had ever had, but its keyword was "righteousness" and not love.—Rev. H. S. Bradley, Baptist, Atlanta.

Lack of Faith.—Lack of faith in our own work will kill absolutely any faith others may have in our ultimate success. The old proverb says, "Rats will leave a sinking ship." All our friends and associates will leave us as quickly as they can if they know get into their minds the thought that we ourselves feel that we are certainly doomed to failure.—Rev. F. D. Talmage, Presbyterian, Los Angeles.

Reversed.—The foreign visitors to China had asked to see a native execution and the governor of the province, for a consideration, had consented to oblige them. "Have mercy, your highness," wailed the wretched criminals, as they cringed before the governor. "Have we no chance?"

"None whatever," responded his highness, cheerfully. "It's a case of 'rats I win, heads you lose.'"—Bokumian.

She is Calico.—"Your husband, the poet, must take great pleasure in seeing himself in print."

"Yes, but if he'd get a job I might have the pleasure of seeing myself in something better than print."—Kansas City Times.

So many good husbands have pale, sickly-looking wives.

DO YOU KNOW WHAT WHITE LEAD IS?

White Lead is the standard paint material all over the world. It is made by corroding metallic lead into a white powder, through exposing it to the fumes of weak acetic acid and carbonic acid gas; this powder is then ground, and mixed with linseed oil, making a thick paste, in which form it is packed and sold for painting purposes. The painter thins it down to the proper consistency for application by the addition of more linseed oil.

The above refers, of course, to pure, genuine White Lead only. Adulterated and fake "White Lead," of which there are many brands on the market, is generally some sort of composition containing only a percentage of white lead—sometimes no White Lead at all; in such stuff, barytes or ground rock, chalk, and similar cheap substances are used to make bulk and imitate the appearance of pure White Lead.

There is, however, a positive test by which the purity or impurity of White Lead may be proved or exposed, before painting with it.

The blow-pipe flame will reduce pure white lead to metallic lead. If a supposed white lead be thus tested, and it only partially reduces to lead, leaving a residue, it is proof that something else was there besides white lead.

The National Lead Company guarantee all White Lead sold in packages bearing its "Dutch Boy Painter" trade-mark to prove absolutely pure under this blow-pipe test, and that you may make the test yourself in your own home, they will send free upon request a blow-pipe and everything else necessary to make the test, together with a valuable booklet on paint. Address: National Lead Company, Woodbridge Building, New York.

The passengers were suddenly startled by a shower of rice that fell from the bride's parasol when she took it from the rack. The bridegroom, a dark, stalwart chap, observing the smiles, placed his arm about his blushing bride, and then faced the passengers with the following remarks:

"I reckon there ain't no need for me to say we ain't been married long; but I can tell you all one thing. You don't want to smile any more than the parrot; for she's my violet and I'm her sheltering oak, and I weighs two hundred and eight pounds!"—Success Magazine.

WESTERN CANADA CROPS CAN NOT BE CHECKED.

Oats Yielded 90 Bushels to the Acre.

The following letter, written the Dominion Government Commissioner of Emigration, speaks for itself. It proves the story of the agents of the government that on the free homesteads offered by the government it is possible to become comfortably well off in a few years:

Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg:

Dear Sir—It is with pleasure that I reply to your request. Some years ago I took up a homestead for myself and also one for my son. The half section which we own is situated between Rouleau and Drinkwater, adjoining the Moose Jaw Creek; is a low level and heavy land. We put in 70 acres of wheat in stubble, which went 20 bushels to the acre, and 30 acres of summer fallow, which went 25 bushels to the acre. All the wheat we harvested this year is No. 1 hard. That means the best wheat that can be raised on the earth. We did not sell any wheat yet, as we intend to keep one part for our own seed, and sell the other part to people who want first-class seed, for there is no doubt if you sow good wheat you will harvest good wheat. We also threshed 9,000 bushels of first-class oats out of 100 acres. Eighty acres has been fall plowing, which yielded 90 bushels per acre, and 90 acres stubble, which went 30 bushels to the acre. These oats are the best kind that can be raised. We have shipped three car loads of them, and got 53 cents per bushel clear. All our grain was cut in the last week of the month of August before any frost could touch it.

Notwithstanding the fact that we have had a late spring, and that the weather conditions this year were very adverse and unfavorable, we will make more money out of our crop this year than last.

For Western I feel compelled to say that unless Canada crops cannot be checked, even by unusual conditions. I am, dear sir, yours truly,

(Signed) A. KALTENBRUNNER.

FIFTEEN YEARS OF ECZEMA.

Terrible Itching Prevented Sleep—Arms and Legs Ache—Cuticura Cured in 6 Days.

"I had eczema nearly fifteen years. The affected parts were my hands, arms and legs. They were the worst in the winter time, and were always itchy, and I could not keep from scratching them. I had to keep both hands bandaged all the time, and at night I would have to tear everything off my hands to scratch the skin. I could not rest or sleep. I had several physicians treat me but they could not give me a permanent cure nor even could they stop the itching. After using the Cuticura Ointment, one box of Cuticura Resolvent for about six days the itching had ceased, and now the sores have disappeared, and I never felt better in my life than I do now. Edward Worell, Band 30th U. S. Infantry, Fort Crook, Nebraska."

I AM A MOTHER

How many American women in lonely homes to-day long for this blessing to come into their lives, and to be able to utter these words, but because of some organic derangement this happiness is denied them.

Every woman interested in this subject should know that preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by the use of

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. Maggie Gilmer, of West Union, S. C., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I was greatly run-down in health from a weakness peculiar to my sex, when Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. It not only restored me to perfect health, but to my delight I am a mother."

Mrs. Josephine Hall, of Bardstown, Ky., writes:

"I was a very great sufferer from female troubles, and my physician failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound not only restored me to perfect health, but I am now a proud mother."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, LYDIA E. PINKHAM, 2300 Essex St., Lowell, Mass.
