Sieverson had gone to some expense in building a vault and remodeling the hotel building for office rooms, and will now carry the matter to the supreme court.

Did it ever occur to you that man's life is full of crosses and temptations? Refreshments and music and dancing He comes into the world without his consent and goes out against his will, and the trip between the two is exceedingly rocky. The rule of contra-rics is one of the features of the trip. When he is little the big girls kiss him and when he is grown the little girls kiss him. If he is poor he is a bad manager, if he is rich he is dishonest. If he needs credit he can't get it, if he is prosperous everyone wants to do him a favor. If he is in and he is no good to his country. If cuss, if he does it is for show. If he is actively religious he is a hypocrite, if he takes no interest in religion he is a hardened sinner. If he gives affection he is a soft specimen, if he care for no one he is cold blooded If he dies young there was a great future before him, if he lives to an old age he has missed his calling. The road is rocky nois, her husband and many friends by but man loves to travel it, and after all there is a good deal of satisfaction, especially if ue is a subscriber of The Herald and has his subscription paid in advance.

It costs a country newspaper money every time it takes a stand on any question, says an exchange. Almost any other citizen can do it without injuring his business, because he is not put on record. When a newspaper publishes anything its black and white and no way to get around it. If the editor advocates improvement the mossbacks go after him and sometimes stop their paper. If he opposes imon his frame and call him a back number. If he boosts the churches, the Irwin here After doing a good liberal elements call him crazy and if and if he doesn't he gets it in the neck from those who look for short items. I be publishes politics the opposition gets into his nair and if he doesn't he for his opinion.
