The footprints of dyspepsia have been directly traced to the stomach nerves. When these "inside nerves" fail, indigestion and stomach distress must surely result. For this, druggists everywhere are applying a prescription known as Dr Shoop's Restorative. First, these tiny inside stomach, heart, and kidney nerves fail. Then gas belching, heart palpitation, or failing kidneys follow. Don't drug the stomach, or stimulate the heart or kidneys. That is wrong. Strengthen these failing nerves with Dr Shoop's Restorative. It is the nerves, not the organs that are calling for help. Within 48 hours after starting the Restorative treatment, you will realize the gain. A test will tell. Sold by all dealers.

Happily Wedded
The marriage of Miss Bridget Greeno to Lucian Dineen, both of Sioux City, which occurred on Wednesday last week at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr and Mrs George Hayes, near Hubbard, was an event in which many Sioux City friends were interested, and a number of relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom drove over to Hubbard in the early hours of the clear, cool August morning to be present on the happy occasion. The marriage was performed in the Catholic church at Hubbard, which was decorated with flowers. Wm Hayes, Jas Green and Thos Hayes, cousins of the bride, acted as ushers. Miss Bridget Green, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march. Miss Bridget Hayes was bridesmaid and Timothy Dineen, brother of the groom, was best man. The bridesmaid, wearing a dainty gown of white organdy with a large white rosette, and carrying La France roses, preceded the bride, who entered the church on her brother's arm. The bride's gown was of blue opera batiste with deep ruffles and trimming of Valenciennes lace of exquisite fineness. The skirt was finished in deep flounce and a beautiful large rosette completed the bridal effect. The bride wore a diamond ring, the gift of the groom, and carried bride's roses.

The ceremony, performed by Rev J E English, was very impressive and was followed by a nuptial mass, after which the guests drove to the Geo R Hayes home. The scenes at that old country home, with its background of wooded bluff touched with the glory of summer, recalled to the guests other happy events there in former years and the free-hearted hospitality then dispensed. Mr and Mrs Dineen, after receiving the congratulations and best wishes of the guests, led the way to the dining room where the wedding breakfast was served. The beautifully appointed table was decorated in wedding colors, and a large shower bouquet of roses and ferns was suspended from the ceiling over the center of the table. The breakfast was served by the Misses Marie and Nora Hayes and Mary O'Connor. Seventy-five guests were served, to which the charm of music was lent by a harpist from Sioux City, and afterwards all enjoyed a delightful afternoon with instrumental and vocal music in which the guests joined in chorus and informal dancing to the music of the harp.

Many beautiful gifts were received, including silver, cut glass, hand painted china and books which will grace their new home. The bridal couple left in the afternoon for Omaha, Kansas City, New York and other eastern points, where they expect to meet Mrs Dineen's sister who is on her way from Europe. The guests assembled on the lawn and gave them an enthusiastic farewell.
The groom is a widely known and highly esteemed business man and is the youngest son of J C Dineen, the pioneer wagonmaker of Sioux City. The bride is a niece of Geo R Hayes, a prominent farmer of Hubbard precinct. The newly wedded couple will be at home to their many friends after September 15th, in Sioux City, Iowa.

More Live Stock Coming to the Fair.
The management of the Interstate Fair, Sioux City, Iowa, say that they have a few stalls in the horse and cattle barns that have not yet been spoken for. The same is also true of the pens in the hog department. It is high time, however, that those who expect to exhibit at the fair make space reservation for their stock. It appears there is a greater demand for barn room this year than there ever has been before, and that the exhibits will be unusually large. A number of breeders who have not shown at Sioux City in former years have signified their intention of doing so this year. Representatives of the leading beef breeds, such as Short-horn, Herefords, Aberdeen Angus, Galowsays, Polled Durhams and Red Polls will be on exhibition. There will also be a number of herds of special purpose dairy cattle such as Jerseys, Holsteins and Guernseys. The fair opens Monday, September 7th, and closes on Saturday, September 12th.

The Democrats prate loudly about campaign publicity. Republican Nebraska has a publicity law which the Republican State Committee observes to the letter, while the Bryan democracy, through "Brother-in-Law Tom" and "Cowboy Jim," ignores the law. Treasurer Sheldon of the Republican National Committee declares that he will publish all campaign contributions received by him; thus complying with the New York law. With the Republicans, campaign publicity is now a fact; with the Democrats, it is a promise supported by a failure to perform.
