Superintendent O'Brien, of the state fish hatcheries, was here a couple of lays this week and with assistants seined the shallow waters of Silver late, rescuing about 1:0 game fish and transferring them to Crystal lake. He also hauled six wagon loads of buffalo and carp fish from Silver lake and lumped them in the Missouri river. Owing to the mud it was impossible to rescue all the fish and it is estimated that only one-half of them were taken out. The balance will be killed by the first freezing weather. Mr. O'Brien brought his car with him and in it had 500 crapples and 2,060 fock bass, which were put in Crystal lake.

Funeral services will be held at Morse Bluff on Tuesday, when the dead man will be buried.

Sioux City Journal, 28: Jepson & Jepson, of Sioux City, are interested in the action of the supreme court of Nebraska in sustaining the demurrer that was filled to the issuance of an original writ of mandamus in a Dakota county ditch matter. The board of supervisors denied a petition filed by property owners who wanted the ditch built to drain their farms. The latter got out an original writ of mandamus tion by the supervisors. The ruling of the supreme court in sustaining the demurrer in effect blocks the building of the improvement. The ditch was the subjet of much bitter contention. It was to be known as the Jackson lake and Elk creek ditch and to cost $80,600.

Walthill Times: WP Warner, US marshal for Nebraska, says Nebraska is as safe for Taft as Iowa Ed Kellnar, a young farmer living three miles north of town, was the victim of a serious accident, Tuesday afternoon. He and Dan Lane were out hunting. They seared up a rabbit between them and both shot at it. In the hurry and excit-ment of the moment Lane discharged his gun in the direction Kellner was standing and the latter received the entire charge in his right leg, below the knee. The young man was brought to town and in the evening Dr Hart took him to the St Joseph hospital in Sioux City, where an effort is being made to save the limb from amputation. Mr Lane is almost heartbroken over the affair.
