

VOLUME 11
State Historical Society

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH

SUMMARY OF THE NEWS OF THE WHOLE WORLD.

FORCING THEIR HAND

SUFFRAGETTES PULL OFF ANOTHER DEMONSTRATION.

Women Announce Their Intention to Adopt Still More Forceful Methods in an Endeavor to Get a Vote--Organize a Parliament of Their Own.

Every effort of the suffragettes to force the hand of the British government becomes more determined, and it is increasingly difficult to predict how their demands may be successfully parried. The situation has taken on an embarrassing aspect for the government, owing to the high social position of many among thirty or more women arrested Wednesday evening, these including Mrs. Pethick Lawrence, Lady Constance Lytton, sister of Lord Lytton and daughter of the former vicar of India; Miss Stratford Dugdale, daughter of Commander Dugdale and cousin of Hon. William R. W. Peel, who was elected recently in a bye-election as a member of the commons for Taunton; Miss Daisy Solomon, daughter of the explorer of Cape Colony, and Mrs. Catherine Elizabeth Corbett, an aristocratic supporter of the suffrage movement.

Both sides were well prepared for Wednesday night's attempt on the part of the suffragettes to force themselves on Premier Asquith, who had declined by letter to receive a deputation. The women held "parliament" at Caxton hall, and a number of them started on "danger duty" in a solid phalanx, led by Mrs. Lawrence. The police, abandoning former tactics of barricade the approach to the house of commons, adopted the new plan of breaking up the procession close to Caxton hall. They permitted the suffragettes to proceed simply in couples, escorted by small parties of spectators. The women were thus not given much chance to create a disturbance, although they were allowed to come within close proximity of parliament. The police, however, kept them continually on the move, and none was allowed access to the building. Finally several of the women, including Mrs. Lawrence, the leader, were placed under arrest.

TRAIN HITS STREET CAR.

Three Persons Fatally Injured and Twenty More Seriously.

Three persons were fatally injured and twenty others hurt in a collision between a Pennsylvania railway train and a street car at Cleveland, O., Wednesday night.

The fatally injured are: Henry C. Schwartz, contractor, shoulder fractured and internally injured. Parker Lowe, contractor, arm dislocated, rib broken, internally injured. C. H. Ball, Williamsfield, O., compound fracture of the skull.

The street car was outboard and heavily loaded with passengers. At the grade crossing steam from an exhaust pipe in a nearby factory obscured the view of the approaching passenger train. For this reason the gates were not lowered and the car proceeded, although the conductor had run ahead and had pulled the derailing lever.

The locomotive struck the car near the rear end, splitting it in two. Many passengers were hurled several feet. That many were not killed was due to the slow speed of the train.

CLAIMS SHE WAS DRUGGED.

Girl Says She Was Held Up by Men Who Forced Her to Take Poison.

That she was held up by two men and threatened with death, forced to swallow a drug, and carried to a hotel near Lincoln park, where she remained unconscious for twenty hours, is an experience related to the Chicago police by Miss Marie McInroe, 19 years of age.

Miss McInroe says she was stopped by two men armed with revolvers while she was on her way to her home. They ordered her, she said, to make no outcry and then forced her to swallow poison. How she was taken to the hotel she does not recall.

Killed in Battle with Officers.

An unidentified youth, about 20 years old, was killed in a pistol battle between Illinois Central railroad detectives and thieves in St. Louis. Edward Smith fired the fatal shot. Smith surrendered to the police, who released him. The youth and his companions were robbing cars and opened fire on the detectives.

Sioux City Live Stock Market.

Wednesday's quotations on the Sioux City live stock market follow: Top beefs, $5.70. Top hogs, $6.30.

Ex-Gov. Pardee Uses Fist.

Stung by the epithet "liar," applied to him by E. B. Jones, of Oakland, Cal., during a meeting of the Merchants' Exchange, former Gov. Geo. C. Pardee fisted the former with a blow which landed flush on his chin. Before hostilities could be resumed Jones was taken away by a policeman.

THIRTEEN ARE DEAD.

Tornado Wrecks the Town of Fisher, Arkansas.

Thirteen persons were killed, several seriously injured, and much property destroyed by a storm which, originating in Lonoke county, in eastern Arkansas, and moving northeastward, traversed the counties of Lonoke, Prairie, Woodruff and Poinsett early Wednesday.

Because of the interruption of wire communication with the storm-swept territory only the most meager information was available. At Fisher, a town of 400 inhabitants, it is reported that but two buildings remain standing, and the injured are imprisoned in the wreckage.

Storm and flood conditions throughout Kentucky, and especially in Louisville, Wednesday were severe. The precipitation was close to four inches in less than twenty-four hours. A landslide on the main line of the Henderson route near West Point has delayed traffic on the road between Louisville and St. Louis. The Kentucky river, swollen by heavy rains in the mountains, was pouring a volume of water past Frankfort Wednesday night which is expected to cause a rise in the Ohio when it strikes that stream at Carrollton.

One hundred residents along Bear-graff creek, which runs through a portion of Louisville, Ky., were driven from their homes by the swollen stream. Over 250 cattle in slaughter houses were drowned.

Between midnight Monday and 10 o'clock Wednesday night five inches of rainfall covered Louisville and the adjoining territory.

Many bridges in central Kentucky have been carried away, and much live stock has been lost.

There was considerable precipitation at Memphis during Wednesday morning, which gave way to a hard wind-storm at noon, and Nashville reported a hard all day rain.

ROADS MUST PAY THE BIG FINE.

New York Central Loses in the Highest Court.

The verdict in the United States circuit court of New York, imposing a fine of $108,000 upon the New York Central Railroad company on the charge of granting rebates to the American Sugar Refining company, was Tuesday affirmed by the supreme court of the United States.

The case of the United States vs. the New York Central, involving the question whether a railroad company which is party to a rebate transaction, but which was not the initiating road, can be criminally prosecuted for violation of the Elkins' anti-trust law, was decided by the court against the company.

HOT PRIMARY FIGHT.

Lieut. Gov. Sherman Wins Springfield Mayorial Nomination.

In a primary election at Springfield, Ill., which was almost sensational in interest throughout the city former Lieut. Gov. Lawrence Sherman was nominated republican candidate for mayor over Mayor Roy R. Reese by less than a dozen votes, according to unofficial, but carefully compiled figures. A total vote of 10,000 was cast, of which Sherman received 3,109 and Reese 3,100.

Sherman removed from Macomb to Springfield two years ago, and has just retired from the state office of lieutenant-governor. He is running for mayor on a law enforcement plan.

WORLD'S GREATEST PAPER.

Walter Wellman Advises Andrew Carnegie to Launch One.

In an address on journalism before the University of Missouri Walter Wellman advised Andrew Carnegie to "build his most useful and enduring monument by founding at Washington the greatest newspaper in the world." It should be a newspaper not for profit (though managed on the basis of a business enterprise), but a newspaper with purpose, and that purpose the promotion of international peace and of good government, progress and reform in America.

Ten Years for Mrs. Peck.

A sentence of ten years' imprisonment was imposed by Judge Crain in general sessions court in New York City upon Mrs. Ellen Peck, 79 years of age, of Sharkhill, N. Y. Mrs. Peck, who is known to the police as the "confidence queen," was convicted of obtaining $2,000 from a brokerage firm upon the false representation that she owned a tract of 225.00 acres of coal land.

One Killed and Nine Buried.

While working in a sewer line on the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition grounds at Seattle, Wash., Wednesday Daniel Roberts was killed and nine of his companions buried under thirty-four feet of debris by a cave-in. The imprisoned men were not seriously hurt.

Gaiety in New Orleans.

The Mardi Gras was celebrated with typical gaiety and revelry in New Orleans Tuesday. It is a legal holiday, a day characterized by practically a suspension of business and the turning of attention to mimicry and fun.

Sharp Earthquake Shock.

A sharp earth shock occurred at Constantine, Algeria, Wednesday. It was accompanied by subterranean rumblings and lasted several seconds.

BUT ONE SUCH SIGHT.

President Toasts Home Coming of Giant Fleet.

"Not until some American fleet returns victorious from a great sea battle will there be another such homecoming, another such sight as this. I drink to the American navy."

This was the toast of President Roosevelt as he stood radiantly happy in the cabin of the graceful little cruiser yacht Mayflower at the conclusion of the ceremonies attending the homecoming of the battleship fleet Monday in Hampton Roads. He was surrounded by rear admirals and captains of the world-encircling vessels, brilliantly attired in all the gold lace and paraphernalia of full dress uniforms, and every glass was raised in response to the president's suggestion.

And promptly at the hour set for their arrival, 11 o'clock a. m., a flash of flame and a puff of white powder from the forward bridge of the Consonnet marked the beginning of a riotous and unrestrained over the dancing waters of the roadstead with a continuous roar that suggested the din of actual battle.

Exactly at noon, in unison with the cannon showing their noses over the ramparts of Fort Monroe, the fleet fired twenty-one guns, each ship letting go simultaneously.

To the men and junior officers the president expressed his appreciation and the thanks of the country for the prestige which the cruise of the fleet has given to the American navy by making visits to the four divisional flagships, the Connecticut, the Louisiana, the Georgia and the Wisconsin.

WED THEIR SISTERS-IN-LAW.

Funeral of a Norfolk Man Brings to Light Strange Marriage.

The filing of the will of Phil Hull at Madison brought to light the fact that two brothers had married each other's divorced wives.

When H. H. Hull, of Annsworth, came to Norfolk to attend the funeral of his brother, Phil Hull, the Annsworth man learned that his own former wife was the widow of his dead brother.

Until he came to the deathbed of his brother he did not know that his divorced wife had been married to his brother.

But he could hardly complain, for H. H. Hull had previously married the former Mrs. Phil Hull, who had divorced herself from her present husband's brother.

So when they came to mourn the funeral of her brother, Mrs. H. H. Hull had to stand by the mourners at her late husband's funeral. Mrs. Phil Hull counted her own former husband, now her brother-in-law.

Phil Hull had married in Denver, but he had married in secret from relatives for a long time.

MILITIA IS DISBANDED.

Situation in South Omaha Becomes More Tranquil.

An order has been issued from South Omaha received disbanding the three companies of militia which have been under arms the past twenty-four hours and the men were sent to their homes, being instructed, however, to hold themselves in readiness for another call.

An incendiary fire occurred at Twenty-fifth and Q streets, South Omaha, in the old Atlantic hotel, formerly occupied as a Greek boarding house. It was quickly put out, however, and the damage was slight. The authorities believe there will be no further disturbances at present and are resting easier.

Many Greeks announced their intention of returning to Denver, but Chief Briggs and Sheriff Bradley are preparing to give them any protection thought necessary.

ATTACKS POLICE CHIEF.

Maniac at Hastings Strikes Officer with a Poker.

The police were called to the home of John Bennett, at Hastings, a man afflicted with epilepsy, and when Chief Briggs and Sheriff Bradley were hit over the head with a poker by the man. Bennett had expected the officers and had, it is alleged, armed his three children with knives and instructed them to join in the attack. The man fought desperately and four officers could hardly hold him. He was handcuffed and taken to the asylum. On the way the man became docile and laughed over the episode.

Humboldt Millers Win Case. O. A. Cooper & Son, of Humboldt, millers, have just received news of the decision of the interstate commerce commission on their case against the Burlington railway, in which was involved the freight rate on grain shipped to the western part of this state and Kansas. The decision was in favor of the complainants.

Knights Have Open Meeting. Knights of Pythias lodge had an open meeting at their hall in commemoration of the foundation of the order forty-five years ago, and many members were on hand, together with their wives to listen to an exposition of the principles of the order and a history of its earlier years.

Peru Farmers' Institute. An interesting program was carried out by the Peru farmers' institute association Saturday. A large number of farmers were in attendance, and a fine exhibit of fruits, grains and cookery added to the practical value and interest attaching to the program.

Good Price for Land. At the front door of the court house in Plattsmouth Saturday, Attorney C. A. Rawls sold at referee's sale 164 acres of land adjoining the town of Union belonging to the Joshua Lynn estate for $12,300, or a little over $104 per acre.

Theater Manager Dead. Eugene Tompkins, prominent for many years as a theater manager and owner, died at his home in Boston, Mass., Monday, after a long illness.

Castro to Return Home. According to present plans Cipriano Castro, former president of Venezuela, will return to that country on March 26 and resume the position of a private citizen.

Dr. William T. Bull Dead. Dr. William T. Bull, of New York, died at Atlanta, Ga., Monday. Dr. Bull was one of the best known surgeons in the United States, he was a victim of cancer.

NEBRASKA STATE NEWS

INTERESTING HAPPENINGS
From Day to Day Condensed
FOR OUR BUSY READERS

ACCUSED OF VICIOUS ASSAULT.

Soldier from the Philippines Arrested at Hamilton.

Charles Wanrow, a well known young man of Humboldt, was placed under arrest for an alleged assault on the person of Moss C. Davis, the veteran milkman of the city. The young man, who recently returned to his childhood home after spending several years as a soldier in the Philippines, claims that he was under the influence of liquor when the offense was committed, and in response to a plea from the aged parents of the young man, the complaint was dismissed by the court. The assault took place late in the evening as the milkman was on his way home with his cans. Wanrow accosted him and asked for a dollar and a half in payment for some work, and Mr. Davis protested that he did not owe the amount, whereupon he says he was knocked down and badly bruised about the face and head, getting to his home only with difficulty after recovering consciousness. Later it was discovered that the work performed had already been paid for. Mr. Davis is an old soldier, well along in the seventies and it is remarkable that he sustained no permanent injuries from the attack.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

A NEBRASKA MOB.

Angry Crowd Attacks Greeks in South Omaha.

From mid-afternoon until far into Sunday night South Omaha was the scene of rioting, murderous assaults and pillage. More than thirty buildings were burned, wrecked or badly damaged, and probably a score of persons injured, half that number seriously.

The immediate cause of the trouble was the killing on Friday night of Policeman Edward Lowery by John Maroulas, a Greek, whom the officer had placed under arrest.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

More than 1,000 men attended the meeting, which was addressed by men of prominence, including two members of the state legislature.

The South Omaha police force, though not large, responded valiantly to the demands upon its resources. Sheriff Bailey, of Douglas county, was called upon and went to the scene with a number of deputies, but their combined efforts were insufficient for many hours to prevent the destruction of property of the Greeks and assaults upon its owners. In but few instances was there any show of resistance.

On Saturday a petition was circulated in South Omaha and signed by hundreds of citizens setting forth that a large number of Greek residents of the place were of the undesirable class and calling a mass meeting at the city hall for Sunday afternoon to discuss methods of ridding the city of them.

Nebraska Legislature

The finance committee has allowed $14,000 for salaries and $15,000 for general expenses of the railway commission, which is $4,000 less for salaries and $5,000 less for expenses than was allowed by the legislature of two years ago.

A decision has been reached by the committee not to grant the increased appropriation for the labor bureau asked by Commissioner W. M. Maupin, which also includes a raise in the salary of the commissioner himself.

For the board of public lands and buildings the committee allowed for fuel, lights and engine house expenses, $7,000; improvements, repairs of capitol buildings, $5,000; employees' wages, regular, $15,000, but out of this item $70 a month is to be paid for a janitor selected by the governor for the executive office and mansion; extra janitors during the legislature, $1,440; incidentals, $3,000; repairing roof, $1,500; steel ceiling in capitol building, $500; complete wiring of capitol building, $1,500; two extra firemen during the legislature, $360.

The judiciary committee has recommended the Leidligh bill fixing the salaries of the office of the clerk of the supreme court. As amended before reporting it provides: Salary of clerk, $4,000; deputy, $2,500; two assistants, each, $1,000; deputy reporter, $1,800; assistant, $1,200; second assistant, $1,100; deputy librarian, $1,000.

All the Sunday baseball measures were killed in the state senate Wednesday morning. This makes it impossible to secure Sunday baseball in any form at this session of the legislature. Lincoln fans were infuriated for the bills and thousands had signed petitions.

The house Wednesday slaughtered Kelly's bill to establish an agricultural school at Cambridge. The school will be located in the North Platte county. After an acrimonious debate by the house members the bill restricting the length of freight trains to sixty-five cars was defeated by a vote of 45 to 51.

The senate passed a bill which may ruin Nebraska's divorce industry. The residence period is increased from six months to one year and the applicant must swear that he or she intends to reside in the state for at least five years. In case of doubt the decree may be withheld. The house passed a bill imposing penalties for the publication of false pedigrees of live stock.

Case of Frontier, introduced a bill in the house providing that before marriage licenses shall be issued applicants must have a certificate from some physician stating they are not afflicted with tuberculosis or any mental or physical ailment.