In the "bubble" contest prize offered by the Sioux City Brewing company, a lady of Homer (not Sioux City) sent in her count of 1253, with her "cardboard"—we believe the same was the equal in "artistic beauty and originality" of any other shown—and yet she was not given even a $5.00 prize—we presume the old "ground-hog" had something to do with counting her out.
The telephone line starting at the Swingle farm and terminating at Homer, is one of the best rural lines running into this place, and was built by Will Kuhl. It reaches many farmers, along and at the head of Fidler creek, that were apparently cut off from phone connections, but these sturdy men got together, organized and said we will build a first class line and they have done so, and deserve much praise for their enterprise in giving this part of the county telephone connections with all parts of the county and with Sioux City.
