

Throat Coughs

Ask your doctor about these throat coughs. He will tell you how deceptive they are. A tickling in the throat often means serious trouble ahead. Better explain your case carefully to your doctor, and ask him about your taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Who makes the best liver pills? The J. C. Ayer Company, of Lowell, Mass. They have been making Ayer's Pills for over sixty years. If you have the slightest doubt about using these pills, ask your doctor. Do as he says, always.

Mrs William Armour Crosses the Dark River

At her home in Sioux City, Iowa, 509 Market street, Mrs Elizabeth Jane Armour, wife of William W Armour, passed peacefully away last Friday morning March 18, 1909 at the age of sixty-five years. She had been ailing for a year or more from a disease of a cancerous nature, and recently underwent an operation, which failed to relieve her of the malady.

For forty years Mr and Mrs Armour were residents of this precinct, on the home farm four miles southwest of Dakota City, and were among our most respected and well-to-do families. A husband and eight children, five sons and three daughters, eleven grandchildren, three sisters, and two brothers, besides a large circle of minor relatives and friends are left to mourn her departure from this world. The sons are Will Armour, a banker of Allen, Nebr; Lee Armour, of Shoshone, Colo; Henry O Armour, of Sioux City; Dr George Armour, of Sioux City. The daughters are Mrs Robert O Hileman and Mrs Theodore McGlashan, who reside in this precinct, and Mrs Ed Selby, of Sioux City.

About three years ago Mr and Mrs Armour retired from active farm life and removed to Sioux City, where they could better enjoy life in their old age, for like many others who have made a success and accumulated a competency by tilling the soil it was next to impossible to sit down at their farm home and see others do all the work, hence the farm was leased and they took up their residence in town.

Coming to the county with her parents, James Garner and wife, in 1856, Mrs Armour underwent many of the hardships and vicissitudes of life which befel the pioneers of Dakota county; she also saw a vast wilderness transformed into a thriving, wealthy and picturesque community, where scores of neighbors and friends, with whom she had mingled all these years, will cherish the memory of the one departed.

Eliza J Garner, was born in Wayne county, Ill, February, 10th, 1844. Died in Sioux City, Iowa, March 19th, 1909, aged 65 years, 1 month and 9 days.

In company with her family she moved to Nebraska in the year 1856.

On March the 3rd, 1863 she was united in marriage to Wm Armour. To this union eight children were born, five sons and three daughters, all of whom have lived to manhood and womanhood and establish their own homes.

The subject of this sketch was one of the rarest of Christian mothers. Her church life covers practically all of the history of the Salem Lutheran church of Dakota county. She always held as most sacred all of the interests of this congregation, with whom she worked so long and so harmoniously.

To the time of her death Mrs Armour was a member of the W H & F M society of her communion. She dearly loved to do what she could in that work. All her associates held her in the highest esteem. Her fervent earnest prayers have been benedictions in many of the monthly home-circle meetings of the society.

In her home there abounded a most gracious hospitality. I think it well within the bounds of truth to say Mrs Armour influenced thousands of people for good during her long and useful life. She was not only mother to her own family whom she loved with tenderest solicitude, but she found time to be kind to her neighbors and friends. To the sick she ministered with hearty sympathy. In pioneer days when hard and sad conditions arose all found in her a true helper and friend.

Her soul to Him who gave it, rose; God led it to a sweet repose. 'Tis glorious heavenly rest!

And though this mother's sun has set, Her light shall linger round us yet. Bright, radiant, holy, true and true.

The funeral services were held at the Trinity Lutheran church in Sioux City, Sunday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by Rev W S Oberholtzer, of this place, assisted by Rev David R Huber. The remains were interred in Logan Park cemetery.

Among those from here who attended the funeral were, Geo Miller and wife, Judge D C Stinson and wife, S A Heikes and wife, Emmett Gribble and wife, Albert Heikes and daughter, J F Sides and wife, D M Neiswander, Mrs S A Stinson, Ida Bodenbender, S A Brienbaugh, R E Evans, Elizabeth Haase, Fred Culbertson and wife, G F Broyhill, Theodore McGlashan, Robert Hileman, wife and daughter, A D Ramsey and wife, Bernard Beals and wife, Milton Foreshoe and wife, A O Sides and wife, Mrs Alice Sides, Mrs Grace Lake.
