Items of Interest from our Exchanges

Salix items in Sloan, Iowa, Star: S D Cone came over from Nebraska to spend Sunday with his wife.

Wynot Tribune: H Braun of South Sioux City was here yesterday selling an ironing board which he has patented and manufactures.

Hartington News: F W Barnhart and C M Baird are on a fishing trip to Crystal Lake this week... Miss Maggie Baird, daughter of Mr and Mrs Z M Baird, returned Friday from Tarkio, Missouri, where she has been attending college.

Pender Times: Master Guy T Graves Jr, accompanied his father to Dakota City yesterday... Mrs Phillips of South Sioux City was a guest at the E L Tolph home yesterday... Miss Thilda Nelson of South Sioux City, was a guest at the home of Mrs Swan Anderson.

Pender Republic: Mrs A J Beam is over from Homer visiting with her son, Leon Beam and wife... Miss Mabel Nielsen was over from Winnebago over Sunday visiting Pender friends... Mr and Mrs M M Wagner of the Lyons Mirror visited over Sunday with friends in and about Pender.

Chas Kilbourn and wife and Tilden Harris and wife were here Sunday from Winnebago on their way to Onawa to attend the funerals of Mr Kilbourn's sister, Mrs L Jennewein, but were unable to cross the river. They left Winnebago the evening before and became lost on the reservation... Deatur Herald.

Omaha Bee, 24th: United States Marshal Warner and Deputy John Sides left Wednesday for Leavenworth, Kan, having in charge Tom Haley, alias Tim Murphy, charged with post-office robbery at Sumner, and Harvey Montgomery, charged with impersonating a government officer, who were sentenced at North Platte to two and one years in the United States penitentiary, respectively, at Leavenworth. Both men pleaded guilty to the respective charges. They have been in the Douglas county jail for several months.

Ponca Leader: William Armour Atene's popular banker, lawn tennis player and base ball sport was in Ponca Friday on a business trip... Messames Boettelman and Rhodes were in Hubbard Saturday. Mrs Mandy returned with them for a visit over Sunday... Mr and Mrs Elmer Cornell were up from Coburn over Sunday visiting friends in and about Ponca. They returned home Monday afternoon... Monday night at about midnight the house of Mr and Mrs George Bray burned to the ground. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Lyons Mirror: Miss Lizzie Nixon, of Homer, visited at the W O Waiter home the past week... F O Egleton returned from Crystal Lake Tuesday evening with a good catch of black bass... Section Boss John Young and men, were up to Bancroft Friday repairing the railroad tracks... Don't you wish you was a democratic editor, you could go up to Crystal Lake and sponge off of Editor W S Goldie of the Wayne Democrat who has built a summer cottage there and will live like a king. Of course he could not tolerate a republican editor unless he would agree to reform which is unlikely and not to be expected.

Emerson Enterprise: The Emerson band will play at the Homer celebration on July 3rd... Miss Minnie Ireland and Miss Alice McPherren left Wednesday morning for an extended visit at Fairbury... We received a card announcing the arrival of a little baby girl at the home of Editor and Mrs J B Kroesen at South Sioux City Sunday, June 20. We all rejoice in the fact that the baby does not resemble its papa in the least... On Wednesday at 11:30 o'clock at the home of H C Dayhoff in Sioux City occurred the marriage of Miss Anna McEffer to Will Flegg. The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs M C McEffer and the groom is a fine young engineer on the M & O railroad and well known here, having lived here many years, is a son of Mrs L Flegg one of Emerson's first settlers. The young couple will reside in Sioux City.

Winnebago Chieftain: Johnny Ashford was down from Homer nearly all week... Miss Edna Antrim was down from Homer last Saturday, the guest of Mrs Drake... Judd O'Dell, of Homer, and his brother, William, were Winnebago visitors the first of the week... C B Rogers and W E Buckland were Sioux City passengers last Thursday evening... Mr and Mrs Sheets went over to Salix, Iowa, in their hill climber last Sunday, but the rain caught them in Dakota City on the return trip so the train... Miss Myrtle Bates took her departure on Saturday for New Richmond, Wis, to visit with her friends there for the next six weeks. We don't exactly know about it, of course, but we'll venture to guess that there is one friend over in the good old Badger state that will monopolize the greater portion of her social moments... Benjamin and Julius Henderson of Emerson were here on Tuesday, looking up land. The latter, we understand, has finally been persuaded to accept the appointment of commissioner of Dakota county, to fill vacancy caused by the resignation of Fred Blume. We believe Mr Henderson will make a good commissioner.
