CALLS TWO CENT FARE ILLEGAL.

Declare Statute Unconstitutional and

Enjoins Against Enforcement. The 2-cent fare law passed by the Pennsylvania legislature in 1907 received another blow Friday when Judge Willson in Common Pleas court in Philadelphia declared the law unconstitutional. The decision was in the case of the Philadelphia and Reading Rallway Company to restrain the county of Philadelphia from enforcing the law. The local courts rendered a similar decision about a year ago in a suit brought by the Pennsylvania Railroad against the county. Judge Willson holds that the law is contrary to the constitution of the United States and the county is perpetually enjoined from enforcing the act against the Reading company.

MINISTERS OUST FOSTER.

Expelled from Chicago Conference on Account of Heretical Views.

Professor George Burman Foster on Monday was expelled from the Chicago Baptist Ministers' Conference because of the alleged heretical beliefs expressed in his recent book on "The Function of Religion." After a long and heated debate, in which the clergyman indulged in bitter personalities, the organization at its weekly meeting decided by a vote of 40 to 10 to drop the University of Chicago professor from its membership. The action does not affect Professor Foster's standing as a Baptist minister, but simply advocates disapproval of him and takes from him the right of fellowship in the conference. The resolution finally passed was stripped of all unnecessary verbiage, and in such form was able to command the support of a number who disliked the sort of tactics pursued by the foes of Professor Foster. As introduced by Rev.
