

Destroys Hair Germs

Recent discoveries have shown that falling hair is caused by germs at the roots of the hair. Therefore, to stop falling hair, you must first completely destroy these germs. Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will certainly do this. Then leave the rest to nature.

Formula with each bottle shows it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

Recent discoveries have also proved that dandruff is caused by germs on the scalp. Therefore, to cure dandruff, the first thing to do is to completely destroy these dandruff germs. Here, the same Ayer's Hair Vigor will give the same splendid results.

Paul McAllister pitched the game for our boys and struck out twenty-two Knights, and with a little better support would have shut out the opposing team. The percentage of our team now is 0.00000. The same teams play again Sunday at the lake.

A C Carroll, of Jackson, has been here this week, and with a force of men is tearing down the King-Truax elevator, formerly the Blenkiron elevator, which was located on the Burlington right of way. A lack of business to support two elevators is given as the reason for tearing it down. It is more likely, though, that the competition with the Fields & Slaughter elevator and the close proximity to Sioux City had something to do with the move. Mrs William Orr Answers the Final Summons

Ann Matilda Mason, was born in Lisgar, Ontario, Can, Jan 13, 1844, and died in Dakota City, Nebraska, July 3, 1909, of cancer of the stomach. She was married to William Orr Jan 5th, 1870 and emigrated with her husband to Dakota county, Nebraska, arriving in Nov, 1871 and has resided here ever since.

She was the mother of six children, Ida, George, Lillian, William H, Mrs Frank Lean and Mrs R G Harvey, all of whom, with the devoted father and husband, surprise her. Mrs Matilda Mason Orr, was converted during a revival at Dakota City under the pastorate of the Rev Mr Richards and united shortly afterwards with the Methodist Episcopal church of which she remained a faithful and devoted member until her death.

How complete her dedication of herself to the Lord was, and how thoroughly she lived up to her vows and the profession of her faith is evidenced by the pure and unselfish life that she lived, and the sweet wholesome influence that radiated from her and left its impress on all those about her. She was possessed of those sweet christian graces, which always added beauty and strength to character and which makes one so charmingly delightful to associate with.

Although she was confined to her bed for more than nine months and suffering at times such excruciating pain that it seemed almost unbearable, yet never a word of complaint escaped her lips, while her sweet smile and words of cheer were always a source of great comfort to those who ministered to her. Why one so pure and good as she, should thus suffer is a mystery we can not solve or understand now, but we shall know hereafter. As we look about us today we can see evidences of her noble life and goodly career on every hand, not only in the practical material things, but also in the deep and profound spiritual things, the results of which we can see better when the mists have cleared away, and the ultimate fruits of which, eternity alone can reveal.

Her love for every high and holy enterprise undertaken by the church of her choice was shown by her willingness to help us best she could, oftentimes going beyond her physical strength in order to carry to a successful issue some laudable enterprise for the good of the community.

That her home life was radiant with the sunshine of a devoted love and unselfish christian character is seen by the fact that her faith and devotion to the cause of Christ, not only won her companion but all her children to love and adore her savior; and in her going she has not only led them into the church militant but also into the church triumphant.

Nothing that the writer can say, more fittingly or completely expresses her life of constant devotion and helpfulness, and her glorious and triumphant entry into her heavenly home than the following beautiful lines:
Pale withered hands, that more than three score years
Have wrought for others and smoothed the hurt of tears,
Rocked children's cradles, and eased the fever's smart,
Dropped balm of thoughtful love in others' heart,
Now stilled lie, folded like wan rose leaves pressed
Above the heart's stilled silence of her breast.

In mute appeal they tell of work laid down And well earned rest, that came her work to crown.

From the worn brow the lines of care are swept
As if an angel's kiss, the while she slept
Had smoothed the cobweb wrinkles quite away
And given back the peace and glow of childhood's day.

And on her lips the faint smile almost dead
No one knows life's secret but the happy dead.

So gazing on her where she lies, we know that pain
And parting cannot cleave to her soul again.

And we are sure that they who saw her last,
In that dim vista, which we call the past,
They who never knew her old, but blithe
While'er beside
Remembering her the best, as maiden fair and bride
Have sprung to greet her with the olden
And dear sweet names no other love can touch.

Ho! Welcome home! they cry, and clasp her hands,
So dwell our angel mother in the best of lands,
Where friends and loved ones in one happy union dwell
Amid their savior's welcome. Thou hast done well.

Card of Thanks

We wish to publicly express our thanks to the kind friends who assisted us during the sickness and death of our beloved mother. Especially do we thank those whose deeds of thoughtfulness made her days of suffering brighter.
William Orr and Family.

E. & B. Special Hand Saw at $1.00
Made expressly for us by one of the largest manufacturers of saws in the United States. Don't pay $1.75 to $2.00 for this same saw under a different name, but buy the E. & B. Fully warranted.

E. & B. Ball-Bearing Sewing Machine, at $22.50
A better or more durable sewing machine cannot be built at any price. Why pay $40 to $65 for a sewing machine when we will place this machine in your own home along side any of the so-called superior makes and leave you decide for yourself. In fact it has decided improvements over some of the "Old Line" machines which are peddled from house to house, and the extra expense incurred by this method of selling must necessarily be borne by the purchaser.

E. & B. Rubber Roofing
Not a cheap composition of tarred felt and discarded wedding gowns, but a high grade article, moderately priced and made to withstand the action of the elements.
Remember! You can't go wrong on E. & B. goods. The label is a guarantee of quality and unlimited satisfaction to the user.
