from our Exchanges

Newcastle Times: Miss Katie Russell visited part of the week with her aunt at Dakota City.

East Silver Creek items in Ponca Leader: Mr James Sutherland from Jackson set Thanksgiving dinner with home folks.

Pender Times: John Severson was down from Sioux City, yesterday. Miss Esther Larson is visiting at Sioux City with her sister, Mrs Mell Neubur.

Hornick items in Sloan, Iowa, Star: Edward C Sherrard and wife spent Thanksgiving with the latter's parents in South Sioux City, Neb. Byron Dorn of Sioux City, Neb, visited Friday and Saturday with his sister, Mrs E C Sherrard.

Sloan, Iowa, Star: Mr and Mrs Aaron Olson returned last week from a visit with their daughter, Mrs Robert McFarland, at Hubbard, Neb, and other relatives in that vicinity. They state that the farmers in that community have enjoyed good crops this year but have been delayed in corn picking by the prevailing inclement weather the past few weeks.

Pender Republic: J H Smith was here from Hubbard over Sunday with his family. J B Walden left this morning for Los Angeles, to see his wife who is reported to be in very poor health. Frank Greenough will look after his real estate business during his absence. Mr Walden has recently bought out WE Stundnick's interests in the firm of Walden and Stundnick. The latter will go on the road for an insurance Co.

Omaha Republican: B S Leedom and wife returned from Elgin on Monday, having enjoyed a visit with friends of the long ago. We in company with Rev Wigton and wife formerly of this place, were entertained at a 7 o'clock dinner at the country home of the late Geo H Copeland and wife, of the state university, where a pleasant evening was spent in recounting incidents of pioneer days in Madison, Antelope and Wheeler counties.

Winnebago Chief: Will Odell of Homer was a caller in Winnebago on Monday. Mrs T C Bristol, of Homer, was a Winnebago visitor on Thursday. Dr R D Stidworthy of Homer was a business caller in Winnebago on Monday. Will Ream came on the evening passenger on Wednesday to visit old friends in and around Winnebago. Miss Veda Shore, of Homer, was a passenger to Winnebago Thursday. She will work at the P O McFarland home.

Emerson Enterprise: Joe Harris is in Ponca this week serving on the jury. Prof Carl Schrieffer installed a fine Merrill piano in the Ernest Enke home last week. Mrs R B Hatcher visited in Crofton the first of the week. Mr Hatcher is breaking on the branch. Wm Niemeyer, the Dakota City painter is adding the finishing touches to the Farmers State Bank office. The banking room has been torn up for the past three months but when the painter takes his leave they will have one of the nicest banking houses of any bank of its size.

Ponca Leader: Time is drawing near when the contract for county bridge work will be let. Dakota county makes a big profit every year by doing their own bridge contracting. They do not let contracts to bridge concerns and let them do the work at an enormous profit. Has not Dixon county as competent men as our neighboring county? Invariably our bridge bills are out when Dixon and Dakota counties construct a county bridge together. Don't you think this is a matter Dixon county commissioners ought to consider when they let the bridge contract for the year 1910. If Dakota county can construct their own bridges cheaper, why can't Dixon county.

Sioux City News, Dec 4th: Miss Maud Agnes, a pretty stenographer employed by the Farmers, Loan and Trust company since last April, and Julius Forrester, have married and gone to housekeeping at 617 Main st, according to a statement made this morning by Mrs J M Agnes, mother of the girl. Forrester denied that the marriage had taken place, but said that they will be married. The report is that the pair tied themselves to Dakota City and there were license ed to wed by Judge D C Stinson. When asked whether or not the report was true Judge Stinson refused to admit or deny, explaining his reticence with some remark about not wishing to break faith. Forrester refused to give any information. Inquiry at the Farmers' Loan and Trust company offices brought out the fact that Miss Agnes' resignation, effective Dec 1 was tendered November 1.

Ponca Journal: Ed Barker was at Jackson Monday. Harry Clark was at Jackson yesterday. John V Pearson was at Dakota City Saturday. Marie Rogosh returned to Jackson where she teaches school. Mrs Jan King returned to her home at Homer Saturday noon after spending Thanksgiving at the J R Pomeroy home. Little Miss Jessie Bittenbender entertained a number of her small friends at her home last Friday evening. Little Mammie King of Homer was one of the out of town guests. Mrs Bittenbender assisted by two masqueraders amused the little folks until the hour of bed time when each guest was started on her way home. The evening was enjoyed immensely. At the home of the bride, on Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock, Warren L McCool was married to Clara A Wilbur. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs John A Wilbur, was born in this county, has lived her whole life here, and is known as being one of Dixon county's most popular young ladies. She was dressed in pale blue messaline, heavily brocaded in back and front and finished with pale chiffon garniture of the same, and made a handsome bride. Warren L McCool is the younger son of Rev Wm C McCool, who was formerly the beloved pastor of the Lutheran church in Ponca for many years. He was dressed in conventional black, and made a no less handsome groom; as to the strains of Lohengrin wedding march, rendered by Miss Anna Rahn, the young couple marched to the bridal altar in the spacious Wilbur parlor where they were united in holy marriage by the Rev George Bray, the vows being audibly given and the ring service being used.

Sioux City News, 2nd: When did Henry Bodenbender, of Dakota City, Neb, become Count Heinrich Bodenbender, of Bavaria, Germany? That is what is puzzling friends in Dakota county, where he was born and grew up from boyhood, and that is what probably will puzzle friends in Sioux City who went to school with him at the Sioux City Business college and who were associated with him when he was a clerk in the Great Northern freight office here. The startling news comes in a clipping from the Wichita, Kas, Beacon—a "Slug head" story under the caption, "German Count a Clerk Here". It is told how for seven months a well dressed young man has been making his way to the general offices of the Missouri Pacific railroad and there doing routine work as private Secretary to A H Webb, division superintendent at Wichita, whereas all the while he "belongs to one of the oldest families in the kingdom of Bavaria, and is heir to one of the richest estates in southern Germany." Friends of young Bodenbender up here think some of his associates have been playing a joke on both him and the newspaper. Certainly the newspaper does not give any evidence of treating the matter as a joke. The article tells how the "count" arrived at Wichita last spring and how up to the time of the disclosure in its columns but three men about the station learned his real identity. Even the superintendent did not know his clerical work was being done by "a real count". It is explained that "the count" has been in the U. S. several years studying social economy and American business methods. That "the count" is not hunting an American heiress is assured by the article. It says: "In fact, he is unusually modest when ladies are about. But in spite of this he is a great admirer of American women. Neither is he seeking notoriety. At his work he is industrious; in his private life he loves good books and quiet. He goes out but little from his boarding place. There is no trace of accent in his speech. He converses fluently in five languages besides German and English." Henry Bodenbender's mother and Miss Ida Bodenbender, his sister, live at Dakota City.
