Hartington News: Miss Margaret
Baird arrived Monday noon from Nevada, Iowa, where she is teaching school and will spend her vacation at home.

Wynot Tribune: Misses Ruth and Helen McCormick went to South Sioux City Friday where they spent Sunday visiting their grandmother and uncle and among numerous old friends.

Windsor Items in Wayne Democrat: Mrs R E Evans, Assistant Grand Matron of the Eastern Star of Nebraska, was present at the regular meeting of the order Monday evening. At 6:30 an elegant spread was served in the lodge rooms followed by responses to appropriate toasts, after which the regular work of the lodge was taken up and the degrees conferred upon one candidate.

Lyons Mirror: Just 40 years ago yesterday, Tuesday December 21, 1869, Dr Cass Smith slept on the ground with nothing but a blanket for bedding while herding Texas cattle on our old Pilgrim Hill farm two miles east of Homer. In fact he had slept in the open air all night and up to this time, as the weather was mild and warm with the exception of several "little squalls." The next day he left for his old home at Davenport, Io.

Pender Times: Miss Lou Hirsch was in Sioux City the first of the week. County Superintendent Ellet Voss of Dakota county was a Pender visitor the first of the week. Mrs Chas Pounds is here from Hubbard visiting at the home of her parents, Mr and Mrs James Smith. S G Gravel was in town Sunday. He will occupy the farm now leased by D A Kelso, and will move down here from Nacora, early this coming year.

Emerson Enterprise: Miss Beasie Church of Homer, is visiting with her sister Mrs Chas Bockwell. Mr and Mrs S E Cobb and children enjoyed a visit Wednesday with Mr Cobb's sister, Mrs J L Kroesen, of Cedar Falls, Iowa. Word was received here by Mr and Mrs C O Bondreau of the marriage of their son, Goodwin, to Miss Lizzie Livings, of Cairo, Ill, at that place last week. The news was a great surprise to his parents and friends here. The happy young couple are expected here soon after Christmas to spend New Years.

Winnebago Chieftain: John Nixon of Homer was a Winnebago visitor between trains on Sunday. Miss Mabel Niebuhr was a Sioux City passenger on Monday evening, returning Tuesday noon. Mr and Mrs H A Monroe and children of Homer visited between trains on Sunday at the home of M S and Mrs Mausfield. Miss Fern Buckland came home for the Christmas vacation from Long Pine, where she has been staying with her sister, Mrs S A Blanchard, and going to school.

Sioux City Journal 28th: Dr Will Bates has received a letter from C D Reed, who a few weeks ago was reported drowned in the Missouri river. For the last two years Mr Reed ran the pleasure launches on Crystal Lake. At the close of last season he moved two of his boats to the Missouri river and with his family started for the sunny south with Dr Bates as pilot. Mr Reed intended to spend the winter somewhere on the lower Mississippi river, but on account of the late start from Sioux City he stopped at Kansas City, where he now is working at his trade as electrician.

Wayne Democrat: Harry Armstrong went to Hubbard Monday morning to do a day's plumbing. The Democrat has a choice piece of property at Crystal Lake for sale. Two of the best acres of beach, good, new cottage, boat and summer furniture, all for sale at a reasonable figure. Mrs John T Bressler returned this morning from Dakota City, where she had assisted in making arrangements for the burial of her father, Mark Fair, who died at Forest Grove, Ore, where he went last fall to visit his daughter, Mrs Watson. Mr Fair was over eighty-five years of age and a pioneer of Dakota county. His wife preceded him in death a number of years ago.

Ponca Leader: Attorneys Kingsbury and W D McCarthy are at Dakota City today trying a law case. Mr Ed Rush of Vista was in town Tuesday trading with our merchants. He reports his crop of corn all cribbed and he is ready to enjoy Christmas tide. Mrs W F Mikerell has been very sick the past ten days, and unable to leave the house, but is considerable better at this writing and hopes to be in usual health at Christmas time. Ice men in Ponca are preparing ice houses for another crop of ice. They will fill their houses this year either with Missouri ice or with ice from Crystal Lake. The Crystal Lake ice is said to be very fine ice. Newsweek used ice from Crystal Lake last year.

Sioux City Journal 28th: Dr Will Bates has received a letter from C D Reed, who a few weeks ago was reported drowned in the Missouri river. For the last two years Mr Reed ran the pleasure launches on Crystal Lake. At the close of last season he moved two of his boats to the Missouri river and with his family started for the sunny south with Dr Bates as pilot. Mr Reed intended to spend the winter somewhere on the lower Mississippi river, but on account of the late start from Sioux City he stopped at Kansas City, where he now is working at his trade as electrician.

Wayne Democrat: Harry Armstrong went to Hubbard Monday morning to do a day's plumbing. The Democrat has a choice piece of property at Crystal Lake for sale. Two of the best acres of beach, good, new cottage, boat and summer furniture, all for sale at a reasonable figure. Mrs John T Bressler returned this morning from Dakota City, where she had assisted in making arrangements for the burial of her father, Mark Fair, who died at Forest Grove, Ore, where he went last fall to visit his daughter, Mrs Watson. Mr Fair was over eighty-five years of age and a pioneer of Dakota county. His wife preceded him in death a number of years ago.

Ponca Leader: Attorneys Kingsbury and W D McCarthy are at Dakota City today trying a law case. Mr Ed Rush of Vista was in town Tuesday trading with our merchants. He reports his crop of corn all cribbed and he is ready to enjoy Christmas tide. Mrs W F Mikerell has been very sick the past ten days, and unable to leave the house, but is considerable better at this writing and hopes to be in usual health at Christmas time. Ice men in Ponca are preparing ice houses for another crop of ice. They will fill their houses this year either with Missouri ice or with ice from Crystal Lake. The Crystal Lake ice is said to be very fine ice. Newsweek used ice from Crystal Lake last year.

Mrs C Thompson returned last week from a two weeks' visit near Daubury, Iowa. Mikol Mikelsen was on the sick list last week. Miss Theresa Green was a Christmas visitor at the Geo Timlin home. Our schools closed last Thursday for the holiday vacation. The afternoon was observed by a neatly arranged program, showing the careful training and great painstaking by the teachers.

Fred Bartels is the busiest man out, freedom hauling feed of some kind. Fred says there is no rest for the wicked.

Little Frankie Schumacher was sick with a cold the past week. Carl Anderson, Andrew Anderson and Carl Fredericksen attended the Christmas tree festivities in Sioux City Saturday night, given by the Danish Brotherhood.

Margaret Hertnett, Mabel McGee and Margaret Howard came home from Jackson to spend the holidays. Martin Hawk was in Lemars, Iowa, to consult a physician. He has been suffering with asthma for many years, and it is hoped that he will receive some benefit. He returned Tuesday.

A baby boy was born to Ernest Goertz and wife Sunday. H Benze and wife ate Christmas dinner with relatives in Sioux City. Chris Bonderson went to Lyraur to spend Christmas with his sister. John O Smith is expecting to build a new dwelling house in the spring.

Rev Larson, of Sioux City, came down Tuesday and preached a Christmas sermon to a fair sized audience. He is a fine talker. Charles Jensen came home to spend Christmas with the old folks. Wm Dodge is chief cook and bottle washer at the Chas Dodge home these days.

Mrs Geo Timlin visited at the parental home the first of the week. Louis Pedersen and family dined at the Herman Nelson home Christmas day. Ella Thornton came down from Sioux City Monday to visit friends and relatives. In fact he had slept in the open air all night and up to this time, as the weather was mild and warm with the exception of several "little squalls." The next day he left for his old home at Davenport, Io.
