Sixty Men Beat a Brigade.

In his article on the career of Maj. Henry Young, the famous Civil War scout, in Harper's Magazine, W. G. Beymer gives a vivid account of one of the most daring of his adventures.

This expedition was made within a few days after the men had been selected, dressed in the gray uniforms and armed with two revolvers each...

Young gave a signal, and the men stole out from among the trees, leading the horses; at the roadside they mounted, and waited.

Smokers of tobacco may in the near future go into the fields and pluck from plants pipes to their own liking...

Canada Thistles. The experiment stations of this country have undertaken to show the farmers how to exterminate the Canadian thistles...

FARM AND GARDEN

Several inquiries have come in about turkey ailments. The heads are swollen, and, in some cases, dark colored.

It is more difficult to doctor them than common fowls. Turkeys are both more delicate and more nervous.

It is in the selection of pullets for laying the Maine experiment station has this to say:

Only investigators and an occasional poultryman, however, can afford the equipment and the expense involved in operating trap nests.
