SOME NOTED AEROPLANE EXPERTS WHO WILL RACE AT OMAHA JULY 23-27

GLENN H. CURTISS, the aviator who recently broke all records by flying from Albany to New York City, has signed a contract with the Aero club of Nebraska to make a number of flights from some point near Omaha and the club has put up $15,000 as a guarantee. The first thing the Aero club of Nebraska did was to secure the Mid-West aviation meet and it is for this event that Curtiss has been secured to make flights five days, July 23 to 27. At a number of aviation meets held in the west, men trained by Curtiss will be seen, but as far as known the Nebraska club is the only one which has secured the real Curtiss between Chicago and the Pacific coast. Besides Mr. Curtiss, the club has secured C. J. Mars and Charles K. Willard, who will also make flights at the meet. Mr. Mars is to select the site within a few days, but it is certain to be within easy reach of Omaha by street cars, as it would be impossible to handle the crowds without them and convey people back and forth to some grand open place where a safe start can be made within sight of thousands of people. Both Benson and Florence are after the meet and both are near Omaha.

Drowned in Crystal Lake.

While making the trip from Foye's park to the Sanders dock and return on the launch, South Sioux City, late Monday night, Louis Berger, a young ball player from Sioux City, fell into the murky waters of the lake and was seen no more alive by his companions. He was laying on the narrow platform outside the railing on the front of the boat with a companion, and when about a half mile east of the dock of Island Beach hotel he suddenly leaped over the railing and fell overboard. The boat was stopped and a diligent search was made for the man, but his body was not recovered until Wednesday night, when it was discovered by Lou McKinney floating near the place where he fell from the boat. The remains were taken to the Westcott morgue in Sioux City where Coroner Sawyer held an inquest over the remains.

There were no marks on the body that would indicate that he had been injured by the propeller of the boat. As he was a good swimmer some thought that his death was caused in this manner.

The deceased man lived in Sioux City where he had relatives. He was a member of a Sioux City amateur ball team and pitched against the local team at Crystal Lake last Sunday.

HOMEMAKERS' CLUB MEETING. An interesting meeting of the Dakota County Homemakers' club was held at this place Thursday afternoon of last week, at the court house hall. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, the object of the meeting stated and an invitation extended to all present to become members. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Mrs J F Winebrener read a very practical paper on "Buttermaking," in which she described her method of making butter, after which each step in the process was taken up and thoroughly discussed. Various methods and opinions were given by the ladies present.

"Conventions that Save Labor" was the subject of a paper by Mrs George Bates, which was very practical and well written. A general discussion followed.

In recitations Ruby Dierking gave "Mice at Play," and Mrs Mary R McBeath "The Frenchman and His Fien Powder," a humorous selection in French dialect, both of which were well delivered. Bonny Brawley recited "The Man Who Opened Eyes," a selection-descriptive of the time of miracle working, and for an encore "Encouragement," a humorous negro dialect selection. Both were thoroughly enjoyed by the audience, and showed eloquent training.

For select reading Mrs Elmer Blessing gave "Homemakers and Housekeepers and Gertrude Hall, 'Self Culture.'" Both were appropriate and well read.

In the discussion, "Preparing Pineapple for Winter Use," several choice receipts were given.

Paper, "Aim in Education," by Margaret Murphy, showed much thought and careful preparation.

Mrs O H Maxwell gave "Current Events," a review of the world's important happenings since the last meeting, was well selected and interesting.

Although the day was warm, about forty-five attended the meeting. Those attending from neighboring towns were, Mrs J F Winebrener and H J Rooney and wife of South Sioux City; Margaret Murphy of Homer; Mrs B E Grillo, Mrs Wm Beninger and daughter, of Hubbard; Misses Nancy and Bonnie Barry, May Boler, Francis Sawyer and Gertrude Hall, of Jackson; Florence Goodfellow, of Sioux City, and Frances and Daisy Winebrener, Altoona, Pa.

Can Keep a Secret too. Nearly a month after an attempt was made to assault Miss Ida Teter, of South Sioux City, on the night of June 9th, today came the announcement that she had been a bride since May 16, for on that date, at Valentine, Neb, at the home of a school friend, she was married to Edgar Phillips.

The ceremony was performed at the home of Miss Cora Robbins by a clergyman, and after binding Miss Robbins to secrecy and vowing that she would never again tell where her mother and her mother, the bride and groom separated, she returned to her home in South Sioux City as he to his at Marsland, Neb, where he owns a farm.

The secret remained with those five people until today, when the bride's brother, W F Teter, of Sioux City, was made acquainted with the facts. Mrs Phillips went to Valentine today, where she was joined by her husband, and they went at once to his farm, where they will live. He lived in South Sioux City many years.—Sioux City Tribune, 5th.

NUPTIALS. The marriage of Miss Rose Heeney and Joseph A. Heenan was solemnized at St Mary's Catholic church at Hubbard, Neb, on Wednesday, June 29, 1910, at 9 o'clock in the evening.

Promptly at the appointed hour the bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Josephine Davey of Sioux City. Rev J E English performed the impressive ceremony, and followed by a military march sung by girl friends of the bride.

The bride was attended by her sister, May Heeney, and her cousin, Mary L. Heeney. James Heenan and Will Franklin attended the groom. The bride was beautiful in a handsome white, imported gown, capably trimmed in lace and embroidery; she wore the conventional bridal veil caught in her hair with white rose buds, and carried a large bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids were charmingly attired in delicate and dainty gowns of white all over embroidered with pink rose bud wreaths in their hair.

After the ceremony the bridal party was driven in automobiles to the spacious country home of the bride's parents, a mile north of Naocora, where an informal reception was held which was attended by more than one hundred relatives and friends from Hubbard, Jackson, Vista, Sioux City and other points. An elegant four course breakfast followed the reception. The wedding colors, pink and white, were artistically used in the decorations of the rooms and the beautifully appointed tables. The bride's table was attended by Josephine Davey and Margaret Keefe.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr and Mrs James Heeney of Naocora; she is a graduate of the Nebraska Normal college of Wayne and has taught school for four years in northeast Nebraska. She is a young lady of sterling worth and character who is highly respected and admired by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. The groom is the son of Mr and Mrs John Heenan, of Vista. He is one of Dakota county's best young men and is worthy of the high confidence and esteem in which he is held by all who know him.
